Any physician can send patients to the Hospital, and continue to attend them there, and any patient can engage any physician he chooses. In these cases the Institution will not be responsible for the physician's fees; each person will settle with such physicians. Leeching is an extra charge.

As many free patients will be received as the means of the Institution will permit. Persons with contagious diseases will not be received; but accommodations can be prepared sufficiently ample to prevent any danger that the other inmates would incur.

All the physicians will attend twice a week to visit the Hospital, and will depute one of their number to attend the sick in the meantime.

Advice will be given gratuitously to out-door patients on Thursdays and Fridays at 10, A. M.

Pecuniary arrangements will be attended to by a committee of the Brotherhood of St. Josephs, which for the present consists of James Blakely, Esq., James May, John S. Cosgrave, John Coyle and Arthur Tiernan. jan5-tf
