Deaths.

In Brooklyn, March 2d, WILLIAM J., youngest son of DAVID and Esther Morgan—a promising youth, in whom their fond hopes were centred, as a prop to their declining years—aged 16 years and 5 months.

"Time hath not power to bear away,
Thine image from the heart;
Nor scenes that mark life's onward way,
Can bid it hence depart.
Yet, while our souls with anguish riven,
Mourn, dearest one, for thee,
We raise our tearful eyes to heaven,
And joy that thou art free.

"We miss thee from the band so dear
That gathers round our hearth,
We listen still thy voice to hear
Amid our household mirth—
We gaze upon thy vacant chair,
Thy form we seem to see;
We start to find thou art not there,
Yet joy that thou art free.

"A thousand old familiar things,
Within our childhood's home,
Speak of the cherished absent one,
Who never more shall come.
They wake with mingled bliss and pain,
Fond memories of thee;
But would we call thee back again?—
We joy that thou art free.

"Amid earth's conflict, wo, and care,
When our dark path appears,
'Tis sweet to know thou canst not share
Our anguish and our tears—
That on thy head no more shall fall,
The storms we may not flee;
Yes, safely sheltered from them all,
We joy that thou art free.

"For thou hast gained a brighter land,
And death's cold stream is past,
Thine are the joys at God's right hand,
That shall forever last;
A crown is on thy angel brow,
Thine eye the King doth see;
Thy home is with the seraphs now—
We joy that thou art free!"

In Harrisburg, Pa., on Sunday afternoon, the 22d inst., Mr EDWIN THEURY, of Brooklyn, in the 45th year of his age.

Dr. Halsey's Forest Wine and Pills.—It should be understood that these remedies are not made of drugs, as are nearly all other medicines, but they have been produced from certain plants of great medicinal virtues. We will mention, for example, three of these plants, Dandelion, Sarsaparilla, and Wild Cherry, whose virtues are well known.—The others are found growing wild in the mountains and forests, and their medical properties are ten times greater than those we have named. Were it not for making known the secret of a discovery, which Dr. Halsey places great value on, we would give their names. Suffice it to say, that this delightful wine and the pills have acquired a high reputation in every part of the country. We never knew a single instance, where these remedies have been taken according to the directions, in which they do not produce the most decided benefit. Even in old standing complaints, where the patient persevered in them for a reasonable length of time, cures have been effected.
