PHILADELPHIA MARKET.

In Flour there has been some little movement to-day, but the export demand continues limited, and the market dull at previously quoted rates. Sales include 500 bbls. standard superfine at $5 50, 1200 do. W. B. Thomas do. at $5 62½, and 1000 bbls. western extra on terms we could not learn. Standard superfine is comparatively scarce, and held at $5 50 a 5 62½ per bbl, the latter for good straight brands. The home trade are buying at from $5 50 a $5 75 for common to choice superfine, $5 75 a $6 25 for extras, and $6 50 a $7 per bbl. for fancy lots, as in quality. Rye Flour and Corn Meal are very scarce. About 100 bbls. of the former brought $4 37½, and 250 bbls. of the latter, Pennsylvania Meal, $4 25 per bbl.

There is not much Wheat offering, and prices are steady, but the demand is limited, and only some 3 a 400 bushels found buyers for milling, at 125 a 128c., mostly at 126 a 127c. for fair to good quality Southern and Ohio reds, including a few small lots of fair white at 135 a 140c. Corn is dull at the decline noted yesterday, sales of some 2 a 3000 bushels Southern and Penn'a yellow are reported, mostly made last evening, at 88c., delivered from store, but these figures were hardly obtainable to-day. Oats are steady, with further sales of 2 a 3000 bushels Southern at 45 a 46c., the latter for prime Delaware and Penn'a afloat.

CUMBERLAND VALLEY INSTITUTE, MECHANICSBURG, PA.

REV. BENJAMIN C. LIPPINCOTT, A. B., PRINCIPAL, AND TEACHER OF MORAL AND NATURAL SCIENCE.

A. FOSTER MULLIN, A. B., Mathematics and Modern Languages.

THOMAS S. REESE, A. B., Ancient Languages and Higher English.

This Institution having passed into new hands, will be reopened as a Male School only, on Thursday, the 2d day of September next. It is the design of the present proprietors to make it a strictly first-class Boarding School, for training and fitting boys and young men either for college or business. An efficient corps of Instructors has been organized, whose personal interests are identified with the success of the Institution, and who will spare no pains to make it worthy of the confidence and patronage of the public. The Buildings of the Institute are ample, and well arranged for the accommodation of about ninety boarders, and all students from abroad are expected to board with the teachers.—They will thus enjoy the benefit of constant instruction and supervision.

Mechanicsburg is situated in the centre of the beautiful Cumberland Valley, nine miles from Harrisburg, and is easy of access by Railroad from Philadelphia, Baltimore, &c. No location could be more eligible for access—none more healthy or attractive for such a school. Pupils from Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and intermediate points, taking the morning train, will reach Mechanicsburg by 2 o'clock, P. M. As it is the determination of the Principal and his Assistants to place the Institute on a permanent and elevated basis, with every application requisite for superior success, they appeal with confidence to all who have sons to educate.

The scholastic year will be divided into two sessions of twenty two weeks each, the first beginning on the first Thursday of September, and ending on the first Wednesday of February; the second session beginning on the first Thursday of February, and ending on the first Wednesday of July

CUMBERLAND VALLEY BANK.

PROPRIETORS.

WILLIAM KER, ROBT. C. STERRETT, RICHARD WOODS, JOHN C. DUNLAP, MELCHIOR BRNNEMAN, JOHN DUNLAP, JOHN S. STERRETT, H. A. STURGEON.

This Bank, doing business in the name of Ker, Brenneman & Co., is now fully prepared to do a general Banking Business with promptness and fidelity.

Money received on deposit and paid back on demand without notice. Interest paid on special deposits. Certificates of deposit bearing interest at the rate of five per cent. will be issued for a short period as four months. Interest on all certificates will cease at maturity, provided, however, that if said certificates are renewed at any time thereafter, for another given period, they shall bear the same rate of interest up to the time of renewal. Particular attention paid to the collection of notes, drafts, checks, &c., in any part of the United States or Canadas.

Remittances made to England, Ireland, or the Continent. The faithful and confidential execution of all orders entrusted to them, may be relied upon.

They call the attention of Farmers, Mechanics and all others who desire a safe depository for their names, to the undeniable fact, that the proprietors of this Bank are INDIVIDUALLY liable to the extent of their estates for all the Deposits, and other obligations of Ker, Brenneman & Co.

They have recently removed into their new Banking House directly opposite their former stand, in West Main Street, a few degrs east of the Railroad Depot, where they will at all times be pleased to give any information desired in regard to money matters in general.

Open for business from 9 o'clock in the morning until 4 o'clock in the evening.
