DOCTOR J. S. SEIBERT, Veterinary Surgeon, has returned to Carlisle, and located himself permanently for the purpose of operating upon diseased horses, and pledges himself to cure the most of diseases to which this noble animal is subject. He is able to cure Ring Bone, Tooth Bone and Bog Spavin, and all weak eyes which are supposed to be affected by hooks, without cutting the gland of the eye, and all eyes supposed to be affected with Wolf Teeth, without extracting the teeth. He can cure a fresh foundered horse in forty-eight hours as sound as ever. He also cures all distempers hoof bound, sprung knees, shoulder jams, string halt, fistulas and pel evil. He can remove all callous enlargments, and perform all surgical operations that may be required of him. Persons having diseased horses who cannot leave them with him, can be supplied with all the medicines and directions for use. He charges nothing for examining a horse and locating their diseases. So, bring on your cripples.

He may be found at Henry Glass's Cumberland and Perry Hotel, Carlisle, where those wishing to engage his services, are requested to call. [Nov 2, 1853.
