monarchs of the rod, say we learned that or this MONTH ... to be, for instance, punctual; to be prompt; to come when called, etc. Parents should remember that when the discipline of a school is good, it cannot be too strict or exacting; nothing else than to counteract the pernicious effect of grievous laxity and carelessness at home. Hence, we say be prompt in sending your children to school; for there be no delay whatever, no whining excuses, no silly indulgences. Show the teacher you are in earnest, that you feel that your boys and girls must lose no time; that you depend on him to make them punctual so as to insure them success in whatever business they undertake.—Exchange.

Attention, Housekeepers.

We would confidently recommend to all housekeepers who want the simplest and most convenient clothes-bars yet offered to the public, to purchase "J. M. Valley's Patent Reversable Bars." We have examined them closely, and do not hesitate to pronounce them far ahead of anything we have seen. An agent will call upon the different families in this county, and give them a rare opportunity of purchasing this indispensible article, and we venture the prediction, that no husband will rest in perfect peace till he purchases one.

CAPTAIN JAMES H. GALLAGHER

Steamboat Captain, of Pittsburgh, Pa., writes: "The inventor of MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS is a benefactor to the human race. I was a victim to the worst form of Dyspepsia; my health failed to such an extent that my Physician pronounced me incurable. I had used all sorts of remedies and even took a voyage to California; but nothing relieved me. When MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS was recommended I refused to use it; but my friends insisting, I at last yielded. I am thankful that I did so, for it cured me, and I am now as well, hale and strong as I was fifteen years ago."

The Great Pictorial Annual.

Hostetter's United States Almanac for 1872, for distribution, GRATIS, throughout the United States, and all civilized countries of the Western Hemisphere, will be published about the first of January, in the English, German, French, Norwegian, Welsh, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian and Spanish languages, and all who wish to understand the laws of health, should read and ponder the valuable suggestions it contains. In addition to an admirable medical treatise on the causes, prevention and cure of a great variety of diseases, it embraces a large amount of information interesting to the merchant, and mechanic, the miner, the farmer, the planter, and professional man, and the calculations have been made for such meridians and latitudes as are most suitable for a correct and comprehensive NATIONAL CALENDAR.

The nature, uses, and extraordinary sanitary effects of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the staple tonic and alterative of more than half the Christian world, are fully set forth in its pages, which are also interspersed with pictorial illustrations, valuable recipes for the household and farm, humorous anecdotes, and other instructive and amusing reading matter, original and selected. Among the Annuals to appear with the opening of the year, this will be one of the most useful and may be had for the asking. The proprietors, Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa., on receipt of a two cent stamp, will forward a copy by mail to any person who cannot procure one in his neighborhood. The Bitters are sold in every city, town and village, and are extensively used throughout the entire civilized world.
