ANNUAL BENEFIT TO BE HELD FOR FRIENDLESS CHILDREN

Preliminary Registration Held Last Night—The Affair Will Be Held in the Bellevue-Stratford on December 14 and 15—Other Affairs

A PRELIMINARY registration of talent for the annual musical extravaganza to be given for the Northern Home for Friendless Children was held last night, in the rehearsal hall, 1615 Walnut street. The affair is under the direction of Mrs. George W. Urquhart, president of the board of managers of the home.

Mr. Leon W. Downing, who is writing the production, is arranging for some especially spectacular effects and inventing many new dance steps for this play. Those who last year witnessed the production of the "Countess of Tuba" and the previous year "The Prince of Albania" will be more than glad to learn that the play this year will be more elaborate than either of the others, and that a number of novel effects will be introduced.

It will be given in the ballroom of the Bellevue-Stratford on the evenings of December 14 and 15, and a long list of patronesses from the most prominent women of the society is being arranged. At the meeting last evening no parts were assigned, but a general resume of the work was given, and groups arranged for the various dances. Most of the young people who took part last year have agreed to give their services again this year, and are already urging Mrs. Urquhart to consent to a dance following the production on the second night for the talent and their friends.

The Immaculate Conception Catholic Club, of 214 Richmond street, will conduct its first Ladies' Literary and Social Night tonight. Prominent speakers will address the guests and in addition there will be several first class entertainers present to render their specialties. Refreshments will be served during the course of the evening.

The betrothal of Miss Anna Weinstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Weinstein, of 6442 West Chester road, and Mr. Maurice Garfinkle was announced at a reception on Sunday night. Supper was served, followed by music and dancing. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Garfinkle, Mr. and Mrs. Meitrelch, Mr. and Mrs. Thiel, Miss Clara Thiel, Mrs. Jaffe, Mr. William Jaffre, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Moser, Mr. and Mrs. Lichenstein, Miss Minerva Biller, Mr. and Mrs. Levy, Mr. Weizman, Mr. Edward Weinstein, Mr. S. Weinstein, Mr. Nathan Zeitz, Mr. William Odell, Miss Elva Laurtz and Mr. and Mrs. Weinstein.
