COME AND SEE US.

The Temperance Saloon is still among you, and contends that total abstinence from all that intoxicates is the surest, safest guard for the people. Although the proprietors of the above Saloon were among the sufferers of the late fire, and lost a good portion of their goods, they made out to save one thing—that is, Principle, which they count worth a bill. They now have a small stock of Groceries, Toys, Confectionaries, Yankee Notions, Perfumery, &c., which they offer to the public cheap for cash.—Oysters got up in all ways to suit customers.

This Saloon may be found in the rear of Lyons & Chandler's long building, facing on Chestnut street. Come one and all, and see the place where we are.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST.

Established August 4th, 1821—Weekly Edition between 80,000 and 90,000.

THE long period of over thirty-three years, during which the SATURDAY EVENING POST has been established, and its present immense circulation, are guarantees to all who may subscribe to it, that they will receive a full return for their money. Our arrangements so far for the coming year, are such as we trust will be thought worthy of the high reputation of the Post. Positive arrangements have already been made for contributions from the gifted pens of Mrs. SOUTHWORTH, GRACE GREENWOOD, Mrs. DENISON, MARY IRVING, ELIZA L. SPROUT, Mrs. CARLIN, FANNY FERN, and A NEW CONTRIBUTOR, (whose name by request is withheld.)

In the first paper of January next we design commencing the following Novelet: "SIX WEEKS OF COURTSHIP," by Mrs. Emily F. Carlen, author of "One Year of Wedlock," &c. &c. We purpose following this with an original Novelet—designed to illustrate, incidentally, the great evils of intemperance—entitled "THE FALLS OF THE WYALUSING," by a new and distinguished contributor. We have also made arrangements for two stories, to be entitled "THE ONEIDA SISTERS" and "THE NABOB'S WILL," by Grace Greenwood, author of "Greenwood Leaves," "Haps and Mishaps," &c. Also, the following additional contributions: NEW SERIES OF SKETCHES, by Fanny Fern, author of "Fern Leaves," &c.—"MARK, THE SEXTON," a Novelet by Mrs. Denison, author of "The Step Mother," "Home Pictures," &c.—"NANCY SELWYN, THE CLOUD WITH A SILVER LINING," a Novelet by Mary Irving—and last, but by no means least, from the fascinating and powerful pen of the Post's exclusive contributor, "VIOLA, A STORY OF LIFE'S MYSTERY," by Mrs. Emma D. E. N. Southworth, author of "Miriam," "The Lost Heiress," &c. &c.

In addition to the above proud array of contributors, we shall endeavor to keep up our usual variety of Original Sketches and Letters, Pictures of Life in our own and Foreign Lands, Choice Selections from all sources, Agricultural Articles, General News, Humorous Anecdotes, view of the Produce and Stock Markets, Bank Note List, Editorials, &c. &c.—our object being to give a complete record, as far as our limits will admit, of the great world.

ENGRAVINGS.—In the way of Engravings we generally present two weekly—one of an instructive and the other of a humorous character.

The postage on the Post to any part of the United States, paid quarterly or yearly in advance, at the office where it is received, is only 26 cents a year.

The Home Journal for 1855,

MORRIS AND WILLIS, EDITORS.

The first number of the new series will be issued on the first of January next. New subscribers can be supplied from that date; but immediate application will be necessary for such as desire to begin with the beginning. A home is hardly complete, we think we may safely say, without the Home Journal, which, besides being a chronicle of the times, abounds in intelligence designed to enliven an American Home. Its editors (Geo. P. Morris and N. P. Willis) devote their entire time, skill and experience, to the task of giving, each week, everything worth knowing. They particularly keep an eye on all the whims and novelties of the day. The utmost pains are taken to give the facts and outlines of all the news. In the literary department, we aim at sketches and readable criticism, and in our condensations of the productions of the vast newspaper world of Europe, we endeavor to avoid the tiresome and the local, and transfer to our columns the pick of English information and brilliancy, while we endeavor to select with a true sense of pure morals, true wit, and genuine humor. In addition to the above, we have made new arrangements for a feature that is always attractive in a family journal. From several different sources we are to be supplied with the news and gossip of New-York society. In a metropolis like ours, centre the more sparkling elements of the life of our country at large, and collision and attrition bring out much which would else be dormant. Afloat, in society gossip, is a small world, of which the ordinary newspapers make no report, and of this we think we can promise amusing photographs. In announcing also, A new series of articles by Mr. Willis, in addition to his usual editorial labors, we claim the privilege of leaving them to designate their own style and title as they appear.—They are to be quite different from anything which has ever been published in this journal from his pen, and we are very sure that they will be no less attractive, to say the least. The graphic and highly-finished sketches, by "The Lady of Shalott." "Timothy Quaint" and others, will be continued. We have also new correspondents in London and Paris, who will send us much that could never reach us through foreign journals.

TERMS—For one copy, $2; for three copies, $5, or for one copy for three years, $5—always in advance. Subscribe without delay. Address

Pennsylvania Telegraph.
NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE.

We want five thousand new subscribers to the Telegraph, and give the following reasons why we should have them:

1st—It is the only English paper published at Harrisburg that will support the Administration of JAMES POLLOCK, and oppose the iniquities of Franklin Pierce & Co.

2d—The approaching Session of the Legislature, owing to its peculiar construction, will be one of unusual interest, and we will give a correct history of its proceedings.

3d—We have been deprived of two or three thousand subscribers through the influence of the Jesuits and deputy Post Masters.

4th—An exciting PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN is about opening, in which Pennsylvania and her citizens will play no inconsiderable part.

5th—We shall wage exterminating warfare against the Nebraska Infamy and Political Roman Catholicism;—we shall advocate immediate and stringent restrictive measures with reference to the License system, and keep our eyes and heart and hopes fixed upon Prohibition;—we shall insist that, in this, our hour of peril, "None but Americans be placed on Guard;" and aid in procuring the extension of the prohibition of such foreigners as shall land upon our shores after 1855, to 21 years;—we shall oppose the extension of slavery to the territory now free, and battle for the immediate Abolition of the Board of Canal Commissioners, and the speedy Sale of all the Public Works belonging to the Commonwealth.

Those who approve or see proper to tolerate the above principles can have our paper on the following terms, and those who cannot, had better withdraw their support at once, for they may rest assured that we shall "take no step backward:"

One copy, weekly, per annum,	$2,00
If paid at the time of subscribing,	1,50
Four copies, to one address, paid at the time of subscribing,	5,00
Ten copies, do do do	12,00
One copy, semi-weekly, during the session of the Legislature, and weekly the balance of the year per annum,	3,00
If paid in advance,	2,00

☞ Let it be distinctly understood that we want no subscriptions that interfere with Local Journals. A man that does not take his county paper, and pay for it at that, cannot have ours at any price, if we know it. STEPHEN MILLER &Co Harrisburg. Pa.

To the People of Susquehanna County.

BEING one of the greatest sufferers by the recent destructive fire in Montrose, having lost my store-house and nearly all of my goods, I have not however given over to despair, but have taken a store room in the lower part of the town, first door north of Keeler's Hotel, into which I have placed the small stock saved from the fire, and will in the course of a very short time fill up the store with an entire new stock of goods. In my present new location, I will be happy to see and wait on my old customers and the public generally who will favor me with a call. I have resolved to "never give up the ship."—I am determined to keep a DRUG STORE, and to keep a good assortment of Drugs, Medicines, Paints, Oils, Dye-stuffs, Groceries, Glass-ware, Jewelry, Perfumery, Yankee Notions, and all sorts of Fancy Goods, &c. &c., such as I kept before the fire, which devoured the earnings of a life time in an hour.

ABEL TURRELL

HAS resumed the DRUG and Fancy Goods business in the lower part of the town, on Maine street, near Keeler's tavern.
Montrose, November 15, 1854.

FELLOW CITIZENS,

YOU have just achieved a signal triumph. On the bloodless field of Peace, with Freedom for your watchword and the "terror of Kings" for your battle-axe, you have wrought a revolution which in the Old World would have shaken off the crown, if not the head of every despot, and buried him beneath the shattered ruins of his own throne. And now amid your high rejoicings and the jubilant shouts of victory on every hand, I beseech you forget not those humble companions who clung to your standards in the days of your adversity and defeat, and who are with you now in prosperity and success, especially your old patriotic friend, THE DENTIST,

Who on the sunny heights of far famed Montavue,
Has met your deadliest enemy and won the victory too.
Entrenched within his gates of pearl, upon his ebon thrones,
He wears a crown of aching nerves, and speaks in human groans,
Hollows beauty's round cheek, clouds the sweet maiden's smile,
Fills his empire with tortures no power can beguile,
From the bright brow of childhood steals the rose-ate bloom,
And shrouds the visage of manhood with sepulchral gloom.
This foe to rest, and health, and bloom, the worst in all creation,
We seize, though armed to the teeth, and rout by evacuation.
And now like Whigs and Democrats, and the Know Nothing too,
Since we have got the reins of power, we'll show what we can do.
We'll purge these "Auguan stables" of the opposition clan,
And then with pure material will fill them up again,
And though hostile politicians differ widely in their views,
Of the contra sets of measures that each in turn may choose,
Yet in reference to our policy we sure shall not be told
That nauseous filth and rottenness should be prefered to gold,
Nor that when any system has grown rotten in the bone
The powers that did the mischief should not be overthrown.
This, then is what we do in the empire of the jaws,
The eb'ny tyrants we expel, and abrogate their laws.
If aught valuable remains, that our preserving purpose suits,
We cleanse and save it, all the rest we pull out by the roots.
Then on the ruins by our art, we quickly rear again
An arch of burning Gold, with colonnades of Porcelain.
And now our figure to complete, we only have to say,
These wondrous transformations all are done for pay.

STOVES FOR THE PEOPLE!

THE subscriber is now receiving his fall and winter stock of stoves, which, when completed, will be the largest and best selected assortment ever offered to the inhabitants of Susquehanna county. His stock will consist of some twenty different patterns of wood and coal, cooking and parlor, besides any quantity of six plate and office stoves.

The undersigned flatters himself that his long experience in the stove business, and his facilities for manufacturing his own furniture and pipe, enables him to sell, not only trimmings &c., but stoves cheaper than any of his competitors. He will sell stove-pipe made of the best English and American Iron at 8 cts. per lb. and other furniture in proportion.

Notwithstanding the present high price of Iron, and the consequent advance of castings, I am enabled to sell stoves at old prices, and many kinds, at about two thirds of the price that they have sold for, in this vicinity, for instance, clinton air tight, elevated oven with trimmings of the best quality, at $24,00.—With second quality of trimmings, such as are usually kept by Merchants at $22. Other kinds of stoves in proportion, for cash, or short time paper.

Jobbing of all kinds done at my shop. Old Iron, Copper, &c., taken in exchange.

OFFICIAL AND IMPORTANT.

IT being manifest that the tailoring business is still carrying on John Groves in Montrose—no, John is carrying on the Tailoring business—no, they are both "carrying on" together—at a place where two ways meet, being in the very building where Sam Houston was nominated for President, to wit, in Searle's Hotel, in the Basement thereof—and the generous many-pocketed public being supposed to be interested in knowing where they can make an investment, (yes, and an in-coat-and-pantaloons—ment) most advantageously, to the appearance of the outer man in extenso; therefore John,

"Who is not, like a virtuous woman willing
To live unheard-of—just to save a shilling," hereby nominates himself as Tailor-General for this community, and requests all good citizens to call at his place of business above mentioned, to enable him to perform the duties of said office. Witness my hand at Montrose the ninth day of May A. D., 1854.
