"The Age."

A DEMOCRATIC DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL IN PHILADELPHIA.

The attention of the Democratic and Conservative citizens of the country is called to the Daily and Weekly issues of this widely circulated journal. The dissemination of sound political doctrines should command the earnest attention of every true friend of the Union and the Constitution. The events of the past political year are full of significance. The uprising of The People in opposition to the destructive policy of Radicalism, clearly shows that the masses are determined to restore again to power the great Democratic party, every page of whose history is filled with the glory and prosperity of our common country. No more effectual method for presenting the Truth can be devised, than in circulating Democratic journals. It is the intention of The Proprietors of The Age to make it, in every way, worthy of the support and confidence that have heretofore been extended to it. Improvements are contemplated in every department, and no pains or expense will be spared to keep it in the front rank of American journalism.

The Daily Age contains the latest intelligence from all parts of the world, with articles on Government, Politics, Trade, Finance, and all the current questions of the day; Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotations, Marine and Commercial Intelligence, Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, Legal Reports, Book Notices, Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music, Agricultural Matters, and discussions of whatever subjects are of general interest and importance. Besides Special Telegrams, it has all the dispatches of the Associated Press from every part of the United States, and also the Associated Press dispatches received by the Atlantic Cable; and the news from all parts of Europe, brought by the steamers, is instantly telegraphed from whatever point the steamers first touch.

The Weekly Age will be a complete compendium of the news of the week, and besides the leading editorials from the Daily, will contain a large amount of interesting matter prepared expressly for the weekly issue. It will be in all respects a first class family journal, particularly adapted to the Politician, the Farmer, the Merchant, the Mechanic, the Family Circle, and the General Reader, having, in fact, every characteristic of a live newspaper. At an early day will be begun an intensely interesting serial, by one of the most popular and fascinating authors, and it is also the intention to publish, from week to week, in the course of the year, three or four of the best and latest Novels.

TERMS OF THE DAILY.—One copy, one year, $9.00; six months, $4.50; three months, $2.50; for any less period, at the rate of one dollar per month. Payment required invariably in advance. Postage on the Daily, thirty cents per quarter, or one dollar and twenty cents per annum, to be prepaid at the office of delivery.

TERMS OF THE WEEKLY.—One copy, one year, $2; five copies, one year, $9; ten copies, one year, $17.50; twenty copies, one year, $33.

The Publishers, desirous of extending the influence of their weekly issue, have determined to make such reduction in its price as will place it within the reach of every man in the country. Therefore, to meet the means of all classes, from and after January 1, 1868, the Weekly Age will be furnished to clubs at the following extraordinary rates:

One Hundred copies, one address, $100.00
And one copy extra to the getter up of the club—additional copies at the same price.
Seventy-five copies, one year, one address, $84.00
And one copy extra to the getter up of the club—additional copies at the sam price.
Fifty copies, one year, one address, $62.50
And one copy extra of the getter up of the club—additional copies at the same price.
Forty copies, one year, one address, $52.00
And one copy extra to the getter up of the club—additional copies at the same price.
Thirty copies, one year, one address, $42.00
And one copy extra to the getter up of the club—additional copies at the same price.
Twenty copies, one year, one address, $30.00
And one copy extra to the getter up of the club—additional copies at the same price.
Ten copies, one year, one address, $16.00
And one copy extra to the getter up of the club—additional copies at the same price.
Five copies, one year one address, $8.50

These prices, which are cash invariably in advance, apply only to yearly subscribers, and the papers must, in every case without exception, be sent to one address.

☞ The above terms will be rigidly adhered to. Drafts on Philadelphia, or Post office Orders, payable to the order of the Publishers, being safer, are preferable to any other mode of remittance. All who send money by Express, must pre-pay Express charges. Specimen copies of the Daily and Weekly sent gratis, on application at this office. Advertisements inserted at moderate rates.
Address WELSH & ROBB,
420 Chestnut Street Philadelphia.

Notice.

THE firm of Hawley & Follet will be dissolved on the first day of March next by limitation. The business will be continued by the subscriber, strictly for READY PAY, on and after that date.
The subscriber feeling grateful for the liberal patronage in the past, would respectfully solicit a continuance of the same, knowing that he can make it for the interest of all to do so, by selling goods cheaper than it is possible to do under a credit system.

Piano Fortes.

Our Last new addition to our different styles is attracting the admiration of both critics and populace. We mention specially, some of the claims of this new Piano. Believing the exterior should be as beautiful to the eye as melody is to the ear, we have paid great attention to getting them up in a style that is conceded by all who have seen them to be the handsomest Piano Forte made. They are an entirely new style, with four full round corners, heavily carved legs and lyre, base richly moulded, and contains our latest improved new scale and action. The tone is melodious, and its adaptability to passages of every shade of expression, from the softest murmurs, the Crescendo, and the F F, gives the performer every advantage of the Concert grand.—Price $500. 1y44

Young Men Prepare for Business.

There is a time coming when you will be either a drone or a live man in society—a time when business men will be wanted, and those who have been practically educated will surely be preferred. Young men, do not wait because your early education has been neglected, and think that it is too late now to make an attempt, but resolve to improve the greatest opportunity ever offered to young men in this section of country for obtaining a

PRACTICAL BUSINESS EDUCATION.

I have established this College especially for educating young men for business; giving them the most thorough course of practical instruction, combining with the assistance of Officers, Banks, etc., of any College in Northern Pennsylvania.

Any student possessing a common school education is prepared to commence the business studies, and if deficient in these branches will be individually instructed free of charge.
For terms and information send for College Paper giving full particulars.
