INDUSTRIAL FAIR.

THE "Big Spring Literary Institute" will hold an Industrial Fair in Newville, to open on the second Tuesday of June next, and continue two weeks.

It is intended particularly for the encouragement of the mechanical arts, but contributions (of articles for exhibition) are solicited from all classes of persons interested in the progress of the arts and sciences. A prominent place will be given to plain and fancy needle work, artificial flowers, drawing, &c, and the ladies are cordially invited to become contributors to this department. No charge will be made for articles for exhibition, and in addition to this the exhibitor is furnished with a ticket which will admit him or her to the Fair at any time during its continuance, provided in all cases that the exhibitor is the manufacturer. Persons desiring to exhibit any article must apply to the Secretary or President of the Board of Managers on or before the first of June. The rooms will be open on Monday, June 5th, for the reception of goods, and every article intended for exhibition must be received on or before the following Friday. The Judges who are decide on the respective merits of articles on exhibition will be appointed by the Board of Managers. The circumstances of the Institute will not permit the awarding of premiums, but certificates of excellence with the seal of the Society will be given to the exhibitors of such articles as the Judges may decide upon.

Enterprising mechanics, business men, and others, from neighboring towns and counties, are invited to send on their contributions.

JOSEPH H. HERRON, Pres't.
Henry S Regers, Sec'y.

Board of Managers—John Waggoner, Geo. Blankney, Lewis H Williams, Jacob Zigler George Bricker, James S McElwain, Thomson Carlisle, Wm R Zinn, Job D Randolph.
