AUTO TIRES

BARGAIN
WALSH RED TREAD TIRES

Owing to the scarcity of supplies, and consequent increase in the cost of coloring pigment used in the Walsh Red Tread Tires, we have decided to discontinue the manufacture of the Red Tread entirely, and no more are to be had when our present supply of raw materials is exhausted.

Our supply of raw materials for the Red Tread will last only a few days more. To close out our present stock, and to dispose of those now in process of manufacture as quickly as they are finished, we offer the following sizes in the plain or smooth tread only:
30 in. x 3½ in. at $10 each.
Cash with order, f. o. b., factory.
These prices are lower than jobbers' prices on goods of equal quality and construction.
We guarantee these tires to be free from imperfection of any kind, both as to material and workmanship; to be strictly "firsts" and to be less than one week old.
These are the only sizes, except 34 in. x 4 in. O. D. Red Tread, which we offer at $15.00 each.
Terms cash C. O. D. or on open account.
If not entirely satisfactory after inspection on arrival, tires may be returned to us, and money will be refunded without argument, provided goods have not been used.

SCRAPPLE

—Lampoon.

He—I heard that Griggs wrote that wonderful poem while two cats were fighting outside of his window.

She—I wonder how he did it.

He—Probably the mews inspired him.

Citizen—You say you were once an actor? What might your favorite role be?

Tattered Tucker—Dat wid a sausage in de centre.

THE PADDED CELL

A SYMPATHETIC SOUL

—Punch.

Bluejacket (in charge of party of sightseers)—Here Nelson fell.

Old Lady—An' I don't wonder at it, poor dear. Nasty slippery place! I nearly fell there myself!

The Newlyweds

Mr. Popp—According to this paper, boiled cow's milk is not good for babies.

Mrs. Popp—I guess the paper's right, dear. I should think a raw cow would give much better milk than a boiled one.

Too Tough

Customer—The last steak I got from you I could have soled my shoes with.

Butcher—Well, why didn't you do it?

Customer—So I would if I could have gotten any nails to go through it.

A Hold-Up

First Figure—Are you a pillar of the church?

Second Figure—No, I'm a flying buttress—I support it from the outside.—Yale Record.

Military Note

Search for contraband.

Self-Help

Voice—Is this the Weather Bureau? How about a shower tonight?

Prophet—Don't ask me. If you need one, take it.—Chapparral.

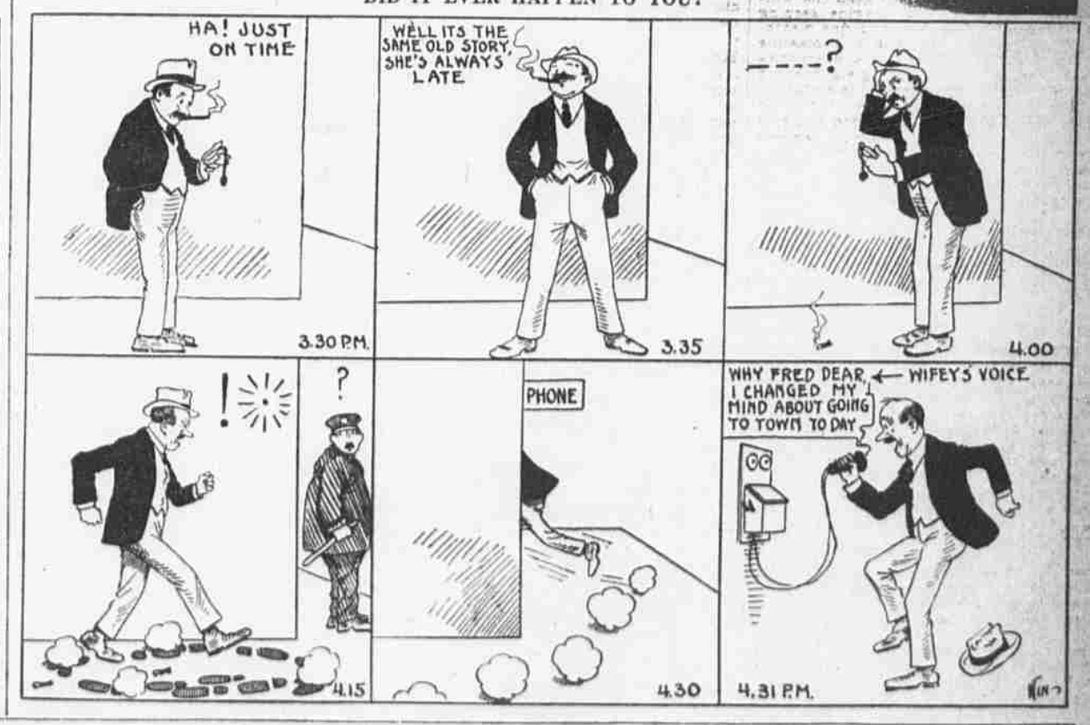
Reversed

"They do things differently in Mexico."

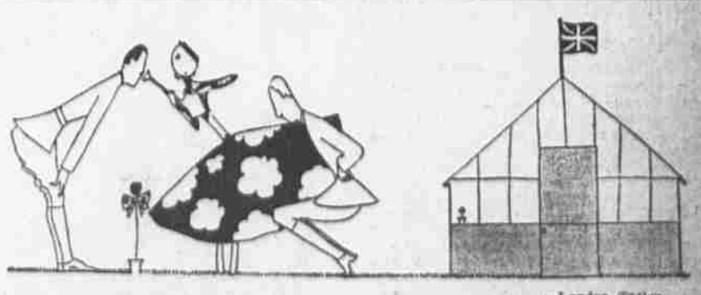
"How's that?"

"The Presidents do most of their running after they're elected."—Judge.

DID IT EVER HAPPEN TO YOU?



—AND THE WORST IS YET TO COME



—London Tatler.

Eve is anxious to provide her recruited friends with some interest in life when things grow quiet at the front. Here she is depicted explaining to them how she grew her prize tulip, so that they in their turn may do something to beautify the trenches they are compelled to inhabit.

Lady—What caused you to become a tramp?

Ragged Tim—The family physician, mum. He advised me to take long walks after meals, and I've been walkin' after 'em ever since.

"When old Goldcoyne died he left a request that his dust should be scattered to the winds."

"Well, his spendthrift son is attending to it."
