BASKETBALL RECEIVES BAD BLOW AS MORRIS TOME PUNCHES REFEREE JIMMY RUMSEY IN CAMDEN GAME

Owner of Skeeters Denounces Attack and Says Such Scenes Will Ruin Basketball—Camden and Greys Win—Hancock Captures Title

"I WANT to say that such scenes as were enacted here tonight will ruin basketball in Camden or anywhere else." These were the words of the Camden basketball management last evening, after the most disgraceful affair in the history of the Eastern League had been staged, when Morris Tome punched referee Jimmy Rumsey, who, by the way, was making his "debow" as an official referee in the Eastern League.

Dr. Charles Helms, the owner of the club, then added: "We have taken our thrashings. We took it in Trenton and played the game like sports, and Trenton also came here and beat us and put us out of the running, but we never squealed. You can say that I personally favor the most severe punishment being meted out to Tome for his uncalled-for conduct on this floor tonight." Mr. Kuser, owner of the Potters, witnessed the entire affair.

Happened in Second Half

The trouble took place after about ten minutes of the second half had been played. Rumsey had called a double foul on Tome a few minutes earlier for passing some sarcastic remark. The Trenton man, according to the official, tripped him, and he ordered him out of the game. Then Tome called the official a vile name.

A few minutes' wrangling took place, and when the official insisted that Tome go out the tall center man punched him.

It is a blot on Eastern League basketball and one which should receive prompt legislation by the league, as it was absolutely uncalled for. Rumsey, although a new man, had been working a fine game.

After Tome punched the official the wildest disorder prevailed, and fans tossed chairs in every direction in an effort to get at the center man. A number of police succeeded with no little difficulty in escorting the Trentonite to his dressing room.

Camden a Winner

Camden won the melee, 48 to 27, getting fourteen field goals to six for the visitors. Jimmy Brown led the attack with eight baskets, six of which he landed in the second half and four of these in the last five minutes. The going was even at the start, but toward the finish of the initial period the Skeeters pulled away and finished on the long end at 20 to 10.

The adding of points was pretty even for the first ten minutes of the second period, and Tome was banished with the Skeeters ahead at 36 to 25. Getzinger took his place and Haney went in for Camden. Brown's good shooting featured the closing minutes.

Greys Defeat De Neri

Greystock increased its lead in the Eastern League by defeating De Neri, 38-24. The Churchmen were always in the lead, and the affair was featured by the remarkable work of McWilliams, Cross and Barlow. The Churchmen's defense men divided seven field goals, four going to Raymond and three to "Ally," while their opponents were shut out. Young Barlow also made two goals right at the start of the game and shut out Joe Fogarty. The De Neri made but four baskets, three of which came in the first half. This lone two-pointer of the second half was scored by Dreyfuss in the last minute of play.

Hancock captured the city cage title from Dobson in the city championship series, score 27-25. Hancock led from the start and was never really in danger.

Penn in Big Contest

Weightman Hall will be the scene of one of the most important intercollegiate basketball games of the season tonight, when the University of Pennsylvania meets Princeton. At the same time, Yale will be playing at Dartmouth, and the outcome of these contests is awaited with interest by college enthusiasts.

Princeton and Penn are keen rivals at the cage sport, for the Quakers only captured the title last year in a play-off after finishing the season in a deadlock with the Tigers. So far this year the only reversal sustained by Princeton was at the hands of Penn on the former's home floor, and it is only natural to expect the visitors are out to even up the score and keep in the race with Yale. A defeat for Princeton and a victory for Yale will make it necessary for the Tigers to win at New Haven Tuesday night in order to tie up the race for first place. On the other hand, if Dartmouth is returned a winner over Yale and Penn loses the conditions will be reversed, and if both win, the intercollegiate title will be decided Tuesday evening at New Haven, when Yale and Princeton clash in the final game of the season.

Just at present Penn is going good, and Lon Jourdet announces there will be no change in the line-up. Princeton is not playing so well at present.

De Neri Meets Jasper

The Jasper Jewels invade Musical Fund Hall this evening and play the De Neri combination, and a fast game should be the result. The Kensingtonians have met the Downtowners seven times this season and have been returned a winner on each occasion. "Bill" Kennedy's "Wonder Workers" are out to make it eight straight, but will meet stubborn resistance, as the men on Myers's hazeroll are a hard lot to down on their home floor. It will be recalled that the last time Jasper played downtown it just won out in the last few minutes. Heretofore Sedran and his pals had run up big scores. Barney and Marty Friedman being in especially good form in landing shots. Myers has several men who may receive trials before the season closes.

There are a good many fans in the Eastern League exclusive of Jasperites, that say Marty Friedman is the greatest basketball player that ever performed here. It is a broad assertion, but they are not far off at that.

Billy McCarter, the local boy with Wilkes-Barre, is gaining in State League scoring honors at foul tossing and is running neck and neck with Merle Harris for the coveted title.

It looks as if Paterson will win the second half of the Inter-state League. The almost dull-end Hoboken squad handed Jersey City, running second, two straight defeats and spoiled that club's chances.

When Herman Baetzel referees in his best form he even fails to draw a word of appreciation from the "amen" corner at Nonpariel Hall. And one rooter in particular makes a long journey Thursday nights to lead this crowd of knockers, but loyal Jasperites.

HARRY DAVIS

MACKS LEAVE FOR THE SOUTH TODAY

Sixteen Players in Squad Off to Join Connie at Jacksonville

OTHERS START FROM HOME

Sixteen players, regulars and others who hope to be regulars of the 1917 Athletic team, will depart from West Philadelphia station at 3:42 p. m. today for Jacksonville, Fla., under the guidance of Captain Harry Davis. On the party's arrival in the White Elephants' training camp Davis will turn himself and charges over to Manager Connie Mack, who personally will get his men in shape preparatory to the American League campaign.

In the detachment that will leave today will be Harry Schmidt, Joe Bush, Elmer Myers, James Farnham and David Keefe, pitchers; Valentine Pinemuch and Wallie Schang, catchers; Rox Bates, Stuffy McInnis, Hayland Rowe, John Mitchell, Lawton Witt and Otis Lawry, infielders, and Amos Strunk, Ray Hamilton and Ed Kinsella, outfielders. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shibe, Mrs. Wallie Schang, Doctor Edling, the club physician, and several newspapermen also are to be in the party.

Frank Thrasher, outfielder, and Naylor, a pitcher, have not sent in their signed contracts to the Athletic offices, but it is confidently expected that both will appear at the training camp, eager to accept Mack's terms.

Manager Mack, Bill Meyer and Haley and the squad of pitchers who have been at Fort Pierce, Fla., for the last several days, will break camp today and proceed to Jacksonville to join the party traveling under Davis's direction.

Several of Mack's charges will go from their homes direct to the camp. Among these are Jack Nabors, of Montevello, Ala.; Jing Grover, Seattle, Wash.; Fung Bodie, San Francisco; Bill Noyes, Kearney, Neb.; Fred Lee, Boulder, Col., and Bill Johnson, Chicago.

COFFEE POT PARK SEES PHIL ACTION

Boss Moran Puts 23 Players Through Easy Work-Out in Heat

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL

Evening Ledger "Wire" Correspondent With Phils on Training Trip.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 16.

The 1917 baseball season was inaugurated by twenty-three members of the Phillies clan at Coffee Pot Park this morning when Pat Moran, aided and abetted by a hot sun, put the aspirants through the first work-out of the year. The work was not strenuous, as the men were careful of their arms and devoted most of the time to passing the ball around. Moran warned the pitchers against cutting loose and delivered a lecture to the infielders on the effect of sore arms when the season gets under way. It seems as if a player, no matter how long he has been in the game, will try to throw the ball away on the first day instead of breaking in gradually.

Trainer "Mike" Dee was the busiest person in the ball yard this morning. All he had to do was to listen to the troubles of the athletes, distribute the proper suits to the proper players and hand out the lockers at the club house. He also was obliged to don a disguise and search for the batting cage which has been missing since last spring. Aided by Bill Shettsline, the missing apparatus was located in a bank and moved out to the grounds.

Little was done today, but the rookies were out in full force ready to do or die. McGaffigan, captured out on the Coast while playing with Vernon, was working at second base, and Gandy, originally an outfielder, caverted around first. The pitchers played catch, and the catchers took things easy. The real practice will start on Monday, however, and Moran expects to have the men speeding up before the end of the week.

EAST VS. WEST TENNIS PLAY ON COAST BROKEN BY RAIN

LOS ANGELES, March 10.—Matches in the East vs. West tennis tournament set for Friday have been postponed until Monday. Officials announced that matches already scheduled for today would be played if weather permitted, while those postponed would be played Monday. Rain was the cause of Friday's idle day.

HAS FIRST RAILROAD RIDE AT 84 YEARS

Thomas Jefferson Stanton, of Galestown, Del., Enjoys Novel Experience

SEAFORD, Del., March 10.—A peculiar sight was witnessed here this morning when Thomas Jefferson Stanton boarded the New York express to go to Philadelphia. Mr. Stanton is eighty-four years old and has never before been on a railway train. He has lived all his life at Galestown, a small village about ten miles from Seaford, and although he has seen trains at Seaford all his life he had never taken a trip by rail.

Stanton has evidently been content all these years, and it was not until recently that he thought about leaving his old homestead even for a week's outing.

COUNCILMEN ATTEND JOHN J. CARR'S FUNERAL

Services at Church of St. Anthony of Padua for Late Sergeant-at-Arms

Members of Select and Common Councils attended the funeral of John J. Carr, sergeant-at-arms of Common Council, this morning. Mr. Carr died at the age of forty-four years at his home, 2419 Carpenter street, on Monday night.

The Councilmen and clerks and other employes assembled in the offices of the lower chamber at 9:30 o'clock. They then proceeded in a body to the Church of St. Anthony of Padua, Gray's Ferry avenue and Fitzwater street, where solemn mass of requiem was held at 10:30 o'clock. Councils sent a floral tribute to the funeral.

DOUBTING PASTOR ENDS LIFE

Aged Preacher, Grieved by War, Leaves Note to Newspaper

NEW ORLEANS, March 10.—The Rev. W. H. Carroll, seventy-four-year-old Baptist preacher, having a country charge near here, renounced all he had preached in his fifty-four years' ministry and killed himself. He left this note addressed to a newspaper:

"I have closely followed New York newspaper accounts of the world war and came to the conclusion February 12 that God had wholly abandoned the world. I have grave doubts about the providence of God and do not want to live."

He served one community during his lifetime and baptized more than 1000 persons.

William Morten Wright

William Morten Wright, senior member and for many years president of the Wright-Tyndale & Van Roden Company, died at his residence, 1939 Arch street, Thursday morning. He was seventy-five years old.

Mr. Wright had a long and active business career, but his tastes and pleasures were of a domestic nature. He was devoted to his family and home and loyal to those who gained his friendship and esteem. He was a direct descendant of John Morten, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, and of the Crosby family of Delaware County. He is survived by a widow and son, W. E. Wright, treasurer of the Wright-Tyndale-Van Roden Company.

Mrs. Helen Moore

Mrs. Helen Moore, widow of Leopold Moore, organizer of the old German singing Society, died Friday from apoplexy. Mrs. Moore was a member of the Fourth Baptist Church, Fifth and Buttonwood streets. One daughter and two sons survive.

Dr. Joseph W. Marsh

LEWES, Del., March 10.—Dr. Joseph W. Marsh, retired physician, farmer and capitalist, died yesterday in his seventy-seventh year. He was a director in the Sussex Trust Company. In 1915 he represented his district in the State Legislature. He was unmarried, and his large estate will go to the children of his brothers and sisters.

Richard S. Daniels

BALTIMORE, March 10. — Richard S. Daniels, uncle of the Secretary of the Navy, dropped dead of heart disease at the Cove Point (Md.) Lighthouse Thursday. He was seventy-two years old and had been in the lighthouse service for forty years. He was maritime observer at Cove Point.

Orson B. Johnson

SEATTLE, Wash., March 10.—Orson Bennett Johnson, professor emeritus of zoology at the University of Washington and widely known as an entomologist and discoverer of many new species of insects, is dead, aged sixty-eight years. He had been an invalid many years.
