VEGETINE
Strikes at the root of disease by purifying the blood, restoring liver and kidneys to healthy action, invigorating the nervous system.

VEGETINE
Is not a vile, nauseous compound, which simply purges the bowles, but a safe pleasant remedy which is sure to purify the blood and thereby restore the health.

VEGETINE
Is now prescribed in cases of Scrofula and other diseases of the blood, by many of the best physicians, owing to its great success in curing all diseases of this nature.

VEGETINE
Does not deceive invalids into false hopes by purging and creating a factitious appetite, but assists nature in cleaning and purifying the whole system, leading the patient gradually to perfect health.

VEGETINE.
Was looked upon as an experiment for some time by some of our best physicians, but those most incredulous in regard to its merit are now its most ardent friends and supporters.

VEGETINE
Instead of being a puffed-up medicine has worked its way up to its present astonishing success by actual merit in curing all diseases of the blood, of whatever nature.

VEGETINE
says a Boston physician, "has no equal as a blood purifier. Hearing of its many wonderful cures, after all other remedies had failed, I visited the laboratory and convinced myself of its genuine merit. It is prepared from barks, roots and herbs, each of which is highly effective, and they are compounded in such a manner as to produce astonishing results."

VEGETINE
Is acknowledged and recommended by physicians and apothecaries to be the best purifier and cleanser of the blood yet discovered, and thousands speak in its praise who have been restored to health.

PROOF.
WHAT IS NEEDED.
BOSTON, Feb. 13, 1871.
MR. R. H. STEVENS:
Dear Sir—About one year since I found myself in a feeble condition from general debility VEGETINE was strongly recommended to me by a friend who had been much benefited by its use. I procured the article and after using several bottles, was restored to health and discontinued its use. I feel quite confident that there is no medicine superior to it for those complaints for which it is especially prepared, and feel that they need something to restore them to perfect health.
Respectfully yours
C. D. PETTINGILL.
Firm of S. M Pettingill & Co., 10 State Street, Boston.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 20, 1872.
MR. R. H. STEVENS:
Dear Sir—The two bottles of VEGETINE furnished me by your agent, my wife has used with great benefit.
For a long time she has been troubled with dizziness and costiveness; these troubles are now entirely removed by the use of VEGETINE.
She was also troubled with Dyspepsia and General Debility; and has been greatly benefitted.
THOS. GILMORE, 229½ Walnut Street.

FEEL MYSELF A NEW MAN.
NATICK, MASS., June 16, 1871.
MR. H. R. STEVENS:
Dear Sir—Through the advice and almost persuasion of Rev. E. S. Best, of this place, I have been taking VEGETINE for Dyspepsia, of which I have suffered for years.
I have used only two bottles and already feel myself a new man. Respectfully,
DR. J. W. CHURER.

Report from a Practical Chemist and Apothecary.
BOSTON, Jan. 1, 1874.
Dear Sir—This is to certify that I have sold at retail 15½ dozen (186 bottles) of your VEGETINE since April 12 1870, and can truly say that it has given the best satisfaction of any remedy for the complaints for which it is recommended, that I ever sold. Scarcely a day passes with out some of my customers testifying to its merits on themselves or their friends. I am perfectly cognizant of several cases of Scrofulous Tumors being cured by Vegetine alone in this vicinity.
Very respectfully yours,
ALGERNON SULLIVAN, 165 Broadway.

No Mother.

The other day when a stern and dignified judge ordered a prisoner to stand up and offer objections if he had any, to being sentenced to prison for a long term of years, the prisoner arose and said:

'I never had a mother to shed tears over me!'

His words entered every heart in the court room. He was a rough bad man, in the middle age of life, and he had been convicted of burglary, but every heart softened toward him as his lips uttered the words. He felt what he had said, and tears rolled down his cheeks as he continued:

'If I had had a mother's love and a mother's tears—some one to plead with me and pray with me—I should not now be what I am!'

Ah! That's it. There is a power in a mother's love, in her tears, pleadings and prayers, whose influence is hardly to be realized. God pity the lad who has no home to go to—no mother to whom he can tell his troubles and griefs—no mother to put her arms around his neck and beseech Heaven to keep him pure! There is no heart like a mother's. Her child may wound it again and again, yea pierce it with a sword, and its last pulsations will beat with love for the ingrate. It is the first to excuse his faults, the last to condemn. There is no love like a mother's—none so enduring, so tender, so far reaching. It calls upon the wanderer the first thing in the morning, and it remains with him until sleep closes the eyes. When a mother's love for her offspring dies out, it is a certain sign that he has become too atrocious to longer live with men.

There are no tears like a mother's. —Nothing can so lighten the sorrow of a child—nothing so restrain a mind from wandering into exile paths. The man who looks back over his childhood and youth regrets nothing so much as that he has brought tears of sorrow to a fond mother's eyes. Every tear a mother sheds over a wayward child is recorded in the great book, and he shall answer for it.

There are no prayers like a mother's—none that reach so far, and none so earnest. The wanderer on foreign shores feels this in his heart, and he is thankful to Heaven that he can feel it. Kneeling at her bedside and asking the angel to guide the feet of her children in right paths, who doubts that a mother's prayers are heard in Heaven?

'I never had a mother to shed tears over me!'

The sorrowful words of that burglar might be the words of many evil doers.—'No mother' means aching hearts, burdened minds, deadly woes, and paths which lead down to ruin. Heaven be kind to the lad who must battle through the world without a mother's prayers, a mother's tears, and a mother's boundless love to give him hope, strength and courage!

A Heiress Worth Having.

Miss Melissa Elder was a poor clerk in a hotel dining room in Atchison, Kansas, and here is the account from a journal of that city of her wonderful luck:

A short time ago Melissa Elder fell heir to one hundred and twelve million pounds sterling, amounting to about five hundred and sixty millions dollars. It seems that her great-great grandfather, on her mother's side, who was a Roman senator, had all his property, which consisted of a vast amount of real estate in and around the city of Rome, confiscated to the Roman empire on account of his being concerned with Marc Antony in the terrible assault on the body of Caesar. Caesar's wife was also accused at the same time, but Marc Antony afterward said she was above suspicion, and nothing was done in the matter. All the property of Melissa's great-great grandfather, however, was confiscated upon the testimony of a detective. The detective afterward was taken with irenzied remorse and wrote a full confession, moved to Pompeii, and was living in that ill-fated town when the sudden catastrophe which befel it cut him down in the prime of life. During the recent discoveries among the ruins of Pompeii this confession was discovered, and Miss Elder's great-great grandfather was fully vindicated. A Chicago lawyer who was traveling through Europe, heard of the circumstances, and by aid of detectives, found in the person of Melissa Elder the only surviving heir of her lamented great-great grandfather. The lawyer had taken the prosecution of the case on a contingent fee and Melissa leaves for Rome to take possession of that town. Of course we tend our congratulations; five hundred and sixty millions dollars does not grow on bushes.

A NOVEL PRAYER ABOUT SNAKES.—In old mother Huntingdon, says the Altoona Tribune, there resided many years ago a somewhat noted individual named Tommy Cromwell. Tommy was a famous Methodist, and in those early times of which we write, clergymen were sown very thinly over the country. Hence, Tommy was called upon frequently to do the surplus praying in his neighborhood. There lived near him a family by the name of Drake, which was not subject to the charge of being overmuch pious. One of the younger members had unfortunately been bitten by a rattlesnake, which caused him to think about his soul's eternal interests. In this supreme moment Tommy was sent for to plead his case before the Majesty on high, and thus delivered himself:

"O, Lord, we thank Thee for snakes. Especially do we thank Thee for the rattlesnake that bit John Drake. We pray Thee, O Lord, to send snakes to bite all the Drake family. Particularly do Thou send a great big rattlesnake to bite Old Uncle Dan'l Drake. Amen."

Is Your Hair Falling Out
OR TURNING GRAY!
If So Do Not Fail To Use
LONDON HAIR COLOR RESTORER.
The Great Reputation
Which it has attained and the large number of testimonials which are constantly being received are conclusive proof of its great value.
Proof Positive—A New Suit of Hair. Natural Color and Beauty Restored.
Dr. Swayne & Son—Some six years ago, I began to loose my hair, and continued to do so until the scalp became as bare as the palm of my hand, troubled also with a disagreeable itching fever, great heat and dandruff, small pustules would form, quite sore to the touch, and the remaining portion of the hair, in the side and back of the head, became quite gray. After trying a number of Restoratives, (no doubt, honest in each case, and my head nearly destitute of hair,) I immediately commenced using the "London Hair Color Restorer and Dressing."
Now, through its use, in order and fashion, again as to say to all that I have perfect a new and healthy growth of hair, exactly same in color to the original dark and glossy appearance, and venture the assertion, that no chemical preparation equals this for the hair. I do not merely say so in the hope of a fee, but from a sense of duty, that others may be benefited by my experience. Respectfully yours, U. S. [illegible]
