TELEGRAPH

DESPATCHED FOR THE DAILY RECORD.

Afternoon Dispatches.

London, May 15.

Hon. Reverdy Johnson Wednesday sent a dispatch to Washington informing the Secretary of State of his formal withdrawal from the office of minister to England. After giving some detail accounts of his friendly farewell reception by the Queen, Mr. Johnson says:

"This terminates the mission which was conducted on my part with zeal and fidelity which has fruitled to the letter the instructions of my Government, which has aimed to protect the rights, preserve the honor and promote the interest of my country.

A Hardshell Baptist preached in Washington City lately, and took for his text, "God made man in His own image." He then commenced, "An honest man is the noblest work of God." Then he made a long pause, and looked searchingly about the audience, and then exclaimed, "But I opine God Almighty has had a job in this city for nigh on to fifteen years."
