THE

NATIONAL STEEL TUBE CLEANER.

(Patented July 24th, 1874.)

Carbon is one of the worst conductors of heat known, a deposit of 1-32 of an inch on the tubes causing a loss of 15 per cent. of fuel.

This Tube Cleaner is made of spring steel. Each segment is of itself a spring, and adjustable in a perfect circle so as to press against the inside of the tube, removing all the carbon and scale without the slightest injury to the tube.

Guaranteed to clean better, last longer, and work easier than any in the market. Adopted and in use by the U. S. Navy. For sale by dealers. Send for circular.

Life, Growth, Beauty.
LONDON HAIR COLOR RESTORER.

LONDON HAIR COLOR RESTORER.

Not a Dye; makes harsh hair soft and silky; cleanses the scalp from all impurities, causing the hair to grow where it has fallen off or become thin.

Can be applied by the hand as it does not stain the skin or soil the finest linen. As a hair Dressing it is the most perfect the world has ever produced. The hair is renovated and strengthened and natural color restored without the application of mineral substances.

Since the introduction of this truly valuable preparation into this country, it has been the wonder and admiration of all classes, as it has proved to be the only article that will absolutely without deception, restore gray hair to its original color, health softness, lustre and beauty, and produce hair on bald heads of its original growth and color.

This beautiful and fragrantly perfumed article is complete with a fleet, no washing or preparation before or after its use, or accompaniment of any kind being required to obtain these desirable results.

HERE IS THE PROOF OF ITS Superior Excellence.

Read this Home Certificate, testified to by Edward H Garrigues one of the most competent Druggists and chemists of Philadelphia, a man whose veracity no one can doubt.

I am happy to add my testimony to the great value of the "London Hair Color Restorer," which restored my hair to its original color, and the hue appears to be permanent. I am satisfied that this preparation is nothing like a dye but operates upon the secretions. It is also a beautiful hair dressing and promotes the growth. I purchased the first bottle from Edward H Garrigues, druggist, Tenth and Coates street, who can also testify my hair was quite gray when I commenced its use.

MRS. MILLER.
No. 720 North Ninth street, Phila.

Dr. Swayne & Son, Respected friends—I have the pleasure to inform you that a lady of my acquaintance, Mrs. Miller, is delighted with the success of your "London Hair Color Restorer." Her hair was falling rapidly, and quite grey. The color has been restored the falling off entirely stopped, and a new growth of hair is the result.

BOSTON TESTIMONY.

July 23d, 1871.—Dr. Swayne & Son: Last winter while in Boston, N. E., I procured six bottles "London Hair Color Restorer," which I like very much, in fact better than any thing I have used in the last nine years. If you please, send me one dozen bottles C. O. D., care of W. S. Fuller & Son, Druggists, No. 723 Tremont street, Boston. Respectfully yours,

ADA BAKER,
No. 59 Island Square.

"London Hair Color Restorer and Dressing," has completely restored my hair to a natural color and youthful beauty, and caused a rapid and luxuriant growth.

MRS. ANNIE MORGAN
No. 619 North Seventh Street, Philadelphia.

Dr. Dalton of Philadelphia, says of it: The London Hair Color Restorer is used very extensively among my patients and friends, as well as by myself. I therefore speak from experience.

This distressing and dangerous complaint, and its permanency, symptoms, neglected cough, night sweats, hoarseness, wasting flesh fever—permanently cured by "Doctor Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry."

BRONCHITIS—A prominent of Pulmonary Consumption, is characterized by catarrh, or inflammation of the mucous membrane of the air passages, with cough and expectoration, short breath, hoarseness, pains in the chest. For all bronchial affections, sore throat, loss of voice, coughs,

DR. SWAYNE'S
Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry is a sovereign remedy.

HEMORRHAGE, OR SPITTING OF BLOOD, may proceed from the lungs, throat, brain, liver, stomach, and arise from various causes, as undue physical exertion, plethora, or fullness of the vessels, weak lungs, overstraining of the voice, suppressed evacuation, obstruction of the spleen or liver, &c.

Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry strikes at the root of disease by purifying the blood, invigorating the liver and kidneys to healthy action, and quieting the nervous system.

The only standard remedy for hemorrhage, bronchitis, and all pulmonary complaints. Consumptives, or those predisposed to weak lungs, should not fail to use this great vegetable remedy.

Its marvelous power not only over consumption, but over every chronic disease where a gradual alterative action is needed. Under its use the cough is loosened, the night sweats diminished, the pain subsides, the pulse returns to its natural standard, the stomach is improved in its power to digest and assimilate the food and every organ has a purer and better quality of blood supplied to it, out of which new recreative and plastic material is made.

HOME TESTIMONY.

I was surely afflicted with one of the most distressing of all diseases Pruritus or Piles, or more commonly known as Itching Piles. The itching at times was almost intolerable, increased by scratching, and not unfrequently became quite sore. I bought a box of "Swayne's Ointment" its use gave quick relief, and in a short time made a perfect cure. I can now sleep undisturbed and I would advise all who are suffering with this distressing complaint to procure Swayne's Ointment at once. I had tried prescriptions almost innumerable, without finding any permanent relief.

FIFTEEN MINUTES.—The small stones which fill up the crevices have almost as much to do with making the fair and firm wall as the great rocks; so the right and wise use of spare moments contributes not a little to the building up, in good proportion with strength, a man's mind.—Merchants and clerks may find fifteen minutes during the day to learn what goes on beyond the day-book and ledger. Merchants and artisans may find fifteen minutes occasionally to gather a hint a thought, a fact, an anecdote which they may ponder over while at work. Good housewives need not be so ignorant, as alas! they too often are, seeing that the world of books has plenty for them.—One and all of you, one and all of us, let us take care of the minutes, and the hours will take care of themselves. It has been well said industry is of little avail without punctuality. This is the spirit that watches the minutes, and turns them to account.

What Shall be Expected of Wives.

Some husbands do not make their financial affairs a topic at home, and some better halves knowless of their own husbands' affairs than they do of their neighbors'. Some weeks since a lady was informed of her husband's suspension by reading an announcement in a paper which she accidentally took up in a store while waiting to have an order filled. Whether it was pride or fear that prompted the secrecy cannot be stated; but what can be expected from wives in the way of true economy, if they are only silent partners in the matrimonial copartnership? In 1857 a large jewelry firm sold a costly set of jewels to a lady. The firm knew that her husband was in a failing condition, but the lady had been a long and profitable customer. When the partner ordered his clerk not to charge the set which had been delivered, but to make a memorandum on the blotter, he paid the lady's integrity a high compliment. When her husband failed the jewelry came back with a note couched in such terms that the dealer only regretted that a gift of the set would be construed as an insult.—Boston Journal.

Do Right.

All men ought to have found out by this time that it is never safe, either for a public functionary or a private individual, to do wrong. It is never safe to indulge in swindling, cheating or bribe taking. It is never safe to practice corruption, any kind or degree of it. It is never safe to indulge in falsehood, any sort of it. It is never safe to do anything which would bring shame to the doer by being revealed. One may fancy his misdeeds can't be found out, or have been covered up, or can be so covered; or that they can be denied or explained away so that people will be deceived about them; but yet it remains true that there can be no safety for the wrong doer, and no security against his exposure. Although this looks hard to some people it is nevertheless in accordance with the fixed and irreversible moral law of things and of being. The only safety for a man, or for a woman, is in refraining from wrong and in doing right. Even in old times, at the very beginning of human history, it was said: "Be sure your sins will find you out."

Longest Speech on Record.

The longest speech on record is believed to have been that made by Mr. De Cosmos, in the Legislature of British Columbia, when a measure was pending whose passage would take from a great many settlers their lands. De Cosmos was in a hopeless minority. The job had been held back till the eve of the close of the session; unless legislation was taken before noon of a given day, the act of confiscation would fail. The day before the expiration of the limitation, De Cosmos got the floor about 10 A. M., and began a speech against the bill. Its friends cared little, for they supposed that by one or two o'clock he would be through, and the bill put on its passage. One o'clock came, and De Cosmos was speaking still—hadn't more than entered on his subject. Two o'clock—he was saying 'In the second place.' Three o'clock—he produced a fearful bundle of evidence, and insisted on reading it. The majority began to have a suspicion of the truth—he was going to speak till next noon and kill the bill. For a while they made merry over it, but as it came on to dusk they began to get alarmed. They tried interruptions, but soon abandoned them, because each one afforded him a chance to digress and gain time. They tried to shout him down, but that gave him a breathing space, and finally, they settled down to watch the combat between strength of will and weakness of body. They gave him no mercy. No adjournments for dinner, no chance to do more than wet his lips with water; no wandering from his subject; no sitting down. Twilight darkened; the gas was lit; members slipped out in relays, and returned to sleep in squads, but De Cosmos went on. The speaker, to whom he was addressing himself was alternately dozing, snoring and trying to look wide awake. Dusk deepened, and the majority slipped out in squads to wash and breakfast, and the speaker still held on. It cant be said it was a very logical, eloquent, or sustained speech. There were digressions in it, repetitions also. But still the speaker kept on, and, at last, noon came on, a baffled majority, livid with rage and impotence, and a single man who was triumphant, though his voice had sunk to a husky whisper, his eyes were almost shut and were bleared and bloodshot, his legs were tottering under him, and his baked lips were cracked and smeared with blood. De Cosmos had spoken twenty-six hours and saved the Moses land.
