Clothing! Clothing!! Clothing!!!

The Three Big Doors on "The Western World!!!"

150,000 WELL SELECTED GARMENTS now made and ready to be offered on the most liberal terms to my old customers and the public in general. The Proprietor of this far-famed and extensive establishment has now, after returning from the Eastern cities, at much trouble and expense, just completed his fall and winter arrangements to supply his thousands of customers with one of the most desirable stocks of Clothing that has ever been offered in this or any other market west of the mountains. For neatness in style and workmanship, combined with the very low price which they will be sold for, must certainly render the old unrivalled Three Big Doors one of the greatest attractions of the western country. It is gratifying to me to be enabled to announce to my numerous friends at home and abroad, that notwithstanding the extraordinary efforts which I have made to meet the many calls in my line, it is with difficulty I can keep time with the constant rush that is made on this establishment. It is a well established fact, that my sales are eight or ten times larger than any other house in the trade, and this being the case on the cheap cash system I am enabled to sell at much less profit than others could possibly think of doing, if they wished to cover contingent expenses. I intend to make a clean sweep of all my present stock before the beginning of next year; coming to this conclusion, I will make it the interest of every man, who wants a cheap winter coat, to call and purchase at the Three Big Doors.

Clothing! Clothing!!

THE Spring and Summer stock that is now ready to be offered at the old original is one of the largest and choicest in selection that has ever been exhibited by any one concern in this or any other city in the Union. I will not undertake to describe to the reader the different assortments of articles which I now have to offer them; but will simply tell them that they only favor me with a call, I will lay before them 15,000 different garments to make a choice out of, consisting in part of Coats, from the richest in quality down to the lowest in price; Pantaloons and Vests, to the combination of the beholder, with both mouth and eyes open, wondering in the most extravagant degree of surprise, how such a variety of many a mass of garments could possibly be collected together under the control of one individual. But such things will be, so long as perseverance and industry is the undisputed motto.

Without any intention of boasting, on my part, I will say at the same time, it is of such metal I am principally composed; for nothing is the shape or form of difficulties, no matter what their magnitude may be, can deter me from accomplishing my object, in providing for the discriminating mechanic, and the day laborer. My whole attention is taken up with the greatest care for their welfare, in getting up fashionable, and at the same time substantial garments to meet their demands; and as for others, who fancy themselves moving in a different sphere, and resulting an article of the sine plus ultra kind, they have only to give me an outline of their wants, and they are suited to a word.

Now, let me say a word or two to my country merchants in the trade: If you wish to save from at least 25 to 50 percent, in your wholesale purchases, call in at the "Three Big Doors," and if I don't meet your most sanguine hopes, in the way of getting cheap bargains, and fresh seasonable goods, I will not in future attempt to offer any inducements of a similar kind to a generous people of so noble a nature and close discernment.

Great English Remedy!

FOR Coughs, Colds, Asthma, and Consumption—The great and only remedy, for the above diseases is the Hungarian Balsam of Life, discovered by the celebrated Dr. Buchan, of London, England, and introduced into the United States under the immediate superintendence of the inventor.

The extraordinary success of this medicine, in the cure of Pulmonary diseases, and the decided preference it is soliciting for treatment the worst possible cases that can be found in the community—cases that seek relief in vain from any of the common remedies, that have, of late, been given up by the most distinguished physicians, as confirmed and incurable—The Hungarian Balsam has effected, and will continue, the most desperate cases, that a quick restorer, but a standard English medicine, of almost a established character.

Every family in the United States should be supplied with Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life, not only to guard against the consequences of a cough, but to be used as a preventive medicine in all cases of colds, coughs, spitting of blood, pain in the side and chest, irritation and soreness of the lungs, difficulty of breathing, hectic fever, night sweats, emaciation and general debility, asthma, influenza, whooping cough, and croup.

Sold in large bottles, at 50 cents and $1 each, and directions for the restoration of health.

Pamphlets containing a price-list English and American certificates, and other evidence, showing the unequalled merits of this great English Remedy, may be obtained of the Agents gratuitously, or all others.

DR. G. C VAUGHN'S VEGETABLE LITHONTRIPTIC AND DIURETIC MIXTURE.

THIS celebrated remedy is continually increasing its fame by the making all over the world. It has now become the only medicine for Dropsy, Gravel, and is particularly recommended for Dropsy: all stages of the complaint immediately relieved, no matter of how long standing. (See pamphlet for testimony.)

Gravel, and all diseases of the urinary organs; for these distressing complaints it stands alone; no other article can be compared with the cures it effects, and ever since the most skeptical—(see pamphlet.) Liver Complaint, Bilious Diseases, Fever and Ague.—To the Great Western Country, the cures it effects are astonishing, and since the most skeptical—(see pamphlet.) Liver Complaint, Bilious Diseases, Fever and Ague.—To the Great Western Country, the cures it effects are astonishing, and since this medicine is offered.

Nominal agent, undeliberious compounds in part of this mixture: it cures these diseases with certainty and celerity, and does not leave the system ruined. (See pamphlet.) Plus a complaint of a most painful character, immediately relieved, and a cure follows by a few days use of this article. It is far beyond any other preparation for this disease, or for any other disease arising from impure blood. Fever and Ague, Nervous Debility of the System, Weak Back, Weakness of the Kidneys, &c., or inflammation of the same, is immediately relieved by a few days use of this medicine, and a cure is always the result of its use. It stands as a certain remedy for such complaints, and also for derangements of the female frame; irregularities, suppressions, and all menstruations. No article has ever been offered, except this, which would touch the kind of derangements. It may be relied upon as a safe and effective remedy, and we feel permitted to do so, could give a thousand names as proof of cures in this distressing class of complaints.—See pamphlet. All broken down, debilitated constitutions, from the effect of mercury, will find the bracing power of this article to act immediately, and the poisonous mineral eradicated from the system.

Emptive Diseases will find the alterative properties of this article rare remedy, and free from mercury in any form in the system. (See pamphlet for testimony of cures in all diseases, which the limits of an advertisement will not permit to be named here.) Agents give the cures, and can contain 32 pages of certificates of high character; and a strong array of proof of the virtues of a medicine, now so approved. It is one of the discoveries of the age of tithe, that it never fails to benefit in any case, and if bone and muscle are left in a tolerable state, it is emaciated and lingering invalid pure or, and keep taking the medicine as long as there is an improvement. The proprietor would be unable to meet the demand, if he did not, and would come out under the hands of SARSAPARILLAS, SYRUPS, &c., as cures for Dropsy, Gravel, &c. They are good for nothing, and connected in the minds of intelligent people. Their inventors never thought of curing such diseases till this article had done it. A particular study of the pamphlets is earnestly solicited. Agents, and all who sell the article, are glad to circulate gratuitously. Put up in 30 oz. bottles, at $2; 12 oz. do. at $1; each bottle has a wrapper holding 4 oz. more than the two small bottles. Look out and not overpassed upon. Every bottle has "Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic Mixture" blown upon the glass, the written signature of "G. C. Vaughn" on the directions, and "G. C. Vaughn, Buffalo," stamped on the cork. None other are genuine.

Prepared by Dr. G. C. Vaughn, and sold at the Principal Office, 167 Main street, Buffalo, wholesale and retail.

No attention given to letters unless post-paid—order from regularly authorized Agents excepted. Post-paid letters, or verbal communications soliciting advice, promptly attended to gratis.

Connell's Magical Pain Extractor.

☞ Is warranted to cure Rheumatism, Gout, Gangrene, Hysteria, and severe nervous affections, and are highly recommended for the cure of Dropsy, Hemorral Asthma, and Scrofula. Patients using them, in most cases, experience benefit soon after the first dose. They quiet the nervous system, which enables them to rest well during the night. They never fail to effect a cure, when taken according to directions.

No outward application can permanently remove rheumatic pains from the system. Liniments sometimes act as a palliative for a short period, but there is always danger in their use. They may cause the pain to leave one place for perhaps a vital part, or else where the pain will be more acute.

GERMAN BITTERS,

For the permanent cure of Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Chronic Debility, Chronic Asthma, Nervous Debility, Pulmonary Affections, (arising from the liver or stomach,) Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered stomach, in both male and female, such as female weakness, dizziness, fullness of blood to the head. They strengthen the system, and remove all acidity of the stomach, and give it tone and action and assist digestion. They can be taken by the most delicate stomach, and in every case will entirely destroy costiveness and, renovate the whole system, removing all impurities and remnants of previous diseases, and giving a healthy action to the whole frame.

The symptoms of Liver Complaint are uneasiness and pain in the right side, and soreness upon touch immediately under the inferior ribs; inability to lie on the left side, or if at all able, a dragging sensation produced, which seriously affects respiration, causing very often a troublesome cough; together with these symptoms we perceive a coated tongue, acidity of the stomach, deficiency of perspiration, and sometimes a sympathetic pain in the right shoulder, with a great disposition to sleep and depression of spirits, and sometimes sores in the mouth or throat, causing mucus to rise in the nostrils. Jaundice frequently accompanies it, and a dropsy in the face. These symptoms, if permitted to continue, will eventually produce that most baneful disease, Consumption. In fact, a majority of such cases originate from the irritating causes above mentioned. Cathartic medicines must in every instance, be avoided in the treatment for it.

The symptoms of Dyspepsia are very various—those affecting the stomach alone, are nausea, heart-burn, loss of appetite, sometimes an excess of appetite, sense of fullness or weight on the stomach, sinking or fluttering of the pit of the stomach, fetid eructations arising from the stomach, &c. Dyspepsia, devoid of a functional nature, is without danger, but, if arising from a disease of the stomach, it is dangerous.

Nervous Debility generally accompanies Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint; it will also cure. A few doses will remove all the unpleasant effects, such as fluttering at the heart, nehing sensation when in a lying position, dots or webs before the sight, fever and dull pain in the head, constant imaginings of evil, and great depression of spirits. Outward signs are, a quick and strong pulse, pale and distressed countenance, &c.

Any case of the above disease can be cured effectually by the use of the Bitters, as directed.

SUDORIFIC.
