Patriotic.—The following street conversation between a Democrat and a Republican was overheard by a reporter in a neighboring town:

Dem.—Good morning, neighbor R—. Ready for the draft?

Rep.—Ready.—If my distracted country needs me—if the tottering edifice of our glorious Union needs to be cemented with my heart's blood—if it is necessary for her preservation that she strides onward to victory over my dead body—then, sir, the victim is ready! With a heart prepared for any fate, and with a firm trust in Divine Providence, I shall, with a lively feeling of doing my duty, and nothing but my duty, march boldly on—to the Collector's office, and pay my three hundred dollars.

The Draft.—Persons who are drafted and want the necessary papers prepared to make the usual application for exemption, can have it promptly and carefully attended, at a small expense, by calling at the law office of R. B. & G. P. Little, in Montrose. Those wishing legal advice on the subject, would do well to call and consult in reference to their case.
