Should auld acquaintance be forgot

THE OLD DRUG STORE.
FRIENDS, customers and the public, high and low, rich and poor; in whom confidence we have so long and liberally shared, in remembrance of your kindness we again make our annual visit—not to call your attention to any new fashion, though there is fashion in medicine—but to assure you that through all the mutations and fluctuations, the changes and chances—varied and sad—that we, and our city have passed through we are still permitted to occupy our old location and position—that where we have been the last fifteen years—and where we still have the pleasure of inviting those whose acquaintance we formed in days "lang syne." Chastened and encouraged in our weary round of toil and duty, by so large a portion of the world and intelligence around us, we hope to continue on in our old course, endeavoring to be just, kind and courteous in in our intercourse with all classes, and, disclaiming all pretensions to superior merit or ability to serve the public, we offer the past, as our guarantee for the future, and feel confident that a 20 years in the business of over twenty years, and a residence among the same people for over eighteen, are considerations of importance in the equitable distribution of those full the responsible position of Apothecaries, and will receive the attention of the cautious and prudent. We will now state, that we continue, as usual, TO KEEP THE LARGEST STOCK, as well as the greatest variety, in our line, to be found in this city, "selected" and purchased in the houses of established reputation, and from men whose character is the best guarantee for the quality of what they sell. And at the time, apparatus and skill required to select and test each of the hundreds of articles, Mineral, Chemical, Botanical and Pharmaceutical, of which our stock is composed, is more than we can command, we prefer—and we think our customers will—the mode we have adopted as being the more reasonable and satisfactory. If, in the purest articles, in the hands of the unskillful or incompetent, may fail in effecting satisfactory results, we prefer that our articles should be judged by a different standard; and therefore, for further proof, refer to those physicians—the most honorable of the profession—who rely entirely on us for their supplies—and whose success is abundant evidence that they know both where to obtain, and how to administer, pure and appropriate medicines.
Our list of Patent Medicines is extensive, embracing all those usually called for in this community; many of them highly spoke of, and much used—though not having a Regular Physician is our interest to test their quality and fitness, and being unwilling to undertake as a portion of our business, we ourselves—we cannot speak of their worthiness with that degree of assurance we otherwise might. Our business is divided into the following departments:
Medicines, Wines and Liquors, Groceries, Window Glass, Paints, Oils, Dye Stuffs, Varnishes, Brushes, Perfumery, Fancy and Miscellaneous Articles.
Our stock of Medicines is very extensive, embracing every article, Chemical, Mineral and Pharmaceutical in use by the Regulars as well as those most commonly used by Botanics and Thompsonians, together with a very general assortment of Shaker Herbs and Extracts.
Our Wines and Liquors are of the purest and best; selected, purchased and kept for Medical purposes only, and warranted to be as represented
In the Grocery department we are not excessive, but what we have in stock is of the choicest and best; persons particularly nice in their tastes, cannot fail of being suited.
In the Line of Paints, Oil, Varnishes &c., we are and long have been, the most extensive dealers in this city, Our list embraces not only a full and complete stock of materials for House, Coach, and Civil Painting, but also every thing called for in Portrait, Ornamental, Mezzalitto, and other Fancy Painting, also Gilding, Bronzing, &c.
In Window Glass our stock is necessarily large than all the rest in the city combined, as we are most extensively engaged in the manufacture of Window Sash, Blinds and doors, consequently we are obliged to keep on hand at all times not less than from two to five hundred boxes of Glass, comprising at least fifty different sizes, of the finest qualities, thick sems, etc., of French, English and American manufacture.
As to Brushes, such as Paint, Whitewash, etc. etc., we have every thing that can be desired in all the various departments in which they are used
And as for Perfumery, Fancy and Miscellaneous Articles, Combs, Brushes, Hair Oils, Pomatums; Soaps, Colognes, Extracts, etc., we have enough to meet the reasonable wants of the entire community.

As to our Prices.
We believe the people to be the most impartial, as well as competent judges in the matter, and best know where their interests are most promoted. Hence the reason why our customers by far outnumber, and our sales exceed by thousands those of any similar establishment in Erie—with the exception, perhaps, of one.
Erie, May 19, 1855. CARTER & BROTHER,

NEW EGYPT.
To the People of Erie, Jerusalem and the country round about Jordan, Greeting:
WRITE unto you at this time for the purpose of informing you of a saving you to come unto me, and to make sure that you may be filled with all wisdom, and your spiritual and temporal wants be supplied whereby your humble seeva it may see the travail of his soul and be satisfied.
Now, therefore, I say unto you, if any lack knowledge or Books or Paper or Ink, or Black Work, or any of the articles in which I abound, call at New Egypt, Hughes' Block, and let them freely and and I will freely give, (for an equivalent,) even unto the half of my possessions.
Having tarried near the market place for a long time, giving and receiving, and doing good to all as I had opportunity, the spirit (of the times) said unto me, "arise and go into Egypt," whereupon, obeying the impulse of the day dream, I left Mt. Carmel and tarried in New Egypt, where all things are near ready to receive my old patrons, for whom kind attentions and liberal support in times past I am much indebted, humbly asking a continuance of their patronage, my best wishes shall be and abide with them for evermore.
Now behold ye! I would tell you a little more concerning the mystery that my present abode bears a similarity to ancient Egypt. We have benefactors here who, when the poor people from Jerico and the country round about, come to fill their sacks with food and raiment, I (and frequently two or three times a cent) to prevent the rest—Physicians charge but little for medicine, and give advice gratis, and we have good Samaritans who seek after and administer the wants of the poor, the widow and the orphan.
Being fully conscious that the earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof, that we are all but servants upon his bounty, I would say unto the widows and orphans, if there be any, who are not able to pay their dues to me, to call and I will forgive their debts and receipt their bills to the uttermost farthing. It may be all is not here I wish to have it is in these parables, (come and see,) neither did Joseph's brethren believe that they and their little ones were all to be fed from the bounty of him whom they sold into Egypt. But what power had their ignorance and unbelief to frustrate the plan by which their preservation was ensured. It is true they could not enjoy a confidence in their brother whilst they knew him, but he was as much their protector in their unbelief as when they believed.
I am expecting soon a new supply of BOOKS, STATIONERY, &c., from the east, but cannot procrastinate so long as that my neighbors should my friends wait till they arrive; but will call as low as the hard times will admit of. "He that hath ears to hear let him hear."
To my little friends I would say that I have still a few broken Slate Pencils for those who are not able to purchase, gratis.
Younger exchanged for Rags as usual.
Finally, my brethren, never be weary in well doing. Such and ye shall find.

"THE ERIE DIFFICULTY."
Wide Tracks! Narrow Tracks!! MAKE TRACKS!!
THE greatest difficulty in Erie, aside from the "Erie difficulty," has been to get Shoes that are Shoes, Boots that are Boots, and Gaiters that display the fine proportions of the foot, and yet will not produce corns. This difficulty, beside which all our other difficulties are but "small potatoes," and few in a hill at that, has been obviated at
C. Miller's Boot and Shoe Emporium,
No. 8, Williams Block, State street, to which place "all the world and the rest of mankind," are respectfull requested to "make tracks," and satisfy themselves by examining stock and prices. This establishment don't defy competition, but the proprietor simply says to his old friends and the public that a shoe is practically conversant with the Boot and Shoe business, he has no doubt he can furnish a better article for the same price than any body else in this little city of magnificent expectations.
