D. 1846, having examined the above account of William Gould, Esq., Register for the county aforesaid, in the matter of collateral inheritance tax, and find the same correct as above stated.

In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands, at Carlisle, this 8th day of January, 1851.

JOHN P. RHOADS,
PHILIP QUIGLEY,
LEWIS HYER, } Auditors of Cumberland county.

A Supplement to an Ordinance

Entitled 'An Ordinance relating to the Market,' passed 11th of January, 1841.

SECTION I. Be it enacted and ordained by the Town Council of the Borough of Carlisle, and it is hereby enacted and ordained by the authority of the same, That the market days for this Borough shall be Wednesday and Saturday, as set forth in the Charter, and no person shall buy or sell any article of provisions, (groceries, all kinds of grain, and bread only excepted), after the hour of sunset of the day preceding the said market days, and seven o'clock of the morning of the said market days, from the 1st of April until the 1st of October, and eight o'clock of the morning of the said market days from the 1st day of October, until the first of April, within the bounds of the Borough of Carlisle, except in the market house, under the penalty of One Dollar; and no person shall sell or purchase any article within said time in said market house, until the hour appointed for opening said market, which shall be at 3½ o'clock, A. M., from the 1st of April until 1st of October, and at 6 o'clock, A. M., from 1st of October until the 1st of April, under the penalty of One Dollar; and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the market to give notice of the arrival of the appointed hour by ringing a bell to be provided for that purpose.

SECTION II. And be it further enacted, That no person shall purchase in this borough, on any market day as aforesaid, within the market hours as specified in the foregoing section, with the intention or for the purpose of reselling the same, either wholesale or retail, or for sending the same out of the county, with the view of supplying any other market or person abroad, more than half a bushel of buckwheat or cornmeal—of any kind of nuts, more than a peck—of eggs more than two dozen—of butter more than six pounds—of potatoes more than three bushel — of dried meat, more than twenty pounds, unless a single piece should weigh more—of poultry, more than one pair of turkeys or geese—of ducks and chickens, more than two pairs—under the penalty of Five Dollars.

SECTION III. And be it further enacted, That the High Constable and Clerk of the market be vigilant to prevent a violation of this Ordinance, and if either shall prosecute any offender to conviction, he shall be entitled to one half the penalty.

SECTION IV. And be it further enacted, That the 3d section of the ordinance, to which this is a Supplement, passed the 11th of January, 1841, be and the same is hereby repealed.

THOS. B. THOMPSON,
President of Council.

Attest—A. S. SENER, Clerk to Council.
