AGRICULTURAL COLUMN.

FARM NOTES FOR JUNE.

The month of June is the month of life and growth above all others, and it becomes the tiller of the earth to look to it that his crops are allowed the freedom of the soil, and that marauding interlopers are kept out of his cultivated ground. If grass and weeds be permitted now to take possession of the grounds allotted to corn, tobacco and other useful crops, his season's operations may prove a failure. This may very readily happen and often does happen to inexperienced cultivators. Should a long spell of rainy weather come in June, when grass will live and grow without roots almost, unless he take care to cut off the enemy in his first movement, it may be long before he brings him under, and not at all, perhaps, without serious loss before it be done.*

THE CORN FIELD.

Keep the ground thoroughly worked from the start. Should the field become grassy, extra work with the plow will be required to get it again in order, and with considerable increase of labor, only a diminished crop will be made; but besides this, there is the further reason, the necessity of working the crop early, to avoid the cutting and tearing up of the roots in midsummer, when the bearing season is at hand, and every rootlet has its special office of feeding a grain of corn.

For the ordinary working of corn to destroy young grass and keep the surface open to the influence of the atmosphere, only shallow working is needed, and the work should be done expeditiously with a cultivator which does not run deeply. The crop should be thinned as soon as it is safe from worms and birds.

FEEDING WHOLE GRAIN TO CATTLE.—It is an expensive system of economy to feed whole grain to any kind of animals. All kinds of kernel grain are provided with a tough hull or skin, which the digestive powers of animals will not dissolve; consequently, if the skin is not broken before the grain enters the stomach, the kernels will usually pass off with the droppings, without affording the animal that swallowed the grain any more nourishment than fragments of wood of the same size.

During the month of August last, the writer procured a lot of horse manure for top dressing for strawberry plants, and in a few days after the mulch was spread around the plants, the broken kernels of oats vegetated so that the entire surface was as green as a lawn.

The fact showed, conclusively, that much of the grain had never afforded the animals that swallowed it any nourishment at all.

Young horses having sound and sharp teeth, will sometimes crush every kernel, but old horses with poor teeth, will often swallow half their mess of oats without breaking the skin of the kernels.

When mills are distant, and people will insist on feeding whole grain, it will always be found advantageous to soak the grain at least twenty-four hours before feeding it.

SOWING CORN FOR FODDER.—A correspondent of The Rural New-Yorker adopts a mode of furrowing for the drills, by using two horses and a common plow, the ground being first plowed and harrowed in the ordinary manner. The first furrow extends around the whole field at the outside. For the next, the near horse walks in the furrow, and the team continues going around until the centre is reached and the whole field furrowed. This operation leaves about eighteen inches between the drills. The weight of the plow alone will cause it to sink about three inches, which is deep enough. The corn is strewed along the furrows by hand, at the rate of three bushels per acre, and then covered by harrowing. A one-horse cultivator with the side teeth removed is passed between the rows when the corn is up, killing the weed and ridging the rows. The nearness of the rows to each other would doubtless give larger crops by this mode than when they are three feet apart.

THE CABBAGE FLEA.—This destructive little insect is becoming very abundant, and considerable care is required to keep it in check. Young cucumbers, cabbages, tomatoes, and several kinds of vegetables, are its natural food, and while the plants are young this flea does them much injury, even if it does not entirely destroy.

We have tried many remedies, but none have been so effectual in destroying or driving away the pest as dry wood-ashes scattered over the plants in the morning while wet with dew. Two or three applications have usually been sufficient. There are several species of these insects (Halticas) that infest our gardens, but the small one that infests vegetable plants can be easily controlled with ashes or lime, applied as directed.—Hearth and Home.

A GREAT FARMER'S MAXIMS.—The successful life of a Mr. Jacob Strawn, the prince of American farmers, is attributed to the close observance of the following maxims, originated by himself:

When you wake up, do not roll over, but roll out. It will give you time to ditch all your sloughs, break them, harrow them, and sow with timothy and red clover. One bushel of clover to two bushels of timothy is enough.

Make your fence high, tight and strong, so that it will keep cattle and pigs out.

Be sure to get your hands to bed by seven o'clock, they will rise early by force of circumstances. Pay a hand, if he is a poor hand, all you promise him, if he is a good one, pay him a little more; it will encourage him to do still better.

COMPOST FOR GRASS LAND.—As soon as the hay is off, is the best time to put on manure. A good fine compost containing, say, six loads of yard manure and ten of muck to the acre, with a few bushels of ashes and some plaster, having been wetted a few times with barn-yard liquor, and turned and mixed well, will make the second crop of clover fairly jump, and produce good clover.—American Agriculturist.

THE Agriculturists of California complain that they cannot afford to pay the wages heretofore asked by farm laborers, and are making efforts to reduce the wages of white farm hands to $18 per month, and of Chinamen to seventy-five cents per day, without board and lodging.

You cannot dream yourself into a character; you must hammer and forge yourself into one.

MEDICAL.

DRS. D. FAHRNEY & SONS' celebrated preparation for

CLEANSING THE BLOOD.

The long and favorably known preparation of Drs. D. Fahrney & Son for cleansing the blood, needs at this day no recommendation at our hands, its virtues having been established by the thousands of cases where it has given relief in the

during the last sixty years. So highly indeed is it esteemed, that the demand is constantly increasing, not only at home, but we are daily receiving applications for it from the most remote sections of the country—North, East, South, and West. To meet this demand, as well as to prevent the public from being imposed upon, we have determined to put this in such a form that it may be within reach of everybody everywhere.

Other preparations, far inferior to the genuine, having been put out by certain parties, have been mistaken by some for our own, and as a matter of course the old Preparation of D. Fahrney & Son has been made to suffer some in reputation; therefore to prevent this mistake, as well as to meet the increasing demand mentioned above, we have concluded to send the medicine out in

LIQUID FORM.

We will also at the same time put out the original in packages form for the benefit of some of our old customers and others who may yet prefer the medicine as first prepared. Not recommending it to cure all diseases the human body is heir to, but as a family medicine, and for all diseases originating from impure blood and disordered liver, it has no equal; and will cure the following diseases:

Scrofula, cutaneous diseases, erysipelas, boils, sores, scald head, pimples on the face, tetter affections, old and stubborn ulcers, rheumatic affections, dyspepsia, costiveness, sick headache, jaundice, salt rheum, general debility, mercurial diseases, foul stomach, together with all other disorders arising from impure blood, and disordered liver, &c., &c., prepared by Drs. D. Fahrney & Son, Boonsboro', Maryland, and Dr. B. Fahrney, Keedysville, Md. Sold by all druggists and merchants generally. None genuine unless signed D. Fahrney & Son. Sold by W. F. Horn, druggist, Carlisle; S. S. Huber, druggist, Newville; James A. Clark, Less Cross Roads; John C. Attick, druggist, Shippensburg.

WILCOX & GIBBS'

SEWING MACHINE

We have secured the Agency of the Wilcox & Gibbs' Sewing Machine, a little family arrangement no one seems willing to do without after having seen one in operation. The Wilcox & Gibbs' is a Single Thread Machine and claims superiority over all Double Thread Machines in the following particulars. It is simpler and less liable to get out of repair. It is cheaper. It runs with less noise. It runs easier. It runs faster. It has the best device for preventing the wheel from running backward. It requires less mechanical skill to operate it. It requires less time and instruction to learn to use it. It is the most certain and reliable in its operations. Its needle is straight and less liable to be broken than a curved one. The needle is secured in its place by an ingenious, patented device which renders it self adjusting so that neither skill nor experience are required in arranging it. It sews directly from the spool thus doing away with the tedious operation of rewinding the thread for adjustment in the shuttle. It makes the Wilcox & Gibbs' or "twisted loop stitch," a stitch unlike that with this machine and made by no other, the seam is more elastic and stronger than the lock Stich. The seam is the same, even and beautiful, the seam is always self fastened thus avoiding a reversible feed. Its tension is more simple and more easily adjusted, it is more speedily changed from one kind of work to another, it does beautiful embroidery, it has the best hemmer, it has the best filler, it has the best braider, it has the best belt. The Wilcox & Gibbs has been in the market for little more eight years, during which time upwards of sixty thousand have been made and sold, a number by fifty per cent larger than were sold of any Double Thread Machine in the same number of its earliest years. Such success is sufficient to warrant the sale of this Machine wherever it has an Agency without the doubling evidence of testimonials, of which there are enough to fill up the columns in the land. These Machines are on exhibition at our store, No. 26, North Hanover street, Carlisle, where they may be examined, and they will take great pleasure in explaining anything relating to it.

Respectfully &c.,
