The Gallant Dead.

The recent victory of our army, brilliant as it is, says the North American, has been won by the expenditure of a fearful amount of human life. How dearly is glory purchased! How many gallant hearts have been stilled—how many noble beings snatched away from the country of their pride, from the homes which their presence brightened and their death renders desolate. The nation will mourn them all with an affection which, like the death that has claimed them, knows no rank, and turning to the author of this war and its afflictions, will ask—Where are they?

Among those who have been offered up, there is no one whose death will excite deeper and more universal sensibility, than that of young CLAY. We know that each death sundered ties that bleed in the parting, and that thousands of parents weep for their children and will not be comforted for they are not. But the death of CLAY is no fee grief due to a single heart; the sorrow and sympathy of a whole people will be poured orth—not only for him whose death is a glory, but for the bereaved and stricken patriot and parent of Ashland.

Amid all the clustering honors of his elevated career, HENRY CLAY has been a man of sorrows. The affections of his home have been great as his own heart, and have yearned over his children with an intensity of love which only noble natures know. But

"Affliction seemed enamored of his parts,"

Death has been busy about his hearth stone: and one by one he has seen many of those who so proudly claimed him as father or grandsire, taken from him. Their heritage of love devolved upon the survivors, and his son, who bore his name and shared his virtue, was the pride and glory of his honored old age. But his country demanded his son The struggle of his father's heart must have been a mighty one; but he devoted him—as he had devoted his own illustrious life—to his country. The heroism of Col. Clay rendered it certain that his career would be brilliant, but probable that it would also be brief. Mr. Clay seemed to feel a parental presentiment that such would be the fact. He recently left New Orleans on his return to Ashland and is represented as laboring under an overshadowing despondency in relation to the fate of the army and of his son. We rejoice that the unhappy tidings found him at home and among his kindred, (though all the land is his home, and every heart his kindred) where his tears can mingle with those of the stricken partner of his afflictions. We dare not, even in imagination, intrude upon the scene made sacred by sorrow, yet we know enough of the hero-statesman to believe that, even in his hour of desolation the pride of the patriot and the parent may afford some solace, and that the sentiment of Cato over his sacrifice, will rise from his heart.

"I'm satisfied!
Thanks to the Gods! my son has done his duty,
How beautiful is death when earned by virtue!
Who would not be that youth? What pity is it
That we can die but once to serve our country."

The loss of Hardin and McKee and Yell and Lincoln will also be felt by thousands of hearts beyond the immediate circle of their relatives. Col. Hardin was a nephew of Henry Clay, and known throughout the Nation as an able Whig member of Congress from Illinois. Col. Yell was a democrat and a man of distinction in Arkansas. His recent letters from the seat of war have excited much attention, and placed the policy of the Administration in anything but a favorable light before the country.

Polk and Santa Anna.

By the official despatches from Gen. Taylor, detailing the victory at Buena Vista, which will be found in to day's paper, it will be seen that the lives of nearly THREE HUNDRED citizens of the United States have been forfeited to the insane and suicidal policy which actuated President Polk in allowing the return of SANTA ANNA to the head of the Mexican Army! What a startling fact for the friends and relatives of the gallant dead at Buena Vista to reflect upon!

Thus while the glad hearts of a grateful people are swelling with joy and pride over the almost miraculous deliverance of General Taylor and his little army from the destruction which so fearfully hung over them, a terrible indignation is also felt and expressed toward our National Administration who left this diminished force to struggle against a foe of five times its number, headed by a skilful General whom our own President had restored to the enemy. Well is it for the country that the skill and heroism of General Taylor has been sufficient to repair the mishap and to balk the unwitting Treason of our own imbecile rulers! Let the whole country remember that General Taylor has been obliged to fight and defeat a General whom Mr. Polk himself allowed to return to the enemy.

☞ An article purporting to be copied from the "Mexican Diario," is going the rounds of the lower class of locofoco papers, in which the Mexicans professes to "derive comfort" from certain speeches and acts of Daniel Webster and others.

This extract is such a bald, palpable and silly forgery—so evidently the composition of some fool or the dirtiest kind of dirty work—that it is surprising any paper would venture to insult its readers by putting such garbage before them. But if the readers of those papers are willing to pay for such stuff we certainly have no objections to their taste being gratified.

The Senatorial terms of the following Senators have expired with the last Legislature and will be filled next fall:—Messrs. Darragh, Gorman, Morrison, Carson, Darsie, Gibbons Bigler, Hoover, Anderson, Dimmick and Rose.

It is confidently stated that Gen. William O. Butler, now in Washington city, is to be appointed Secretary of War and that Gen. Marcy, the present incumbent, is willing, upon certain conditions and contingencies, to take a trip to Mexico.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Express says Mr. Polk has appointed an overseer of his slave plantation in Tennessee to a high office in the army.

War Duties in Mexico.

The Washington Union of Thursday last contains a letter from the President to the Secretary of the Treasury, relative to a plan by which the enemy shall be required, as far as practicable, to bear the expenses of the war. The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says the regulations adopted by the Secretary, open the ports of Mexico and California, which are now or may be in possession of the forces of the United States, to the commerce of all nations, subject to certain regulations established by our government. All goods are to be entered in the same manner as is regarded by existing regulations in our own ports. A scale of duties has been established, which are to be collected, levied and paid, and which are to be appropriated to defray the expenses of the war. The military commandants of the various ports are to officiate as revenue collectors and surveyors, and the tide-waiters will no doubt range from first sergeants to sixth corporals. I understand this Mexican tariff is entirely specific in its character, and very properly so, too, as it will be far more onerous in its effect upon the Mexicans.

THE FAMINE IN IRELAND.—A letter in the National Intelligencer says that the number of deaths which have already occurred in Ireland from famine and its attendant miseries, was fifty thousand. What an extent of misery and suffering.

An Irishman speaking of a jury's verdict, said "It was received by the crowd by suppressed cheers."

When the body is subject to many changes, it requires Medicine.—Sudden changes from very hot to chilly weather, are unfavorable to health, and it is a fact universally admitted, that heat and moisture are powerful agents in producing disease, and that constant dry and constant wet weather are both favorable to its generation, it does not signify what we call it, it may be ague, it may be billious fever, it may be yellow fever, it may be dysentery, it may be rheumatism, it may be bronchitis, it may be cholic, it may be constipation of the bowels, it may be inflamation of the bowels, it may be inflamation of the stomach, it may be a nervous affliction, but still it is disease, and a disease curable by the BRANDRETH PILLS, because they remove all impurities from the body, all that can in any manner feed the further progress of the malady, no matter how called, thus these pills are not only the most proper medicine, but generally the only medicine that need or ought to be used.

CAUTION TO COUNTRY STORE KEEPERS.—Whereas information has been received as follows:

READING, March 4, 1847.

Dr W. Wright—Dear Sir. There is a man going through the country with counterfeit Wright's Indian vegetable Pills—he calls himself your agent, and says he had the pills from your office. Mr Jonas Shalter, of Schuylkill Bend, Pa, took some from him, but after selling a few boxes of them miserable counterfeits. He laid them aside till the man came again, and then told him the pills were counterfeit, and that he must take them back.

The man got very angry and refused. Mr Shalter told him he would try the law upon which the man took them back and confessed that he had received them from an equivocal establishment in Philadelphia. The man's name is Smith. He has "W. P. Miller, of Adams Co," marked on his wagon.

Yours, &c, S. H. GILBERT.

From the above statement country storekeepers will perceive that they cannot be too much on thei guard against travelling imposters: and it is earnestly requested, that when they are visited in a manner similar to the above, they give the earliest information to the Philadelohia office so that, by means of our numerous travelers, we may intercept, and so stop, their wicked career.

The authorized travelling agents have a Certificate of Agency signed by me, which they are ready to produce when so desired.

Has the great author of Nature provided us with no remedy for Consumption—and the diseases leading thereto which are so fearfully common in our country? Has He left us to find, relief from that fatal scourge by ransacking other lands? No, it is not so. The best—Natures own remedy, is at our hand. The Wild Cherry and Pine furnish us with a cure, where a cure is possible. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, formed by chemical extracts from Wild Cherry bark and tar, relieves all cases of consumption, and effectually cures it where it has not progressed so far as to be beyond cure—subdues the most inveterate cases of the Asthma, even of 30 and 40 years standing—stops raising of blood, after other remedies fail—and removes every kind of affection of the Lungs and Liver which our climate induces. The remarkable efficacy of this wonderful medicine, in many diseases hitherto deemed incurable, had excited among physicians great curiosity as to the peculiar nature of its ingredients. Let purchasers beware of imitations and counterfeits.

None genuine unless signed I. Butts, on the wrapper.

Philadelphia, May 23, 1844.

Mr S THOMPSON—Dear Sir. For more that our years past I had been dreadfully afflicted with an affection of the throat, which my physician pronounced "Chronic Bronchitis, caused by repeated and neglected colds. The distress suffered is indescribable. My throat was literally raw with violent coughing, so that blood would come from it; also great oppression, pain and tightness at the chest, inn fever—in short all the usual pulmonary symptoms showed themselves, showed themselves, causing entire loss of necessary repose—my throat was leached and blistered over and over again. I made trial of every known remedy, and at different periods had the advice of six physicians, and all with no avail. About two months since I made trial of your Compound Syrup of Tar and Wood Naptha, and before I had taken the first bottle I felt relief. I continued until I had taken seven bottles, which completely removed the disease and restored me to perfect health, and I firmly believe I should not now be living, had it not been for your invaluable medicine. Notices.

Notice to Tax Payers.

UNDER the provisions of the act of 1844, any county paying into the State Treasury, the State tax levied on such county, prior to the 15th of July in any year, is entitled to an abatement of 5 per cent. on the amount so paid.

The undersigned, Commissioners of Cumberland county, in view of the above provisions, consider it equitable and proper that those who by the prompt payment of their taxes prior to the above date, enable the Treasurer to pay over the State tax, so as to receive the aforesaid abatement of 5 per cent. the benefit of which has hitherto been enjoyed by the citizens of the county generally, should be allowed a deduction of that amount by the collector—have authorized the different collectors to make said abatement from the State tax, in all cases where the State and County tax is paid to the collector prior to the 15th of July, 1847, when said abatement shall amount to one cent or more, no fractions of a cent to be credited.

Since the act of 1844, the Commissioners have paid the State tax of this county annually to the State Treasurer, within the time prescribed by the act, and the county has received the benefit of an abatement of five per cent. thereon, but to meet said payment they have found it necessary heretofore to appropriate a part of the county funds to meet the deficiency occasioned by delinquents, until the balance of the State tax was collected. It therefore becomes necessary to require the payment of both State and County tax to entitle the payer to the aforesaid abatement upon the aforesaid State tax.

The undersigned therefore confidently anticipate that the above arrangement, and the further inducement of enabling Cumberland county to maintain the character for promptness and fidelity which she has acquired in the discharge of her obligations to the Commonwealth, will induce every citizen to discharge their State and County tax prior to the 15th day of July.

NOTICE.

DISSOLUTION OF COPARTNERSHIP.—The copartnership heretofore existing under the name of WM. SWAIM & SON, was dissolved on the 31st day of July last, by the decease of the said William Swaim, and the business is now, and will be in future, conducted exclusively by the survivor, who has had the sole charge of the manufacturing of the Panacea and Vermifuge for the last fourteen years.

The Panacea will be put up as usual in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—"SWAIM'S PANACEA, PHILADA," and the only change made is the name of JAS SWAIM, stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork, and a new label for the side of the bottle, composed of geometric lathe work, comprising nine different tints, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co, bank note engravers of Philadelphia. Four dies of different patterns form the body of the work, and in the centre is a portrait of the late William Swaim, seperated from the borders by two circles of lathe work. The words "Swaim's Panacea," are engraved conspicuously on two turned strips, and a large semi-circular die forms the upper margin. The borders are composed of plain lathe work strips, outside of which is engraved in small letters the entry of the copy right.
