CASUALTY LIST HAS BIG TOTAL

General Pershing's Report for the Day Shows Aggregate of 2815

HEAVY MORTALITY ROLL

533 Killed in Action, 62 Died of Wounds, 239 of Disease, 17 of Other Causes

Washington, Dec. 11.

General Pershing's army casualty roll for the day is a heavy one, comprising 2815 names. Of these, the deaths in action number 533, while sixty-two soldiers succumbed to wounds, 239 to disease and seventeen to other causes. A feature of the report is the large number of Pennsylvanians in the hero list. The marines contributed 108 additional names to the grand total.

Summarized to date the losses are:

	Reported Dec. 12	Total
