NESSUNA DECISIONE RIGUARDO L'ITALIA

La Delegazione Italiana Irremovibile Nelle Aspirazioni Riflettenti la Dalmazia e l'Annessione di Fiume

Published and Distributed Under
PERMIT No. 341
Authorized by the act of October 6, 1917, on file at the Postoffice of Philadelphia, Pa.
By order of the President,
A. S. BURLESON,
Postmaster General.

Parigi, 22 aprile.—La crisi che si verifica alla conferenza della pace per il mancato accordo sulle aspirazioni dell'Italia ha oscurato per il momento gli incidenti riflettenti la Delegazione tedesca che dovrà trovarsi a Versailles.

Le questioni riflettenti le richieste italiane non raggiunsero una conclusione nella seduta del Concilio dei Quattro, del pomeriggio di ieri. Il Concilio si trovò nella impossibilità di decidere e proseguì nell'esame di altri affari. Si sperava che nella seduta del pomeriggio alla "Casa Bianca" di Parigi fosse stato possibile raggiungere un accordo sul conflitto di aspirazioni italiane e jugo-slave riguardo la costa dell'Adriatico e Fiume, ma tanto l'On. Orlando quanto Sonnino non intervennero alla riunione. Siccome fu riferito che i delegati italiani desiderassero continuare i negoziati riguardo le loro aspirazioni, il Concilio non prese alcuna azione sul soggetto.

Nessun comunicato è stato emesso riguardo la questione dell'Adriatico e si dice che non verrà emesso. Al quartier generale italiano è stato dichiarato che l'On. Orlando non partirà per Roma senza che sia presa una definitiva decisione riguardo le aspirazioni dell'Italia.

Sembra invertato che il Presidente Wilson è irrevocabilmente determinato contro il riconoscimento del trattato segreto di Londra, sul quale l'Italia basa le sue aspirazioni sulla costa orientale dell'Adriatico. Nello stesso tempo Lloyd George e Clemenceau si sforzano per riconciliare le divergenze e far sì che l'On. Orlando presenti al Concilio le aspirazioni dell'Italia.

Roma, 21 aprile (ritardato).—Il posponimento dell'apertura della Camera dei Deputati, ieri annunziato, è generalmente riguardato come la massima concessione dell'Italia in riguardo alle sue aspirazioni territoriali. Si nota che non che si vede avere altre due settimane di tempo per considerare il programma italiano. Nei circoli ufficiali si dichiara apertamente che gli Alleati bisogna che accettino le aspirazioni italiane entro detto periodo di tempo, o l'Italia farà quei passi necessari perchè i suoi diritti siano rispettati.

(Un rapporto non ufficiale, fatto circolare, dice che l'Italia si prepara per intraprendere l'occupazione militare dei territori disputati.)

Il corrispondente del "Giornale d'Italia" da Parigi, dice che il Ministro per gli Affari Esteri, On. Sonnino, c'è deciso a far rispettare il patto di Londra, il quale comprende il minimo delle richieste italiane. Il corrispondente aggiunge che l'On. Sonnino non rinuncerà ad un palmo di territorio e bisogna che il Presidente Wilson si convinca che le aspirazioni italiane sull'Adriatico nonostante una sola soluzione quella esatta in favore dell'Italia.

In un Consiglio tenutosi oggi tra i ministri presenti in Roma, parecchi di essi vollero spiegazioni riguardo la situazione alla conferenza di Parigi. Molti si mostrarono fiduciosi di una favorevole soluzione.

La città attende la decisione sulle aspirazioni italiane con intensa nervosità. Nella celebrazione per il natale di Roma, gli oratori numerosi con Turati stesero sull'annessione di Fiume e delle altre città dell'Adriatico.

Deputati e Senatori sono costantemente in comunicazione con il Ministro dell'Interno, domandando notizie. Il tono dei dispacci da Parigi rimane sempre pessimistico. Il corrispondente del Corriere della Sera di Milano dichiara che per il fallimento di armonizzare le vedute del Presidente Wilson con le aspirazioni italiane la situazione è divenuta grave. Dispacci da Trieste annunziano che la stampa croata conduce una campagna diffamatoria nei riguardi dell'Italia e chiama Wilson il più sincero amico del jugo slavi.

La stampa di Milano richiama l'attenzione della polizia sulla fermentazione di parecchi casi. Uno di questi, precedentemente senza un soldo, ha depositato forti somme di danaro in una locale banca. Si dice che il consolato russo abbia fornito detti fondi.

HENRY FORD KNOWS; WON'T TELL DETROIT

Sends Tart Reply to Detroit Trolley Board About Gas Car

Detroit, April 22.—Henry Ford continues to stir up affairs locally. Emulating President Wilson when the latter asked the German war lords for whom they spoke when they prated of peace, he has addressed a communication to the street railway commission of the city that contains hot backfire.

It will be recalled Mr. Ford helped defeat Mayor Couzens's street railway purchase plan by announcing, through his chief engineer, that Detroit should wait for Mr. Ford's experiments with a gasoline-propelled street car, as such a device will revolutionize street railway transportation. The commission, after the election, invited Mr. Ford to come in and tell the municipality what he has up his sleeve.

This is the reply in part the invitation drew from Mr. Ford:

"Repudiation by the voters of the street car plans as submitted, which evidently represent the best arrangement you felt capable of formulating, makes it seem questionable in my mind whether or not you can claim to represent the people of Detroit. When you are able to furnish me with reasonable assurance of this fact, I will be glad to cooperate with you in working out the development of a new type of gas or electric car for street railway purposes."

The township of Dearborn has been asked by Mr. Ford for a franchise for a street railway.

YANKS HAVE DAILY PAPER IN GERMANY

Teutonic Shopkeepers at Coblenz Vainly Try to Advertise in Army Organ

Coblenz, April 22.—(By A. P.)—The Amaroc News, a daily and Sunday newspaper, appeared yesterday as the American Third Army's official journal. It is being published in a German printing plant in Coblenz.

The newspaper does not carry German advertisements, although the German shopkeepers for days have endeavored to insert advertisements of the souvenirs and wares they would sell to soldiers. The publication is to be of four pages in its daily issue and eight pages on Sunday. The name Amaroc is made up of the first two letters of the words "American army of occupation."

The managing editor of the Amaroc News is Lieutenant William Corcoran, of Washington, D. C., and the business manager Theodore Damm, of Cumberland, Md. The newspaper goes to press at noon, the management planning to reach all of the bridgeheads and Luxembourg by the evening mess time. The reporters, artists, officers and business staff are Americans. Germans are attending to the mechanical details of getting out the paper.

STEEL ROW MAY OPEN FOOD ISSUE

Decision to Renew Metal Discussion May Indicate General Price Review

REDFIELD RUMOR AFLOAT

Washington, April 22.—Director General Hines, of the railroads, it was said yesterday, has decided to follow President Wilson's suggestion and reopen the steel-price discussion with the industrial board of the Department of Commerce. As a result of this decision Washington was rife with rumors that the entire price stabilization policy of the industrial board, held in abeyance because of the steel row, is shortly to be revived again even to the point of including the consideration of food commodity prices.

The announcement that Mr. Hines has indicated a willingness to "discuss" the steel prices once more was made by George N. Peek, chairman of the industrial board. Last Friday Mr. Peek, on the strength of a cablegram received from the President by Secretary of Commerce Redfield, wrote Mr. Hines requesting a renewal of negotiations. Yesterday Mr. Peek said he had been notified that Mr. Hines, who is on a tour of the railroad systems of the west had designated Robert S. Lovett, of the Union Pacific, and Henry Walters, of the Atlantic Coast Line, as members of the railroad administration's advisory committee on purchases, to confer with Mr. Peek on the steel prices. Mr. Lovett was ill in New York yesterday, so the scheduled conference was postponed.

Hear Redfield May Resign

The continued mystery over the exact text of the President's message to Secretary Redfield, which the secretary has declined to make public, and the presence in Washington late last week of Julius Barnes, president of the United States Grain Corporation, is regarded as responsible for the rumors that the price stabilization policy is to be taken up again and may be extended to food. It also was responsible yesterday for the rumor, that Secretary Redfield expected to resign if the price policy was not pursued, but this report lacked any real confirmation. In fact, the President's recent message is taken to mean, if anything, a strengthening of Secretary Redfield's hand.

In reopening the steel price discussion, Mr. Peek said yesterday, the steel men and the board had gone as low as was deemed possible if wages were to remain at their present level. And it was the original intention of the board to induce industry to make price reduction without disturbing wage levels, at least until the cost of living in general was definitely reduced.

Confer With Food Officials

Chairman Peek intimated that once the cost of living was clearly reduced, the matter of lowering wages might be given consideration, and upon some such grounds, commodity prices, such as steel, might be lowered again without great injury to the industry as a whole.

Since food forms one of the most important items in the cost of living, Mr. Peek's statement yesterday was taken as an admission that the board eventually would be called upon to consider food prices. It is also known that board members have conferred with food administration officials, officials of the grain corporation, and even with the packers, with a view to considering food prices.
