FARMERS' HOTEL.

THE subscriber takes this method of informing his friends and the public in general, that he has taken that well known tavern stand, in East Main street, a few doors from the Public Square Carlisle, lately occupied by Mr. Wm. Brown, (and long known as Wunderlich's stand,) where he is fully prepared to accommodate, in the best manner, all who may favor him with their custom.

His TABLE will be always supplied with the best the markets can afford—his BAR with the choicest liquors—and his bed rooms, &c., will be arranged with care. BOARDERS will be taken by the week, month or year.

His Stabling is ample, and a careful Ostler will always be in attendance. Drovers would do well to give him a call.

He hopes by strict attention to business and an anxious desire to please, as well as by moderate charges, to merit and receive a share of public patronage.

Who Burnt the Court House,

The above is the question asked by all; and the unanimous opinion of the public is that the person or persons who perpetrated the horrid deed, should be severely punished. But while we are endeavoring to discover the rascals, let us not forget that John Bentz, has now on hand as complete an assortment of Bread Bakery!

THE Subscriber takes this method to inform his customers and the public generally, that he has removed to West Pomfret street, one door West of J. Worthington, Esq., where he continues to carry on the BREAD BAKERY as usual.—He believes from the information received through his patrons, that his bread is superior to any sold in the borough. No saleratus or any other deception is used in the process of fermentation, to expand one pound of dough when baked to the size of a small inflated balloon. We need not the aid of chemistry or natural philosophy to instruct us on the subject of expansion and compression in the manufacture of bread; this fact we know by observation and experience. Come all ye who love good homemade bread, and honest sized loaves for five cents, (larger than can be purchased at any other bakery for the same amount.) We say, come and help us to make a living for ourselves and family. Our old friend, the Trumpeter, down town, having now two establishments, and being determined to let no one else sell, must not take offence if we should get some of his custom, not because he is not sufficiently accommodating nor bakes good bread, but for one of the most just causes, viz: he has more wealth than he will ever live to enjoy, and we are poor; consequently, need a living the most. To live and let live is all we ask.

CAUTION TO ALL.

LET all the world take notice, and be careful not to buy the (sugar coated) Improved Indian Vegetable Pills, unless every box has on it the written signature of the original inventor and patentee,

O. BENJAMIN SMITH, M. D.

These pleasant Pills possess powers to open ALL the natural drains of the system—viz: the Lungs, Kidneys, Skin and Bowels—hitherto unknown in the practice of Medicine; and so complete has been their triumph over all other medicines, that many have been led to suppose they contain some powerful mineral; but upon examination by Doctors Chilton, Randolph, Huntingdon, and others; this supposition is at once proved to be groundless.

Sold in New York, at the principal Office, 179 Grenwich street, and also by MYERS & HAVERSTICK, sole Agents for Carlisle.

AN OBSINATE CASE.

Baltimore, Feb. 15th, 1845.

Dr. H. W. Andrews,

Sir:—The box of Dr. Smiths Sugar Coated improved Indian Vegetable Pills I purchased of you, some two months past, I found in their application to my son (of about 15 years of age,) the most happy effect on the system. He had been for some years, very delicate in health, and very much subject to fever and chills; so much so as to create alarm for his future health. And for two or three years we had to keep him from school the most of the time. I am now frank to acknowledge the complete restoration of his health and a fair prospect of its permanent enjoyment.

J. A. SANGSTON.

No. 169, Hanover street.

Principal Office, 179 Grenwich st., New York.

CAUTION.—As a miserable imitation has been made by the name of Sugar Coated Pills, it is necessary to be sure that Dr. O. Benjamin Smiths signature is on the box. Price 25 cents.
