Riverside Gardens, in Manchester.

The subscriber is now prepared to receive his old friends and the citizens generally, that RESIDALE of the Public. The Tables have been furnished in a neat and fashionable style; and the surrounding grounds are in a state of high cultivation, and will afford all who have taste for beautiful scenery.

The location of Riverside is well known.—Situate in Manchester, within a mile and a half from the city, on the bank of the Ohio, the prospect in every direction is charming. For health and comfort, there is no place equal to it in the neighborhood of Pittsburgh.

A limited number of families who desire a summer residence can find it by having the same engaged.

Transient visitors will find Riverside a most agreeable place in which to pass a day or a week.

The Parlors are now ready, and will be supplied with all the delicacies of the season.—Delicious Ice Cream, Cream, Fruits, Confectionery, &c. The table will be supplied with the choicest viands.

☞ The whole establishment will be conducted on strict temperance principles. Ten-pin Alleys have been put up, from the present, no liquor will be permitted. All games of chance strictly prohibited.

The facilities for reaching Riverside are numerous.—An Omnibus leaves the North end of the old Allegheny Bridge every half hour, and will leave passengers at the Gardens. The Steamboat Greenwood leaves the Allegheny Wharf every hour, and lands within a few hundred yards of the Riverside Cottage.

Great Bargain Corner.

J. BATES, Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Gold Pens and Pens, Stores corner of Fifth and Smithfield streets, Pittsburgh, subscriber respectfully announces to his old customers and the public, that he has removed his lately erected at the corner of Fifth and Smithfield streets, opposite the old Post Office, where he will keep on hand a large assortment of HATS, BONNETS, CAPS, GENTLEMEN'S WEAR, LEATHER TRUNKS, VALICES, CARPET BAGS, &c., of all descriptions, and at prices which will sell for cash as cheap as can be bought in this market.

Being connected with some of the largest manufacturing establishments in the eastern cities, and receiving goods almost every week during the season, he offers great inducements to purchasers, either by wholesale or retail, as he offers his goods at lower prices than those of the same quality can be bought elsewhere in the city.

I manufacture and keep constantly on hand, Boys' and Youths' Cast and Rip Boots, a very neat and serviable article.

☞ Remember the place, "Great Bargain Corner."
