UNION REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET

FOR GOVERNOR,

MAJ. GEN. JOHN W. GEARY,

OF CUMBERLAND COUNTY.

A CARD.

MEXICO, March 19, 1866.

This will certify that my name has been placed on the handbills of Mr. W. M. Allison & Co. without authority.

J. J APPLEBAUGH.

A CARD.

CAPT. H. H. WILSON—Dear Sir:—I see my name published in a prospectus of a new paper to be called the Juniata Republican and to be published by Wm. M. Allison & Co. I simply desire to say to you and to the public that I did not authorize Mr. Allison or any one else to use my name in connection with said prospectus, and that I have no interest pecuniary or otherwise in the publication of the proposed paper, and do not desire my name used in connection with it, as I believe the project is calculated to distract the party. Yours &c.,

JOSEPH POMEROY.

A CARD.

We the undersigned whose names are signed to the Prospectus of a new paper to be published in Mifflintown by W. M. Allison & Co., and to be called the Juniata Republican, do hereby declare that we never authorized Mr. Allison or any one else to sign our names to said prospectus and we repudiate all connection with this effort to start another paper, believing it will have a tendency to distract the party, and that it has been gotten up to serve personal ends and gratify personal animosities at the cost of the harmony and success of the party in the county.—We discountenance the whole scheme, and will use our influence against it, and urge every member of the party to denounce it. No one but an enemy of the party and Locofocos will give encouragement to such a scheme. When there is so important an election before us we should cultivate harmony in our own ranks and keep down the spirit of faction. We demand of Messrs. W. M. Allison & Co. the withdrawal of our names from their Prospectus.

A TRICK.

We hear complaints made by some people that newspapers are sent to their address for which they never subscribed, but that they innocently took them from the Post Office two or three times and shortly were notified that they were liable for a year's subscription. This is the law, and we warn every person against it. The trick has often been played by unprincipled publishers. No one should take a newspaper from the Post Office unless he has subscribed for it, as he thereby becomes liable for a year's subscription at full rates.

☞ The "Civil Rights Bill" has passed both houses of Congress, and if signed by the President will become a law.

☞ The Harrisburg Telegraph says it is again proposed to locate the Supreme Court of the State permanently at Harrisburg.

THE JUNIATA REPUBLICAN.

A Prospectus has been issued by W. M. Allison & Co., announcing that a new paper will be published at this place to commence on the 4th of April. It promises to advocate the doctrines of the Republican party. The names of several gentlemen are announced on the Prospectus as authorized agents, thus hoping to secure the favor of the party by the association of such persons with the enterprize. In another column will be found cards from some of the most influential of these gentlemen, disclaiming any connection or sympathy with this movement, and expressing a very decided and unfavorable opinion of it. Now we presume we are not an impartial judge of the necessity of another party newspaper in this county. Since 1846 the SENTINEL, under different editors, has battled for the true principles of government against the common foe, and we assert that while we do not claim as much ability as some of our predecessors, we bring to the discharge of our duty and to the service of the cause as much zeal and devotion to the party as any of them. We are endeavoring to make the SENTINEL useful to the whole party and a welcome weekly visitor to the firesides of our patrons. It is not in the interest of any faction, but will be the impartial organ of the whole party. The very men who are now concerned in getting up the new paper demanded of us that the SENTINEL should pass into their hands, and because we refused, charge that we are publishing the SENTINEL in the interest of a faction, and are now about to publish one for their faction. We challenge any one to show from the columns of the SENTINEL that we favor any set of men. We have the entire control of the SENTINEL, and will continue to devote it to the interest of the whole party, no matter if a dozen new papers are started by that many different factions. It is for the party to say what good is to follow by the publication of two papers in this county. They are to judge whether it will distract the party or strengthen it. We are already in a large minority, and will this movement increase or lessen it? The delight of the Locofocos at the project certainly bodes no good to the party in this county. They are encouraging it in every way, no doubt will subscribe for it, to sustain it, and if reports are true, have contributed funds towards its establishment. We trust the Republican will keep its promises, and not be a secret ally of the Locofocos, by making use of its columns for personal or factious ends. Time will alone decide this and we can afford to await its decision.

GEARY RATIFICATION MEETING.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather, a large gathering of the citizens favorable to the Union nominee, Maj. Gen. J. W. Geary, assembled in the School House in the borough of Perrysville, on Saturday evening. The meeting was called to order by Hon. John Balsbach, who moved that Col. John K. Robison act as President; the motion was agreed to, and the Colonel was conducted to the chair, when the following gentlemen were announced as Vice Presidents:

Capt. John M. Thompson, J. W. Steveson, Lieut. Samuel Laird, Samuel Buck, George Roush, Capt. A. H. Martin, Dr. G. M. Graham, J. L. Stewart.

On motion the following gentlemen acted as Secretaries:

Capt. James Thompson, James Wharton, Lieut. J. F. Williams, Lieut. M. L. Littlefield, E. W. H. Kreider.

A motion was made calling for David Wilson, Esq., to address the meeting. Mr. Wilson responded in an able vindication of the principles of the Great Union Party and a hearty endorsement of the Union nominee, Maj Gen. J. W. Geary. Mr. Wilson was followed by Dr. S. O. Kæmpfer and Col. John J Patterson in their usual able and eloquent style.

The Committee on Resolutions reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we cheerfully and heartily endorse the action of the Union State Convention in their nomination for Governor.

Resolved, That we pledge our earnest and united efforts to secure the election of Maj. Gen. John W. Geary, the Union nominee, whose record is written in every battle fought in defence of the Constitution and the Laws.

Resolved, That we endorse the action of the Union majority in Congress in their efforts to restore the country to peace and harmony.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

☞ A Democratic Committee from Pennsylvania, a few evenings ago, called upon the President to endeavor to draw from him some expression of sympathy with their nomination of Mr. Clymer for Governor. They remained for some time, and finally left without having succeeded in their desires, but there are now rumors of their having declared that Clymer must be withdrawn.

A Telegram from Governor Johnson of Georgia.

Among the telegrams furnished to the Senate are the following:—

TELEGRAM.

Received 2.50 P. M., Nov. 24th.

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., Nov. 21, 1865.—Andrew Johnson, President of the United States:—No members of Congress elected can take the oath. Shall I issue certificates of election? The Legislature will probably be to some extent impracticable and refractory. I am inclined to think a suspension of pardons might have a salutary effect. I shall be a candidate for the Senate, and of course will be defeated.

J. J. JOHNSON,
Provisional Governor.

President Johnson's Telegram.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 26, 1865.—James Johnson, Provisional Governor, Milledgeville, Ga.:—You will continue to act as Provisional Governor of Georgia until relieved and your successor recognized by the Government. At present as Provisional Governor I would issue no certificates of election to members of Congress elect.

If I understand your despatch, none of the members elect to Congress from Georgia can take the oath of office as it now stands. Please advise me of their real status as to loyalty and qualification in regard to disability under the law and the Constitution. I regret to hear that you have apprehensions as to the action of your Legislature, and hope that all will come out right. You will accept the approbation of the Government for the loyal and efficient manner in which you have discharged your duty as Provisional Governor.

ANDREW JOHNSON,
President of the United States.

A TRUE DEMOCRAT.

The opponents of General Geary are trying to manufacture some capital out of a letter written by that gentleman to a friend in Philadelphia in August last, declining the offer of a democratic nomination for Governor, on account of a sense of unfitness for the office and inability to meet the expense in which the General says:

"I have been a life-long democrat, and I am still a democrat in the truest and most ample construction of the word and meaning of the term, without any prefix or affix whatever, maintaining all the immutable truths which underlie the superstructure of our form of Government, in all their length and breadth, height and depth—not as mere abstractions, but as active and positive vitalities, invigorated by the greatest intensity of patriotism."

As to the General's modesty in declaring his unfitness, we take it that he is more to be commended for thus depreciating his own merits than he would have been if he had indulged in self praise. Many a man has held himself unfit for public place who has possessed the most abundant qualification for it; and the people of Pennsylvania will not condemn him for obeying the Apostolic injunction not to think too highly of himself.

As to the extract above quoted there is nothing in it with which a Republican can find fault. He says he is still a Democrat in the truest and most ample construction of the word and meaning of the term, and there is not a Republican in the country that cannot say the same thing. The true Democrats, in fact—the men who believe in the government of the people, which is Democracy pure and simple—are to be found only in the ranks of the Republican party. The men who call themselves Democrats have nothing of real, true, genuine Democracy about them but the name.—They adhere to the aristocracy of slavery, to class legislation, to the oppression of the laborer, and to the rule of the oligarch To call such men "Democrats" is to abuse a sacred name and pervert it to the opposite of its true meaning. The true Democrats are they who believe in carrying the theory of Democracy into practice, and General Geary having left the party that is false to its professions and joined the only party that is in favor of carrying on the government upon genuine Democratic principles may well say that he is "still a Democrat in the truest and most ample construction of the word and meaning of the term."

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—The Republicans of New Hampshire, who went into the election on Tuesday on a purely Radical platform, have swept the State, electing their State ticket by 5,000 majority, and carrying both branches of the Legislature by overwhelming majorities. This is the first gun of the campaign. The vote is larger than last year, but the majority is not reduced; and it is clear that the Democrats of that region have gained nothing by putting themselves in the field as the peculiar and only friends of President Johnson.
