PITTSBURGH CALLED MORPHINE CENTER

Arrests Follow Indictment—8000 Bottles of the Drug Seized

PITTSBURGH, May 12.—Indicted by the Federal Grand Judy, the Joseph Fleming & Sons Drug Company, John Staley, president; Arnold Staley, manager; John A. Larkin, secretary and treasurer, and Dr. Ellsworth Trader and Dr. John Fuey Moy, the latter a Chinese physician, were arrested charged with violating the Harrison anti-drug act. Two indictments were returned, one against the company, its officers and Doctor Trader, and the other against the company, its officers and Doctor Moy. Bail was fixed at $6000, with the exception of Doctor Trader, who was released on $3000.

The Internal Revenue Department officers claim that during the investigation 8000 bottles of morphine were found in the store, along with vast quantities of other drugs. Agent Boyd declared that Pittsburgh is the seat of a morphine monopoly.

Doctor Moy, it is alleged, issued 1000 prescriptions for drugs during one month, all of which had been filled at the Fleming drug store.
