Clothing Stores.

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!—Threatened invasion of Western Penna. by Col Swift, with 10,000 men, notwithstanding which, J. M. White will continue to sell clothing cheaper than any house heretofore been offered in the Western country, being the largest establishment in the city, fronting on Liberty and Sixth sts. He is now prepared to show to his numerous patrons the greatest variety of cloths, cassimeres, vestings, and clothing of all descriptions, suitable for the approaching season, that has ever been offered in this market, to which all can have the Right of Way—Observe the corner, No. 167, Liberty and Sixth sts.

The Three Big Doors on The Western Hotel!!

150,000 WELL SELECTED GARMENTS now made and ready to be offered on the most liberal terms to my old customers and the public in general. The Proprietor of this far-famed and extensive establishment has now, after returning from the Eastern cities, at much trouble and expense, just completed his fall and winter arrangements to supply his thousands of customers with one of the most desirable stocks of Clothing that has ever been offered in this or any other market west of the mountains. For neatness in style and workmanship, combined with the very low prices which they will be sold for, must certainly render the old unrivalled Three Big Doors one of the greatest attractions of the western country. It is gratifying to me to be able to announce to my numerous friends at home and abroad, that notwithstanding the extraordinary efforts which I have made to meet the many calls in my line, it is with difficulty I can keep time with the constant rush that is made on this establishment. It is a well established fact, that my sales are eight or ten times larger than any other house in the trade, and this being the case on the amount sold, I can afford to sell at much less profit than others could possibly think of doing if they wished to cover some great expense. I intend to make a clean sweep of all my present stock before the beginning of next year; coming to this conclusion, I will make it the interest of every man, who wants a cheap winter suit, to call and purchase at the Three Big Doors.

Purchasers will find it much to their advantage to call soon, at 40 Liberty street. F. DELANY.

N. B. A complete assortment of goods suitable for Customer work, always on hand, such as English, French and American cloths, and cassimeres; also a choice assortment of seasonable vestings—all of which will be made to order in the latest styles, and on the most accommodating terms. [oct18-d&w

THE Spring and Summer stock that is now ready to be offered at the old original

THREE BIG DOORS.

Is one of the largest and choicest in selection that has ever been exhibited by any one concern in this or any other city in the Union. I will not undertake to describe to the reader the different assortments of articles which I have to offer them; but will simply tell them that if they only favor me with a call, I will lay before them 150,000 different garments to make a choice out of, consisting in part of Coats, from the richest in quality down to the lowest in price; Pantaloons and Vests, to the astonishment of the beholder, with both mouth and eyes open, wondering in the most extravagant decree of surprise, how such a vast collection of READY MADE CLOTHING could possibly be collected together under the control of one individual. But such things will be, as long as perseverance and industry is the main-spring of trade—Without any intention of boasting, on my part, I will say at the same time, it is of such metal I am principally composed, for nothing in the shape or form of difficulties, no matter what their magnitude may be, can deter me from accomplishing my object, in providing for the farmer, the mechanic, and the day laborer. My whole attention is taken up with the greatest care for their welfare, in getting up fashionable, and at the same time substantial garments, to meet their demands; and as for others, who fancy themselves moving in a different sphere, and requiring an article of the ne plus ultra kind, they have only to give me an outline of their wants, and they are suited to a word.

Now, let me say a word or two to my country merchants in the trade:—If you wish to save from at least 25 to 30 per cent, in your wholesale purchases, call in at the "Three Big Doors," and if I don't meet your most sanguine hopes, in the way of getting cheap bargains, and fresh seasonable goods, I will not in future attempt to offer any inducements of a similar kind to a generous people of so noble a nature and close discernment.

CAN'T BE BEAT!—*J. M. UNRIVALLING IMPUDENCE.—From a pensioned Earl of M'Calmont & Bond, of Philadelphia, the public would be led to believe that we have been claiming a privilege we had no right to. That they have abandoned, some time since, the exclusive agency in Pekin, and that we have right to claim "exclusive privileges with their teas." I never pretended to sell the teas of this spurious concern. I have been selling the teas of the New York Tea Company for the last two years, as the public are aware, and have been to New York four times in that time, and never heard of this new concern until lately but as wool dealers.

The tea business of M'Callmont & Bond is about eight months old, and their assumption of the Pekin Tea Company's name is because a name is open for any man or firm to assume; but the fact intended to imply thereby, that they have any connection with the so called and well known Pekin Tea Company of New York, is entirely false, they having been denied even an agency in Philadelphia, for the New York Company, that Company having refused even this far to confide in them.

Know not what kind of wool they keep, nor what kind of teas; I am only certain that they keep or obtain none of the Pekin Tea Company's of New York.

Any person reading this card will see the gross deception they wish to practice on the public, and to the injury of my business. M'Calmont & Bond are wool dealers in Philadelphia, and have sent an agent out here to pull wool over the eyes of some of our good citizens. Look out for the black sheep. [nov10] ALEX. JAYNES.

Encouraged by increased business, the Proprietors have added to and extended their arrangements during the winter, and are now prepared to forward freight with regularity and dispatch, unsurpassed by any other Line. All consignments to Taaffe and O'Connor will be received and forwarded, Steamboat charges paid, and Bills of Lading transmitted free of any charge for Commission, advancing or storage. Great English Remedy!

FOR Coughs, Colds, Asthma, and Consumption!—The great and only Remedy for the above diseases is the Hungarian Balsam of Life, discovered by the celebrated Dr. Buchan, of London, England; and introduced into the United States under the immediate superintendence of the inventor.

The extraordinary success of this medicine, in the cure of Pulmonary diseases, recommends the Balsam to a public suffering for treatment the worst possible cases that can be found in the country—no case too desperate to find relief in some from any of the common remedies of the day, and have been given up by the most distinguished physicians, as incurable and consumed. The Hungarian Balsam has cured, and will cure, the most desperate cases. It is no quack nostrum, but a standard English medicine, of known and established efficacy.

Every family in the United States should be supplied with the Hungarian Balsam of Life, not only to counteract the consumptive of the climate, but to be used as a preventive medicine in all cases of colds, coughs, spitting of blood, pain in the side and breast, irritation and soreness of the lungs, bronchitis, difficulty of breathing, hectic fever, night sweats, emaciation and general debility, asthma, influenza, whooping cough, and croup.

Sold in large bottles at $1 per bottle, with full directions for the restoration of health.

Pamphlets, containing the testimonies of many of the most eminent English and American physicians, certificates, and other evidence, showing the unequalled merit of this great English Remedy, may be obtained of the Agents, gratuitously.

Drugs and Medicines.

DR. HOFFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN MEDICINES

Are without a Rival for the Cure of the following Diseases:

IF taken according to the directions they will cure any case, no matter who or what else has failed.

VEGETABLE RHEUMATIC PILLS.

For the permanent cure of Rheumatism, Gout, Gangrene, Hysteria, and severe nervous affections, and are highly recommended for the cure of Dropsy, Shortness of Asthma and Neuralgia. Patients using them, in most cases, experience benefit soon after the first dose. They quiet the nervous system, which enables them to rest well during the night. They never fail to effect a cure, when taken according to directions.

No outward application can permanently remove rheumatic pains from the system. Liniments sometimes act as a palliative for a short period, but there is always danger in their use. They may cause the pain to leave one place for perhaps a vital part, or else where the pain will be more acute.

GERMAN BITTERS,

For the permanent cure of Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Chronic Debility, Chronic Asthma, Nervous Debility, Pulmonary Affections, (arising from the liver or stomach,) Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered stomach, in both male and female, such as female weakness, dizziness, fullness of blood to the head. They strengthen the system, and remove all acidity of the stomach, and give a tone and action and assist digestion. They can be taken by the most delicate stomach, and in every case will entirely destroy costiveness and renovate the whole system, removing all impurities and remnants of previous diseases, and giving a healthy action to the whole frame.

The symptoms of Liver Complaint are uneasiness and pain in the right side, and soreness upon touch immediately under the inferior rib; inability to lie on the left side, or if at all able, a dragging sensation produced, which seriously affects respiration, causing very often a troublesome cough; together with these symptoms we perceive a coated tongue, acidity of the stomach, deficiency of perspiration, and sometimes a sympathetic pain in the right shoulder, with a great disposition to sleep and depression of spirits, and sometimes sores in the mouth or throat, causing mucus to rise in the nostrils. Jaundice frequently accompanies the above, and a dropsy in the face. These symptoms, if permitted to continue, will eventually produce that most fatal disease, Consumption. In fact, a majority of such cases originate from the irritating causes above mentioned. Cathartic medicines must in every instance be avoided in the treatment for it.

The symptoms of Dyspepsia are very various—those affecting the stomach alone, are nausea, heart-burn, loss of appetite, sometimes an excess of appetite, sense of fullness or weight on the stomach, sinking or fluttering of the pit of the stomach, acid eructations, or sour rising from the stomach, &c. Dyspepsia, devoid of a functional nature, is without danger, but, if arising from a disease of the stomach, it is dangerous.

Nervous Debility generally accompanies Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint; it will also cure. A few doses will remove all the unpleasant effects, such as fluttering in the heart, ringing sensations in the head, blushes, fits of the blues, terror of the sight, fever and dull pain in
