DUTCH MARRIAGE CEREMONY.

You promise now, you young, man, dar,
Vat stands upon the vloor,
To hab dis woman for your wife,
And lub her ebermore;

To feed her mit sour crout,
Peans, Putter, milk and cheese;
And in all thing so lend your aid,
Dat will promote her ease.

Yes, and you voman standin' dere,
Do bledge your lord dis tay,
Dat you vill dake for your husband,
Dis man, and him obey;

Dat you vill bed and board mit him,
Vash, iron, and ment his close,
Laugh ven he smiles, veep ven he sighs,
And share his joys and voes.

Vell den, I now, vitin dese valls,
Mit choy, and not mit krief,
Bronounce you both to be one mint,
You name, von man, von beef;

I bublish now dese pands,
Dese matrimonial dies,
Pefore mine vife, Jake, Kate and Poll,
And all dese gazing eyes.

And ash de sacred skriptures say,
Vat God unites togedder,
Let no man tare asunder put,
Let no man tare them eever;

And you, britekroom, tare, here, you stop!
I'll not let go your collar,
Pefore you answer me dis ting,
Dat ish—vare ish mine tollar?

A RELIABLE YOUNG MAN.

Reader, were you ever in a strange place, and on making inquiry of some friend, what young gentleman that was who had just passed, received for an answer his name, and additional remark, emphasized—he is a reliable young man? Then you know something of the effect such a remark will produce. It is like "good news from a far country, or cold water to the thirsty soul."—A reliable young man! How pleasing the reflection, that, in the midst of the numerous temptations to which the young are subject, in this age and country, we occasionally find one of whom the remark is intrinsically true. We know they are like angel's visits, but that only makes the remark more thrilling, and places the subject of it, higher in the estimation of all right-thinking men, and we may add women too.

There is a world of meaning in the term reliable, as we use it in this country. It means just anything that is worthy and commendable. If a young man is prone in any of the leading vices of the day, if he makes promises and violates them, or habitually paints his conversation with hishigh wrought and exaggerated expression, he cannot be called reliable. If he is frivilous, inattentive to business, careless, indolent, or too fond of pleasure and pastime, he cannot be called reliable. Much less, if guilty of a violation of those higher laws of community, not to say of God, the infraction of which would make him rank with the immoral and vicions.

How enviable the position of a reliable young man in a community capable of appreciating his worth. Every one confides in his integrity. His word is never doubted—as a business man he is sure to obtain the highest salary. The good bless him whenever they see him. The old men speak of him frequently in terms of the highest praise, and those who have daughters, think a little more than they say—while the mothers are by no means chary of their compliments—daughters smile with unaffected complacence upon him, and could he but hear what they have to say of him after he has gone, it would doubtless make him blush, for men of merit are sure to be modest. In short, the praise of such a young man is on the lips of every one who knows him, except those, it may be, who envy him because he stands so far above them, or another despicable class who despise everything that is good.

Oh, how refreshing in these degenerate times, to see such a young man; When will parents learn wisdom so as to impart proper instruction to their children, that they may learn to appreciate labor more, and participate in such associations as will make them wise and good, instead of those that lead (through flowery paths it may be,) to vice, degradation and infamy.

☞ Young gentleman—I have never had the pleasure of seeing you before, sir, but I met your daughter at Saratoga, and she asked me to call upon her in town. Having just been able to get her address to day, I——

Old gentleman, (indignantly interupting.)—Get her a dress! Who gave you permission, sir, to make presents to my daughter? I'd have you to know that I am able to clothe my children without your assistance. There's the door, sir.

☞ The love of fun is not unknown amongst the serious-looking Chinamen. An English storekeeper, wishing to advertise his articles in the Chinese language, engaged a Chinaman to paint him a sign. It did not answer expectation for the only perceptible effect it had on the Chinese was to excite a grin. By a bribe he obtained a translation into English, and found it to be as follows: "Don't buy anything here—storekeeper a rogue."

☞ There is no use in saying that worth makes the man. A poor relation says that he put on a borrowed suit of broadcloth to accompany his family to the show, and was surprised to find how affable all his acquaintances were. The next day he entered town in his overhalls, and was not known, nor could he obtain credit for a mackeral.

DECAYED TEETH.—An old subscriber, says an exchange, sends us the following receipt to stop the decaying of teeth, assuring us that he has tried it with success:—

Mix chalk, powered fine, with enough salt to give it a decided saline taste. Use once or twice a day as a tooth powder with no water, but applied dry, with a tolerably stiff tooth brush.

☞ There is a great difference between talking and acting. The men who promise the most and talk the loudest, are the men who flinch at the moment of need, and turn the cold shoulder.

☞ Tying a mackeral to your coat tail, and imagining yourself a whale, is one of the first lessons in codfish aristocracy.

AYER'S PILLS

Are curing the Sick to an extent never before known of any Medicine.

INVALIDS, READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELVES

JULES HAUEL, Esq., the well known perfumer, of Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, whose choice products are found at almost every toilet, says:
"I am happy to say of your CATHARTIC PILLS, that I have found them a better family medicine, for common use, than any other within my knowledge. Many of my friends have realized marked benefits from them, and coincide with me in believing that they possess extraordinary virtues for driving out diseases and curing the sick. They are not only effectual, but safe and pleasant to be taken—qualities which must make them valued by the public, when they are known."

The venerable Chancellor WARDLAW writes from Baltimore, 15th April, 1854:
"Dr. J. C. AYER—Sir: I have taken your Pills with great benefit, for the listlessness, languor, loss of appetite, and Bilious headache, which has of late years overtaken me in the spring. A few doses of your Pills cured me. I have used your Cherry Pectoral many years in my family for coughs and colds with unfailing success. You make medicines which cure; and I feel it a pleasure to commend you for the good you have done and are doing."

JOHN F. BEATTY, Esq., Sec. of the Penn. Railroad Co., says:
"Pa. R. R. Office, Philadelphia, Dec. 12, 1853.
"Sir: I take pleasure in adding my testimony to the efficacy of your medicines, having derived very material benefit from the use of both your Pectoral and Cathartic Pills. I am never without them in my family, nor shall I ever consent to be, while my means will procure them."

The widely renowned S. S. STEVENS, M. D., of Wentworth, N. H., writes:
"Having used your CATHARTIC PILLS in my practice, I certify from experience that they are an invaluable purgative. In cases of disordered functions of the liver, causing headache, indigestion, costiveness, and the great variety of diseases that follow, they are a surer remedy than any other. In all cases where a purgative remedy is required, I confidently recommend these Pills to the public, as superior to any other I have ever found. They are sure in their operation, and perfectly safe—qualities which make them an invaluable article for public use. I have for many years known your Cherry Pectoral as the best Cough medicine in the world; and these Pills are in no wise inferior to that admirable preparation for the treatment of diseases."

"Acton, Me., Nov. 25, 1853.
"DR. J. C. AYER—Dear Sir: I have been afflicted from my birth with scrofula in its worst form, and now, after twenty years' trial, and an untold amount of suffering, have been completely cured in a few weeks by your Pills. With what feelings of rejoicing I write can only be imagined when you realize what I have suffered, and how long.
"Never until now have I been free from this loathsome disease in some shape. At times it attacked my eyes, and made me almost blind, besides the unendurable pain; at others it settled in the scalp of my head, and destroyed my hair, and has kept me partly bald all my days; sometimes it came out in my face, and kept it for months a raw sore.
"About nine weeks ago I commenced taking your Cathartic Pills, and now am entirely free from the complaint. My eyes are well, my skin is fair, and my hair has commenced a healthy growth; all of which makes me feel already a new person.
"Hoping this statement may be the means of conveying information that shall do good to others, I am, with every sentiment of gratitude, Yours, &c.
MARIA RICKER."
"I have known the above named Maria Ricker from her childhood, and her statement is strictly true.
ANDREW J. MESERVE,
Overseer of the Portsmouth Manufacturing Co."

CAPT. JOEL PRATT, of the ship Marion, writes from Boston, 29th April, 1854:
"Your Pills have cured me from a bilious attack which arose from derangement of the Liver, which had become very serious. I had failed of any relief by my Physician, and from every remedy I could try; but a few doses of your Pills have completely restored me to health. I have given them to my children for worms, with the best effects. They were promptly cured. I recommended them to a friend for costiveness, which had troubled him for months; he told me in a few days they had cured him. You make the best medicine in the world; and I am free to say so."

Read this from the distinguished Solicitor of the Supreme Court, whose brilliant abilities have made him well known, not only in this but the neighboring States.
"New Orleans, 5th April, 1854.
"Sir: I have great satisfaction in assuring you that myself and family have been very much benefited by your medicines. My wife was cured, two years since, of a severe and dangerous cough, by your CHERRY PECTORAL, and since then has enjoyed perfect health. My children have several times been cured from attacks of the Influenza and Croup by it. It is an invaluable remedy for these complaints. Your CATHARTIC PILLS have entirely cured me from a dyspepsia and costiveness, which has grown upon me for some years,—indeed, this cure is much more important, from the fact that I had failed to get relief from the best Physicians which this section of the country affords, and from any of the numerous remedies I had taken.
"You seem to us, Doctor, like a providential blessing to our family, and you may well suppose we are not unmindful of it. Yours respectfully, LEAVITT THAXTER."

"DR. J. C. AYER—Honored Sir: I have made a thorough trial of the CATHARTIC PILLS, left me by your agent, and have been cured by them of the dreadful Rheumatism under which he found me suffering. The first dose relieved me, and a few subsequent doses have entirely removed the disease. I feel in better health now than for some years before, which I attribute entirely to the effects of some CATHARTIC PILLS. Yours with great respect, LUCIUS B. METCALF."

The above are all from persons who are publicly known where they reside, and who would not make these statements without a thorough conviction that they were true.

See Here Young Man!
I perceive that your teeth which were originally very uniform and beautiful, are becoming broken and discolored, and in a very short time, should you continue to neglect them, you will be despoiled of one of the chief ornaments, your noble and attractive face. I hope you will call on me without delay at my office in the Brick Block over Wilson's store, where it will give me pleasure to preserve them for a very small consideration, just what your means will allow and no more.

MOST RESPECTFULLY YOUNG MISS!
You are proud of your beauty and graces so is your Ma, and so be I.
Your smile is a sunbeam on the garden bower
Your tear a raindrop on the Summer shower,
But 'twont be so long fair one if you continue to stay away from the Dentist for
Even now it gives me pain to view
Those crumbling arches "veiled in ebon hue,"
Then come along without delay to my office in the Brick Block over Wilson's store, and if
as poor as you are beautiful, no matter,
Come along, come along plead "not able" no more
For just what you can pay your charms I'll restore.
C. D. VIRGIL, Resident Dentist.

To Consumptives.
THOSE of you who are in the first or middle stages of this almost uncurable disease are informed that there is a remedy which has proven successful. This remedy I will send to any applicant upon the receipt of $5.
Take Particular Notice
That this remedy, though it will greatly alleviate the sufferings of those in the last stages it will NOT cure them; but for those in the first and middle stages, we will warrant a cure; and any one who is not satisfied can have their money refunded at once. We do not wish to humbug any one; and repeat that your money will be refunded upon application, after giving the remedy a fair trial.

SOMETHING NEW!
THE undersigned, Merchant at Dimock Four Corners, has lately discovered that for ready pay he can sell more Goods, and make more money at one-half the usual profits put upon Country Goods. Consequently I can sell Goods from five to ten per cent. lower than any other establishment in this section. But do not take my word for it. Call and see for yourselves. Bring a little Cash or some kind of Country produce, and buy your Goods at a price unparalleled in the history of Mercantile trade. My stock is large and well selected, and I am receiving every week. My Terms of Sale are READY PAY. It will certainly be for your interest to call and see me before purchasing elsewhere.
NEW ADDITIONS
Flour and Salt kept constantly on hand.
