JUST AS USUAL!

S. W. HAVERSTICK, of the late firm of Myers & Haverstick, desires respectfully to acquaint his friends and the public, that he may be found as usual in the OLD STAND, on North Hanover street, where he will continue the business in the same manner, and keep a constant and fresh supply of

Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, Dye-Stuffs,

MISCELLANEOUS & SCHOOL BOOKS, together with a general variety of Fancy and useful articles, such as have been heretofore kept in this establishment. The public may rest assured that no care or attention will be wanting on his part to keep the numerous customers of this establishment supplied with Goods of the freshest and choicest kind, and at prices as low as any other establishment in town.

Thankful for the patronage extended to the late firm for several years past, he respectfully solicits a continuance of it to himself in the Old Stand, on North Hanover street, nearly opposite the Carlisle Bank.

S. W. HAVERSTICK.

EXTENSIVE CLOTHING EMPORIUM.

THE Greatest Bargains in Ready Made Clothing are to be had at M. TRACY'S OLD ESTABLISHED PIONEER LINE, No. 292 Market street, Philadelphia, who has just finished one of the largest and most complete assortments of Spring and Summer Clothing in the city, consisting of

DRESS AND FROCK COATS,

Spring and Summer Sacks and Coatees, of fine Cashcrett, Habit and Croton Cloths, Tweed, Cassimere, Brown Linen, etc. etc. Super French Cassimere Pants and Vests of every description.

All garments at this establishment are warranted, both in fit and quality of workmanship. They are got up expressly for the Retail Trade, consequently more care is taken in the selection of the goods, as well as in the style of cutting. The proprietor of the establishment is a practical Tailor, (having served a regular apprenticeship to the business,) and has none but practical workmen in his employ.

Gentlemen in want of Clothing may depend upon being suited in every respect, as we are determined not to be undersold by any competitors. All goods are purchased for cash and sold for cash, which enables us to sell a little lower than those who deal on the credit system, it being a self-evident fact that the "nimble sixpence is better than the slow shilling."

Also, always on hand, an extensive assortment of

Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings,

(which will be made to order at the shortest notice) Shirts, Collars, Suspenders, Gloves, etc.

NORTH AGAINST THE SOUTH!

H. C. MALOY,

WOULD respectfully inform his old customers and the public generally, that he has REMOVED to the store room formerly occupied by Mr. Stephen M. Harris, on the corner of North Hanover and Louther streets, immediately opposite Leonard's Store, where he will manufacture, and keep constantly on hand a general assortment of

Gentlemen's, Ladies' and Children's BOOTS AND SHOES, made of the best material and in the most fashionable and superior style, and at prices lower than can be had at any other Establishment in town for CASH. "Pay-to-day and trust to morrow," is his motto.

He would respectfully invite the public to examine his stock, confident that they cannot fail of being satisfied with both the materials and workmanship. His best morocco and other fine materials are purchased in the city with the utmost care, and as he employs none but the best workmen, he feels safe in warranting every article which goes out of his establishment. All ripe repaired gratis. Country produce taken in exchange for work. Returning his warmest thanks for past patronage, he respectfully solicits a continuance of it for the future.

REMOVAL.

THE subscriber would respectfully inform his friends and the public, that he has removed to the room lately occupied, as an office by John Reed, Esq., in West High st., next door to Eby's store, where, he will continue to carry on the

and to receive orders for work in his line, all of which he pledges himself to execute promptly in a neat, fashionable and workmanlike manner. The latest fashions will be regularly received and no pains spared to render general satisfaction to those who may favor him with their custom. Cutting of garments done on moderate terms.

WILLIAM McPHERSON.

Carlisle, April 8, 1846.

FASHIONABLE TAILOR.

H. J. MECK,

TAKES this method to inform his friends and the public generally, that he has removed his next door to Mr. Irvine's store, in West High street, opposite Mr. Beetem's Hotel, in the borough of Carlisle, where he is prepared to do all work in his line, in the very best manner.

From his experience in the business, he flatters himself that he will be able to please all who may favor him with a call, at the shortest notice.

He receives the fashions regularly from the city, and those who desire a Coat to fit neatly, are requested to give him a call, as he feels confident that he can give entire satisfaction to the most fastidious.

He also returns his thanks to his former friends and customers, and hopes that they will continue their friendship, and bring as many new friends as they can with them. His prices will be moderate to suit the times.

H. J. M.

Carlisle, April 8, 1846.

REMOVAL.

THE undersigned would respectfully inform his friends and the public in general, that he has removed his from Harper's Row, to the house formerly in the occupancy of Mrs. Fleming, two doors west of Stevenson & Mehaffey's Drug Store—directly opposite the Mansion House Hotel, where he can and may be found, at all times, ready to wait upon his former patrons, and those new ones who are desirous to try him for good workmanship. He would also avail himself of this opportunity to return his sincere thanks for the liberal patronage received for their past encouragement, and solicits the continuance of their favors.

CABINET AND CHAIR ROOMS.

REMOVAL!

THE subscribers would inform their friends and the public generally, that they have taken the room in North Hanover street, lately occupied by Mr. E. Bullock, as a Cabinet and Chair Manufactory, where they will keep constantly for sale an elegant assortment of such as SECRETARIES, BUREAUS, Washstands, Dining and Breakfast Tables, Card, Pier and Centre Tables, French field, high and low post Bedsteads, &c. They have now and will continue to keep on hand a large and elegant variety of CHAIRS of every description, to which they would invite the attention of housekeepers and those intending commencing, confident they will find articles of such workmanship and moderate prices as must be satisfactory to purchasers.

They have also made extensive arrangements for the manufacture of

of all colors, sizes and qualities, and in a style fully equal to those made in the cities, together with every other article of Cabinet Ware—all of which they will sell very cheap for CASH, or exchange for Country Produce at market prices.

COFFINS made on reasonable terms at short notice, and they will attend funerals with a splendid Hearse, in town or country, free of extra charge. A Hearse will also be kept for hire.

LUMBER.

Also, Bedstead Posts, ready turned, together with slats for Venetian Blinds, all of which will be sold at moderate prices.

They respectfully solicit a share of public patronage, confident that they can render general satisfaction. J. R. WEAVER & Co.

Carlisle, April 15, 1846.

DENTISTRY, &C.

JOHN W. HENDEL,

RESPECTFULLY informs the public, that having opened an office in South Hanover street, nearly opposite the Post Office, he is prepared to practice DENTISTRY in all its branches. Good Teeth are essential to health, besides natural or artificial ones are not only useful but ornamental, and add materially to the comfort of the wearer. It need not be stated what can be done to the teeth, suffice it to say that every defect can be remedied, and new Teeth furnished from a single one to an entire set. Having had considerable practice for a number of years, good references will be given to such as require them, but the best proof is the operation, which will in all cases be performed in the most careful manner and at prices to suit the occasion and the times. Persons waited on at their residences, either in town or country, without extra charge. He may always be found at his office, as above, or at his residence in Pitt street, one door north of Hendel's Livery table.

He will also promptly attend to the repairing of Watches and Jewelry, at his office in South Hanover street. Also, ENGRAVING neatly executed. By attention and skilful execution of his work, he hopes to receive and hereby solicits a share of public patronage.

Carlisle, April 8, 1846.

REMOVAL.

JOHN WIRSTLER,

WOULD respectfully acquaint his friends and the public, that he has removed his

BOOT AND SHOE MANUFACTORY,

to South Hanover street, nearly opposite the Post Office, and a few doors below Burkholder's Hotel, where he will manufacture to order, GENTLEMEN'S BOOTS, in the most superior style, and keep constantly on hand an elegant assortment of LADIES' WEAR of every description, manufactured by himself in the best and most fashionable style. He pays the highest prices in order to secure good workmen, and only asks that his work may be examined to recommend itself. He asks the public to give him a trial, and if his work is not satisfactory he will not desire a continuance of patronage.

Wood and Country Produce will be taken in exchange for work at market prices.

Carlisle, April 8, 1846.
