GRAND ENCAMPMENT IN ANNUAL SESSION

Second Branch of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows Shows Condition

The Grand Encampment of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows held its eighty-eighth annual session at Bradford with an attendance of about 300, including past grand officers Samuel H. Pope, M. D. Wiley, William L. Heiston, Richard J. Lippey, Thomas F. Gross, David E. Dale, Wilson K. Mohr, J. P. Hale Jenkins, W. Ed Marsh, Grand Master Montgomery and Grand Secretary Hall.

Official reports show that four encampments surrendered, two merged and two were instituted, leaving the membership at 21,000. The receipts were $7275 and expenditures $6814.21, leaving a cash balance from all sources of $3900.35.

The principal business was the passage of the following amendment to the constitution:

Section 2. The fee to reinstate a member within one year after being suspended for nonpayment of dues shall be the amount of one year's dues. The fee to reinstate a member after being suspended one year for nonpayment of dues shall be the fee charged for a new member of the same age, or such less sum as the bylaws may prescribe.

This amendment was reported favorably by the following-named committee: F. C. E. Mühlhouse, P. G. P.; R. J. Lippey, P. G. P.; Wesley B. Beyer, No. 37; David E. Dale, P. G. R., No. 238; J. B. Andrews, D. C., No. 89; S. H. Pope, P. G. P., No. 106; Charles Gotwalt, No. 14; Harry A. Kintzer, No. 79; I. R. Parker, No. 181; N. E. Sterner, No. 303; G. Heidel Louden, No. 287; L. J. A. Lesser, No. 298; John P. Snyder, No. 217; C. R. Rollinger, No. 67; D. J. Lenkans, No. 79; William L. Heiston, P. G. P.; Fred C. Hanyen, P. G. M., No. 221.

The grand patriarch was given an increase in his allowance for expenses to $1000 per year.

Easton was selected as the place for the next session.

These officers were installed by retiring Grand Patriarch McDowell:

Grand patriarch—George H. Banes, Philadelphia.

Grand high priest—I. A. Jones, Mill Village.

Stephens, Tacony Lodge; Henry M. Stewart, Mount Horeb Lodge; Harry Wallace, Kingswessing.

Boiled "eats" were the finest the ladies could provide and in addition each sailor boy was given two large boxes of tobacco.

The next open meeting will take place next Saturday night at Chester Rowe Rebekah Lodge, at Amber and Norris streets.

The boosters' committee of the first, second and third districts started on the new mission of fraternity last week fully realized by Star of Bethlehem Lodge when Spring Garden Lodge visited and presented to the former through the medium of a silver shield and the accompanying verse, which made a deep impression in the hearts of all. P. G. McDowell highly commended the work of the committee which is encouraging and everything the lodges in the districts. He impressed his hearers with the idea that it should be the duty of the "Star of Bethlehem" to guide the significant tokens presented along the journey through the other lodges.

District Deputy Henderson and District Deputy Brannan exemplified the unwritten work of the initiatory degree, which was instructive and impressive. The large representation of the committee at this first visitation shows that the members of the committee have their hearts in the work and it should instill in other members a desire to cooperate with these workers. As Brother Walkers says: "This is not a committee for the benefit of eighteen men alone, but for the benefit of every member of every lodge in the first three districts and directly every individual member of the order. If members do not care to help us they should come to our meetings and we will help and instruct them in the unwritten work."

The committee also held a meeting in Apollo Lodge, which was well attended. District Deputy Henderson gave instructions in the initiatory degree, which were highly appreciated and commended.

Mille Lodge, No. 1000, conferred the first degree in full form on nine candidates. The degree work, as expressed by the number of visitors present, was most excellent. Among the visitors were Past District Deputy Grand Master Gustave Muller, of Mechanics' Lodge, New York City, who made an eloquent address; H. A. Baldwin, of Austin, Tex.; A. L. Oswald, Grace Lodge, Owingsburg, Pa.; James Arthur Larson, of Gladstone, Mich.; A. Ley Step, of Mapleton Lodge, Mapleton, Pa. Attendance was followed by the degree work and had an extremely pleasant evening.

The second degree will be given tonight in full form and it is hoped that the attendance will be larger than last week. Visitors are always cordially welcomed at the Parkway Building, seventh floor, Room 6.

Caledonian Lodge, No. 700, began the new year by conferring the initiatory and first degree on several candidates, which speaks well for the Grand William C. Buck and Deputy Master C. D. Hamilton, who demonstrated his ability to put a full team on the floor. Among the visitors were P. G. Charles M. Entwistle, of Philadelphia Lodge; P. G. G. Gourlay, of Burnside Lodge; P. G. Edward W. Hamilton, of Purity; P. G. P. S. Kissel, of Williamstown, N. J., all of whom expressed their pleasure and expressed their thanks to the officers and degree team.

Over 1000 Liberty Bonds were authorized, and a good many of our No. 700 has secured. Brother Hamilton, chairman of the committee on entertainment, arranged for the various Saturday evenings of the government. Novembe

CHARLES C. BULKELEY

He is an eminent counselor in the lodge, encampment and Rebekah branches of the Independent Order Odd Fellows.

ber 30 has been fixed by the entertainment committee as "patriotic night," in honor of the boys who are representing No. 700 at the front. P. G. Ancker has charge of the preparations and has a large list of assistants, who desire to share in making the night a success.

Tomorrow night the second degree will be conferred in full form and visitors will be welcome at the Parkway Building.

Ivy Lodge had a large attendance of members and visitors to witness the beautiful degree of fraternity love conferred in full form. Three candidates received the degree and were greatly impressed with the work. Two applications were acted upon favorably and two others were received. The renewed interest committee, under the leadership of Brother Joseph L. Singer, is arranging for the celebration of the thirty-eighth anniversary of the lodge, which will occur on November 12.

Merchants' Lodge, No. 283, conferred the first degree, and the work of the staff was worthy of commendation. Visitors included P. G. Wier, of Chestnut Lodge; Brother Fawber, of Clifton, Ariz., and P. G. Entwistle, of Columbian, who made a pleasing address, asking for a donation of a set of gavels for a lodge that is in poor circumstances. This request was met with hearty approval and the lodge complied by unanimous vote.

Tomorrow evening the second degree will be conferred in full form. Friday evening, November 2, a Halloween masquerade will be given, to which all members and their ladies are invited. Arrangements are under way for the celebration of the seventieth anniversary of the lodge next month.

Kenderton Lodge conferred the first, second and third degrees on Candidate Cearing. A. Hile, there was present Tomlinson, Wannop, Kribbs, Tucker, Lee, Wonderly, Edwards, Michael, Hopkins, Burgert, Croutha-mel, Pritchard and Hamilier. P. G. George W. Farrell, of Palladium Lodge, Indiana, Pa., was a visitor.

Charles C. Bulkeley is a member of Hamilton Lodge and one of its trustees. He was instrumental in causing Hamilton to keep pace with the westward trend and remove from its old location at Thirty-seventh street and Lancaster avenue to 4701 Baltimore avenue and Girard avenue, where it has splendid quarters and is prospering. He is a member of Theresa Rebekah Lodge, of the Grand Lodge, past chief patriarch of Philadelphia Encampment, member of the Grand Encampment, representative from Hamilton Lodge to the Grand Lodge, representative from the Grand Lodge to the Grand Encampment, member of the grand master's "flying squadron," which did such splendid work in increasing the growth of the order in Pennsylvania last year; member of the executive committee, which originates and conducts in all parts of the city Odd Fellows' meetings for the entertainment of the men in the army and navy.

As vice president of the Orphanage Brother Bulkeley has taken a great interest in the welfare of the young wards of Odd Fellowship and through his efforts there has been established a playground at the property in Germantown, which was dedicated by Grand Master Montgomery last month. Brother Bulkeley in his address at that time stated it to be his expectation that eventually the recreation ground would be as complete as any now maintained by the city of Philadelphia.

Brother Bulkeley is a forceful speaker and his superior intelligence and ability have been potent factors in the success of these fraternal movements. He is a West Philadelphia business man and active in matters affecting the progress and well-being of that section. His home is at 5146 Hazel avenue.

G. C. OF R. FRASER INSTALLED IN I. O. R. M.

Deputy Great Sachems Get Together—Receipts and Expenditures of Ambulance Fund

A special session of the Great Council was held in the wigwam of Yuba Tribe, No. 278, for the purpose of raising to the chieftaincy of great chief of records Thomas L. Fraser, recently appointed by Great Sachem Beswick to fill the unexpired term of Thomas Donnalley, resigned.

Great Sachem Beswick presided and appointed Great Representative John E. Poore to act as representative to the Great Incohonee; great Tocakon, Harvey Burtnett; great senior sagamore, S. Williams, Jr.; great junior sagamore, John R. Greenhalgh; great prophet, John M. Coombe; acting great sannaps, Joseph Farrar and J. W. Redenhaver; great guard, Charles G. Cullis. Great Incohonee John E. Poore, assisted by the officers named above, duly raised Thomas L. Fraser to the chieftaincy of great chief of records.

A large gathering of members was present and interesting talks were given by John E. Poore, Harvey Burtnett, S. Williams, Jr., John R. Greenhalgh, John M. Coombe, Joseph Farrar, J. W. Rodenhaver, Charles G. Cullis, Dr. Joseph Farley, Charles Wieland, W. R. Bethel, J. R. Pinkerton, George W. Nice, Thomas L. Fraser, Charles E. Bell, Dr. T. C. Beswick and P. S. Walter Solly.

The annual banquet of the Deputy Great Sachem Association was held on Monday evening. The banquet room was set with flowers and decorated with American flags. A beautiful effect was rendered when, during the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner," a mammoth American flag, illuminated by colored electric lights, was lowered, making a beautiful and inspiring sight. The speakers were Great Prophet John M. Coombe, Great Sachem Dr. T. C. Beswick, G. J. S. Charles E. Bell, G. C. of R. Thomas L. Fraser, G. G. of F. Charles G. Cullis, P. G. S. Walter R. Rodgers, P. G. S. Samuel H. Walker, chairman of the finance committee, John R. Greenhalgh, and George W. Nice, member of the publicity committee. Short addresses were made by these great chiefs. Good talent and social festivities were hugely enjoyed.

Memorial services were held by Hiro Tribe, No. 309, at its wigwam, 2303 Ridge avenue, on Sunday. The Rev. Charles A. Benjamin, pastor of the Twentieth Street M. E. Church, opened the service with prayer and reading of the Scriptures. The choir of All Saints P. E. Church, Eleventh street and Snyder avenue, sang a selected anthem and led the audience in singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." William R. Bethell, chief of records of the tribe, read the names of the departed brothers. The memorial address was made by Past Great Sachem Samuel H. Walker. The services closed with the benediction by the Rev. Charles A. Benjamin.

Great keeper of records reports these additional contributions to the ambulance fund: Ontario, No. 280, $80.25; Victoria, No. 38, $5; Minequa, No. 375, $34; Cheyenne, No. 530, $35; Mikanopy, No. 232, $25; Ionic, No. 137, $28; Quindaro, No. 355, $25; Hopituh, No. 355, $10; Penobscot, No. 70, $25; Itto Micco, No. 248, $17; Red Cloud, No. 150, $13.50; Pequod, No. 18, $20; Chippewa, No. 51, $20.17; Conewingo, No. 167, $5.75; Tallaluia, No. 383, $27.75; Mattawanna, No. 349, $17; Minnewaukaru, No. 250, $72; Mohawk, No. 14, $20.50; Navajo, No. 105, $7; Witchita, No. 69, $5; Teocco, No. 343, $10.

Great Sachem Beswick's ambulance fund to date amounts to $2500. Of this amount $1000 has been forwarded to Great Chief of Records Wilson Brooks and $975 has been used for the purchase of a light ambulance donated to the Base Hospital and shortly will be sent to France. Chief of Records Fraser reports that nearly every tribe has responded to the call and others have promised to contribute their share within a few weeks.

Since war was declared thousands of the members have gone into the various arms of the service and many more have been called to the training camps through the selective draft. The Red Men's organization will care for the members at the front and in the training camps by supplying them with every possible comfort.

Great Senior Sagamore S. Williams, Jr., and Great Junior Sagamore Charles E. Bell attended the celebration of the thirteenth anniversary of Shawnee Tribe, No. 434, of Scranton, at which 185 members and visiting brothers were present. The meeting was in charge of Brother Williams, who is a member of Niagara Tribe. Brother Williams gave a very interesting report of the work done in Niagara Tribe during the last thirteen great suns. Great Junior Sagamore Bell made a stirring address, which was productive of a well attended meeting. Other speakers were S. A. J. Pilmar, a member of the publicity committee, Deputy Great Sachem William H. Cooney and Doctor Greney, of Maneto Tribe, No. 267, Wilkes-Barre, and P. S. Williams and other members of Niagara Tribe. A good musical program and refreshments were enjoyed.

A well-attended district meeting was held in the wigwam of Tioga Tribe, No. 358, Fifty-fourth and Wyalusing avenue, under the supervision of Deputy Great Sachem John Bassett, of No. 227. The features were the addresses of Great Junior Sagamore Charles E. Bell and Great Chief of Records Thomas L. Fraser, which were interspersed with songs and specialties by the minstrels of Tioga Tribe. Sachem William Ackland, the Harry Lauder of this troop, rendered some of that well-known comedian's selections in his own inimitable style, which made the hit of the evening. The members of Tioga Tribe have promised to be up and doing this term and will show an increase. Among the speakers were P. G. S. John E. Poore, P. S. John J. Zell, C. of R. William H. Pennell, P. S. Doctor Leubert, P. S. William Humphries, P. S. John A. Morton and P. S. Fred Seidel.

Winnipisseogee Tribe, No. 238, has rounded out a busy week in trailing to the wigwams of two other tribes in the district and raising their chiefs.

Arrangements were made by District Deputy A. G. Mehler with the idea of bringing about a better fraternal feeling among the tribes in the district, and the wisdom of his efforts was manifest in the enthusiasm with which the work was taken up and in the large delegations that witnessed the ceremonies. The first visit was made to the wigwam of Iona Tribe, No. 306. D. G. S. William J. Snyder, assisted by the team of No. 238, raised the chiefs in an efficient manner: Sachem, I. Reeder; senior sagamore, F. Armbruster; junior sagamore, Robert Wark, and prophet, C. K. Martin. Following the short talks, in the course of which friendly feeling was manifest, the brothers sat down to a real Brewerytown banquet.

The second visit of Winnipisseogee's degree team was to the wigwam of Kasota Tribe, No. 397. Despite the stormy weather the attendance was good and the ritualistic work was performed in excellent form. The newly installed chiefs are: Sachem, August Falkner; senior sagamore, Joseph Margolis; junior sagamore, S. Kolkovitz; prophet, Walter Falkner, Jr.; sannaps, Louis E. Shaw, E. E. Shutt; G. of W., Charles Pollock; G. of F. D., W. Morgan. D. G. S. William Snyder in his remarks called attention to the district meeting to be held in the wigwam of Kasota Tribe. After short talks by other members refreshments were served.

Ponemah Tribe, No. 239, accompanied by a band of music, trailed to the wigwam of Winnebeckling Tribe, No. 33, and raised its chiefs. The work in the chair was done by D. G. S. Steck and the degree team of No. 239. The visiting brothers were well entertained, and after short talks by D. G. S. Steck and other visiting brothers refreshments were served.

As an evidence of the get-together spirit among the tribes in the northeast section of the city a delegation of members from Iona Tribe, led by D. G. S. Mehler, trailed to the wigwam of Winnipisseogee Tribe, No. 238, on the occasion of the raising of its chiefs, the work being exemplified by D. G. S. John Armbruster, assisted by the senior Sagamore W. Ohlmeier, Great Junior Sagamore Frank Armbruster, Great Prophet Edwin Sissstein, Great Sannaps H. Schmerfeld, Harry Knecht and G. M. Ben Weiss.

The newly installed chiefs are: Sachem, Harry Arnson; senior sagamore, John J. Vain; junior sagamore, Walter R. Pim; prophet, Fred Gaudrich; sannaps, W. J. Snyder, George W. Snell; G. of W., Ernest Spurling; G. of F., Harry Waters. A vote of thanks was extended to D. G. S. Armbruster and assistants for their services to the D. G. S. A. G. Mehler was complimented for his able leadership as deputy of the district. The brothers were served to a treat by P. S. Leroy Leader, the chief steward.

Neoskalata Tribe, No. 6, will hold its masquerade party on next Wednesday sleep. Many novelties in the way of costumes will be displayed and all those who attend will be assured of a good time. Chairman of the committee Robert Finch, is looking for a good attendance of members and visitors.

Deputy Great Sachem David Russell, in charge of the first district, reports a better attendance at the meetings. Shawnee Tribe, No. 8, adopted one member and will have good meetings from now on. Neshaminy Tribe, No. 23, is starting a campaign for new members. Wissinoming Tribe, No. 325, is always doing something to keep the members interested and is having good meetings. Past Sachem Robert Sweeney is an active worker and never misses a meeting.

Standing Elk Tribe, No. 200, Bridesburg, has closed a successful term, the report of C. of R. showing a balance showing that the tribe has made a substantial gain in the treasury. The members of the tribe showed the real spirit of patriotism when at the last meeting they voted the tribe's funds of their wampum in ten $100 Liberty Bonds.

Seminole Tribe, No. 30, Germantown, received a visit from Manaiung Tribe, No. 118, of Manayunk, and Tribe Indian Substitutes, District Deputy H. H. Wigglesworth accompanied the tribe. The Seminoles made a friendly visit to Minnehaha Tribe, No. 111, at Branchtown and were cordially received and entertained.

Netop Tribe, No. 514, has organized two membership teams conducted by Brothers Harry McClay and William Aldrich. The team capturing and having adopted into the tribe the largest number of palefaces during the term will be given, at the expense of the losing team. The tribe recently adopted a class of twenty-one members and has four applications. Sachem John McAndrew, Senior Sagamore A. Robson, Jr., Junior Sagamore F. A. Dwyer, Prophet John Leib, the newly installed chiefs, have taken up the work and hope to have a successful term.

Ongwe Honwe Tribe, No. 260, of Frankford, traveled in automobiles to the wigwam of Tulpehocken Tribe, No. 181, at Mount Airy, and raised its chiefs. The work being done by D. G. S. Nagel, assisted by the degree team of No. 260, the staff being dressed in full Indian costume. D. G. S. William Fox accompanied the tribe and assisted in the work. The brothers of Tulpehocken were greatly pleased and complimented Deputies Nagle, Fox and the degree team for their excellent work.

Minonk Tribe, No. 451, had a big meeting with a delegation from Wachimo Tribe, No. 63, of Roxborough, whose chiefs gave interesting talks. Brother W. Martin resigned his stump of senior sagamore and Brother W. Schlippe was advanced to that post. Brother Milligan was elected to the stump of junior sagamore. No. 451 has four members in the army and expects more to go this month.

COURT NESHAMINY'S SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

A Live Unit of the Foresters of America Set Pace for Social Movements

Court Neshaminy No. 146, at Ninth and Greenwich streets, received the complete plans scheduled by its promotion committees for the remaining season of 1917: Indoor games series, presented by Brothers McCaffrey, Nolan and Brady; debates, announced by Brothers McNamara, Byrnes, Brown, Noon and O'Hara; social fetes, arranged by Brothers O'Malley, Sharp and McDermott; dramatic association, playlets and sketches, Brothers Ritter, Grashofer and Rovine; athletic sports, basketball tournaments, etc, Brothers Gillen, Chalfant and Toole; choral concerte, Brothers Lafferty, Gregory, Dunn, Andress and Donnelly.

The outdoor summer events were greatly enjoyed by the members, friends and families, and Brothers Daniels, McLoughlin, Fite and Herbach, the committee, were gratified. The indoor sessions draw goodly attendance. Novel features are added to attract the attention, and the chairman in his methods gives variety. Brother Dory Meyers relates the experience of last session, at which he wielded the lecturer's gavel, announcing that the exercises would be brief and also of educational character. It proved a good scheme, demonstrating the optimism in ready repartee and the wide range of the readings of the participant.

A good example is afforded in the query of Brother Rudolph: "Why should the demand for Home Rule for Ireland be granted, when a fair-sized minority of Irish inhabitants oppose the movement?" Brother T. D. Roberts, of Donegal ancestry, offered an excerpt of an address at the coming Emmet celebration. Said he: "Friend Rodolph, my answer is the principles laid down by Lincoln in his address to Congress, and they apply to the Emerald Isle today; listen carefully:

"Any people, anywhere, being inclined and having the power, have the right to rise and shake off the existing Government and form a new one that suits them better. This is a most sacred right—a right which we hope and believe is to liberate the world. Nor is this right confined to cases in which the whole people of an existing Government may choose to exercise it. Any portion of such a people that can, may revolutionize and make their own of so much of the territory as they inhabit. More than this, a majority of any portion of such a people may revolutionize, putting down a minority intermingled with or near about them who may oppose their movement. Such a minority was precisely the case of the Tories of our own revolution,' and T. D. resumed his seat.

Court Schuylkill No. 108, at 1803 Spring Garden street, was host to the delegation of Forester promoters for subscriptions to the Liberty Bonds. After detailed recital of the successful progress of the patriotic work and newer plans of action adopted for the further extension of the order, words of encouragement and merited advisory criticism were given by various speakers. Brother Justice, of No. 41, which is one of the largest contributing courts, urged that lodges should utilize the excess treasuries for investment in the loan, using discretion to keep ample means to meet current obligations. "Surely we are not going to be outdone in loyalty by the wards of the nation, and when we find that the Indians of Oklahoma from the accumulated tribal funds of $6,000,000 are to invest one-half of that vast sum in Liberty Bonds, we free Invalids need to sit up, think and do our full share as freemen."

Deputy J. J. Noon, from Hamilton, No. 90, a court whose deeds allow it to be plainly outspoken, provided some pertinent facts to wake up the apathetic, quoting statistics furnished by the Mechanics and Metals Bank, of New York. He said: "We cannot hesitate, we must nobly save a very interesting report of the work done in Niagara Tribe during the last thirteen great suns. Great Junior Sagamore Bell made a stirring address, which was productive of a well attended meeting. Other speakers were S. A. J. Pilmar, a member of the publicity committee, Deputy
