"I Love that rich Brogue:

In reference to that Cleveland speech of Gen. Scott, the Hudson Freeman thus touches off its blarney:

"I love that rich brogue." Now Ginral you're jokin,
'Tis cruel at Patrick such fun to be pokin.
That "brogue" you've heard two score year every whit
And not loved it before, a d—l a bit.

"I love that rich brogue." You love it how well,
Let your long spoken sentiment honestly tell—
You would welcome us here from Erin's green lands,
But in making yer laws, you'd give us no hand.

"I love that rich brogue." Did you love it when,
So indignantly fired," you snatched up your pen,
In the Astor House parlor, and earnstly wrote,
That Irishmen were not deserving a vote?

"I love that rich brogue." Ah! you loved it indeed,
When you gave your assent to an infamous creed.
When you claimed of that party, the leader to be,
Who would take from the Irish, their right to be free.

Did you love "that rich brogue," when you told us your mind
To repeal all naturalization inclined?
No matter how dacint or honest men we,
That Paddy should never a citizen be?

"I love that rich brogue." I know you belong
To the party which always love Irishmen strong
By the day when their votes are wanted draws near,
Although we're but cattle the rest of the year.

"I love that rich brogue." When did you begin?
When Greeley told you, you could'nt get in,
That you never could sit in the President's Chair,
If you could'nt get Patrick to help put you there.

You love it as well, perhaps, you'll be owin,
Faith after the election day in the mornin',
When for President Pierce, it falls on your ears,
That same "rich brogue" in three illigant cheers.

"I love that rich brogue." No doubt, Misther Scott,
Our votes you'd love better still, would you not?
Now Ginral be aisy, quit coaxing and fazing,
When Pat's afther voting, its himself he'll be plazing.

"I love that rich brogue." 'Tis blarney, old fellow,
You can't sugar that pill so Paddy will swallow.
Could'nt he see what you are, he'd indade be a fool,
That same NATIVE wolf covered up with White wool.

SHILLELAH.

Eloquent Vindication

Extract from the speech of Hon. Charles J. Faulkner of Virginia, Whig, delivered at the Democratic mass meeting in Reading, Pa.

"This has been called the canvass of "False-hood and Frauds," and such it truly has been. Without resorting to falsehood, what could be said against Frank Pierce? At first he was charged with being a drunkard—but that soon fell into the kennel of loathsome and forgotten calumnies. Then he was charged with intolerance to his Catholic fellow citizens. But those very Catholics promptly rose en masse, with their reverend pastor at their head, and pronounced the statement false.—Then came the Foss fabrication, but that has now sunk to the tomb of the capulets. The whigs have one fact left, and upon that, they exhaust all the powers of their wit and eloquence.

"Gen. Pierce fainted on the battle-field of Cherubusco!" Well, gentlemen, the fact is so. We cannot deny it. Gen. Pierce did faint on the battle-field of Cherubusco, and yet the man who could reproach him with the fact, has not the heart of an American in his bosom, and is no better than a Mexican dog. Hear what Scott and Gen. Pillow say. [Mr. F. here read the official accounts of the action from the despatch of Scott, and Pillow, &c.]

And this is the incident that is made the subject of whig jest—of whig wit, of whig buffoonery. Gen Pierce is not the first brave man that ever fainted on the battle-field.—Massena—the brave Massena—he, whom Napoleon called his right arm—whom history has styled the favorite child of victory—whom poetry and song have chanted as the thunder-bolt of war,—fainted upon one of the bloodiest fields of his fame, and from the same cause that caused Gen. Pierce to faint—pain and bodily exhaustion; and if the whigs will have it so, let history then designate Pierce as the fainting Massena of the Mexican war—as one whose gallant spirit led where his frail, diseased and worn down body could not follow; and believe me, gentlemen, if poetry or painting will ever do justice to that historical scene it will paint the prostrate body of the wounded and exhausted soldier stretched upon the ground—whilst his gallant spirit will be seen to hover over the smoke and carnage of battle, cheering his comrads on to victory, and sighing that it cannot mingle in the dread affray."

When Oliver Cromwell first coined half crowns, an old soldier looking at one read the inscription, "God with us," on one side and "Commonwealth of England" on the other side. "I see," said he, "that God and the Commonwealth are on opposite sides."

General Cass.

This old patriot, the idol of his party and the beloved of all his countrymen, in a late correspondence with some of the Union Democrats of Mississippi, discourses as follows:

"I cheerfully acquiesce in the decision of the Democratic National Convention, and shall support our worthy nominees openly, zealously, faithfully. I have no griefs to assuage, no resentments to gratify, no injuries, real or fancied, to avenge. I have found my country a most grateful one, as far beyond my expectations as my claims—if, indeed, the ordinary services which a citizen has it in his power to render can constitute a claim to further confidence. I am filled with gratitude for what I have received, and not with regret because I did not receive more. And the Democratic party, with which I have lived, and in whose faith I trust I shall die, will find me as true a supporter of their principles and their men, now on the verge of three score years and ten, and with nothing more to ask or to receive, as in the days of youth and political expectation."

To which is added, receipts for the cure of the above diseases, and a few treatles on the causes, symptoms and cure of the Fever and Ague, for twenty-five cents a copy six copies one dollar; will be forwarded to any part of the United States by mail free of postage. Either sex are invited to his Private Rooms, 38 North Seventh st. Phila. without fear of interruption from other patients. Strangers and others who have been unfortunate in the selection of a Physician are invited to call.

IMPOTENCY—Through unrestrained indulgence of the passions, by excess in self-abuse, the evils are numerous. Premature impotency, involuntary seminal discharges, wasting of the organs, loss of memory, a distaste for female society, general debility, or constitutional derangement, are sure to follow. If necessary, consult the Doctor with confidence; he offers a perfect cure.

READ AND REFLECT.—The afflicted would do well to reflect before trusting their health, happiness, and in many cases their lives, in the hands of physicians ignorant of this class of maladies. It is certainly impossible for one man to understand all the ills the human family are subject to. Every respectable physician has his peculiar branch, in which he's more successful than his brother professors, and to that he devotes most of his time and study.

YEARS OF PRACTICE, exclusively devoted to the study and treatment of diseases of the sexual organs, together with ulcers upon the body, throat, nose, or legs, pains in the head, or bones, mercurial rheumatism, strictures, gravel, irregularities, diseases arising from youthful excess or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled, enables the Doctor to offer speedy relief to all who may place themselves under his care.

Dr. Hoofland's celebrated German Bitters.

Prepared by Dr. C. M Jackson, at the German Medicine store, 120 Arch street, Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These bitters are worthy the attention of invalids—Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching power in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are, without, safe, certain, and pleasant.

Read and be Convinced.

The editor of the Boston Bee said, December 22d—"Dr. Hoofland's Celebrated German Bitters, for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic, or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our elbow says he has himself received an effectual and permanent cure of Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy. We are convinced that, in the use of these bitters, the patient constantly gains strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomach with safety, under any circumstances. We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise their use.

Scott's Weekly, one of the best literary papers published, said, August 25th—

"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the medical faculty as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."

More Evidence.

The Philadelphia Saturday Gazette, the best family paper published in the United States, says of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters—

"It is seldom that we recommend what are termed Patent Medicines, to the confidence and patronage of our readers, and therefore when we recommend Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters we wish to be distinctly understood that we are not speaking of the nostrums of the day, that are noised about for a brief period and then forgotten after they have run their guilty race of mischief, but of a medicine long established, universally approved, and which has met the hearty approval of the faculty itself."

Look well to the marks of the genuine. They have the written signature of C. M. JACKSON upon the wrapper, and his name blown in the bottle, without which they are spurious.

DR. HOUGHTON'S PEPSIN

Another Scientific Wonder!

Great Cure for Dyspepsia!

DR. J. S. HOUGHTON'S PEPSIN, THE TRUE DIGESTIVE FLUID, OR Gastric Juice.

Prepared from RENNET or the fourth Stomach of the Ox, after directions of Baron Liebig, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., Philadelphia, Pa.

This is a truly wonderful remedy for INDIGESTION, DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE, LIVER COMPLAINT, CONSTIPATION and DEBILITY, curing after Nature's own method, by Nature's own agent, the Gastric Juice.

Pepsin is the chief element or great Digestive principle of the Gastric Juice—the Solvent of the Food; the Purifying, Preserving, and Stimulating Agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming an ARTIFICIAL DIGESTIVE FLUID, precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it. By the aid of this preparation the pains and evils of Indigestion and Dyspepsia are removed just as they would be by a healthy stomach. He is doing wonders for dyspeptics, curing cases of Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption, supposed to be on the verge of the grave. The scientific evidence upon which it is based, is in the highest degree curious and remarkable.

Scientific Evidence.

Baron Liebeg in his celebrated work on animal Chemistry, says, "An Artificial Digestive Fluid, analagous to the Gastric Juice, may be readily prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the Calf, in which various particles of food, as meat and Eggs, will be softened, changed, and digested, just in the same manner as they would be in the human stomach."

☞ Call on the agent and get a Descriptive circular, gratis, giving a large amount of scientific evidence, similar to the above, together with reports of remarkable cures from all parts of the United States.

DR. HOUGHTON'S PEPSIN is now sold by nearly all the dealers in fine drugs and popular medicines throughout the United States. It is prepared in powder and in fluid form, and in prescriptive vials for the use of Physicians.

PRIVATE CIRCULARS for the use of Physicians, may be obtained of Dr. Houghton or his agents describing the whole process of preparation, and giving the authorities upon which the claims of this new remedy are based. As it is not a secret remedy, no objection can be raised against its use by Physicians in respectable standing and regular practice. Price, ONE DOLLAR per bottle.

☞ OBSERVE THIS!!—Every bottle of the genuine PEPSIN bears the written signature of J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., sole Proprietor Philadelphia, Pa. Copyright and Trade Mark secured.

Ayers Cherry Pictoral,

FOR THE CURE OF COUGHS, AND COLDS, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA AND WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP AND CONSUMPTION.

In offering to the community this justly celebrated remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs, it is not your wish to trifle with the lives or health of the afflicted, but frankly to lay before them the opinion of distinguished men and some of the evidences of its success, from which they can judge for themselves. We sincerely pledge ourselves to make no will assertions or false statements of its efficacy, nor will we hold out any hope to suffering humanity which facts will not warrant.

Many proofs are here given, and we solicit an inquiry from the public into all we publish, feeling assured that they will find them perfectly reliable, and the medicine worthy their best confidence and patronage.

From the distinguished Professor of Chemistry and Materia Medica, Bowdoin College.

Dear Sir: I delayed answering the receipt of your preparation until I had an opportunity of witnessing its effects in my own family, or in the families of my friends.

This I have now done with a high degree of satisfaction, in cases of both adults and children.

I have found it, as its ingredients show, a powerful remedy for colds, and pulmonary diseases.

Brunswick, Me., Feb. 5, 1847. PARKER CLEVELAND, M. D.

From an Overseer in the Hamilton Mills, in this city.

Lowell, August 10, 1849.

Dr. J. C. Ayer: I have been cured of the worst cough I ever had in my life, by your Cherry Pictoral, and never fail, when I have opportunity, of recommending it to others. Yours respectfully, S. D. EMERSON.

☞ Read the following, and see if this medicine is worth a trial. This patient had become very feeble, and the effect of the medicine was unmistakably distinct.

United States Hotel, Saratoga Springs, July 5, 1849.

Dr. J. C. Ayer—Sir: I have been afflicted with a painful affection of the lungs, and all the symptoms of settled consumption, for more than a year. I could find no medicine that would reach my case, until I commenced the use of your Cherry Pictoral, which gave me gradual relief, and I have been steadily gaining my strength till my health is well nigh restored.

While using your medicine, I had the gratification of curing with it my reverend friend, Mr. Truman, of Sumpter District, who had been suspended from his parochial duties by a severe attack of bronchitis.

I have pleasure in certifying these facts to you,

And am, sir, yours respectfully,

J. F. CALHOUN, of South Carolina.
