Miss Habermehl will wear a gown of white Georgette crepe draped over satin, made with a short skirt, and a tulle veil arranged with orange blossoms. The bridal party will include Miss Marie Mack, maid of honor; Miss Pauline Devereaux, matron of honor; Miss Edna Habermehl, the bride's sister, and Miss Katharine Clark, bridesmaids, and Mr. James Manning, best man.

The maid of honor will wear a dainty frock of pink taffeta and lace; the matron of honor a charming affair of white net over white silk, with trimming of pink and blue chiffon, and the bridesmaids flower taffeta frocks, one pink and the other blue. Mr. and Mrs. Shipley will return from their wedding journey in the autumn and will live in this city.

AUSSPRUNG—BREHM.

The marriage of Miss Marie Brehm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brehm, of 4127 Manayunk avenue, Roxborough, and Mr. Harry Aussprung, of 2547 North Marshall street, will be solemnized at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the home of the officiating minister, the Rev. Frank M. Gray, pastor of the Wissahickon Methodist Episcopal Church. The bride will wear a gown of hand-embroidered organdie and lace and will carry lilies of the valley and bride's roses. She will be attended by Miss Myrtle Glenwright as maid of honor.

Mr. Aussprung will have for his best man Mr. George Hodson. The service will be followed by a supper at the Adelphia. The bridegroom and bride upon their return from their wedding journey will live on Manayunk avenue, Roxborough.

FINLEY—KLAUDER.

The wedding of Miss Helen Greenfield Klauder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Klauder, of 6409 North 7th street, Oak Lane, to Charles P. Finley, second lieutenant in the United States army, will take place this evening at the Park Methodist Episcopal Church, Oak Lane, at 6 o'clock. The Rev. Frank Scott will officiate.

The wedding will be a military affair and the church will be decorated with American and army colors and flags. The bride's father will give her away, and her cousin, Mrs. William Donaldson, will be matron of honor. Miss Helen Montgomery has been chosen as flower girl.

Mr. William Goodwin, of Tioga, will act as best man and Lieutenant J. Franklin Stevens and Lieutenant Walter Hess, of Germantown, will be the ushers.

The bride's gown will be of white duchesse satin and rare hand-made filet lace, her veil will be of tulle, held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms and she will carry a bouquet of white bridal roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Donaldson will be gowned in pink and carry pink roses and sweet peas. The flower girl will also wear pink and carry a basket of pink flowers.

The ceremony will be followed by a reception at the bride's home, after which Mr. and Mrs. Finley will leave for Maine, where they will remain until September.
