☞ CHRISTMAS CHEER.—During this season of festivity and joy, when all are prone to indulge in the good things of life to excess, let us not forget that the pleasures of the table, when enjoyed beyond the bounds of moderate, are at the expense of health.

Those, however, who are led inadvertently into excess in eating or drinking, and who, in consequence, suffer from headache, sick stomach, lowness of spirits, indigestion, and other complaints, the penalty of over-indulgence, we recommend a trial of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, of the North American College of Health. This medicine will remove all complaints which arise from irregularity of diet; and cleanse the body from those billious and corrupt humors which are the cause of the above distressing symptoms, and of every malady incident to man.

Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations.—Remember that the Original and Only Genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the written signature of WILLIAM WRIGHT on the top label of each box.

Remember, also, that Messrs. Feuchtwanger & Co., of New York; Jas. S. Gilsonde & Co., at Cincinnati; and J. R. Wilder & Co., of Louisville, are our agents for this medicine, and we cannot guarantee the genuineness of that offered by them for sale.

The genuine is for sale at Dr. Wright's Principal Office, 60 Race street, Philadelphia; and by JOHN THOMPSON, 56 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Pa., who is sole agent for this city, by whom dealers can be supplied at the wholesale rate. dec19

☞ A cough should never be neglected. It may appear trifling and unworthy the attention at first, but it will not remain stationary long; it may progress slow at first, and its augmentation may or scarcely perceptible; yet when it once seizes the lungs, all the other parts of the body will be sympathetically affected, and a confirmed Consumption and premature death will be the inevitable result. A little care would save many a life, and be timely use of a proper remedy might have arrested many a consumption. But many persons have an invincible repugnance to taking any medicine, and rather than use the means towards arresting a disease, simply because the remedy may not be a pleasant one, would suffer and languish for a long time, before they would resort to the aid of medicine.

B. A. Fahnestock & Co.'s Cough Balsam has a great advantage in this respect over many other Cough preparations, as its pleasant taste permits it to be used without inconvenience. But its value as a Balsam consists in the speediness of its cure. We have known some of the most desperate coughs, some of which had been running on for a considerable length of time, yield almost immediately to its power.

Prepared and for sale, wholesale and retail, by
B. A. FAHNESTOCK & Co.,

☞ The columns of the Press throughout the country seem to be filled with notices of cures and specifics for all diseases flesh is heir to, that one scarcely knows what to do in case of disease, for fear that in using one medicine, another and better may be overlooked. But from the remarkable cures, high order and vast amount of testimony daily brought under our personal notice, of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Rogers' Liverwort and Tar, we are compelled to regard the evidence of our senses, and confidently state that for Coughs and Colds, and that hydra-headed monster, Consumption, we think this preparation a safe speedy and certain cure. At all events, we may say to our friends—try it.

FOR NEW ORLEANS. The excellent steamer Wyomnig, Capt. Kountz, leaves for New Orleans to-day.

ALLEGHENY RIVER PACKET.—As most of our readers are aware, there is now quite a brisk steamboat business transacted on the Allegheny river. The Allegheny Belle, which is advertised in to-day's paper, is an excellent little craft—swift, safe and comfortable. Her commander, Capt. Wm. Hanna, is a gentleman altogether worthy of the confidence and support of business men and travelers. We copy, with pleasure, the following article from the Advocate and Journal of the 20th, inst. published at Franklin:

"FAST TRIP.—Mr. Editor.—It is not my intention to occupy much room in your paper, but have only act down to mention a fact that perhaps should not be noted in a public print. It has not been many years since steamboats began to ply on the Allegheny. The citizens of this place will recollect the first steamer that reached the town of Franklin "the head of navigation" after a tedious trip of some seven days and many perils; but since those days there has been much improvement in the size, comfort and speed of the boats on our river. We have many good boats at present engaged in the great and increasing commerce of the Allegheny valley. Even now, however, it is considered "good time" to reach Franklin from Pittsburgh in 36 or 40 hours, in fact such is considered fair running, while oftentimes they are from 50 to 60 hours between the same points. A few days since I had the pleasure of a ride from Pittsburgh to Franklin in the steamer "Allegheny Belle." We started from Pittsburgh on Monday evening the 11th inst. at 15 minutes past seven o'clock, and reached Franklin the next evening at 20 minutes to seven making the whole time out, about 23½ hours, but if you deduct four hours for detentions, makes the running time 19½ hours from port to port, and that too, against a river full of ice banks, and running a perfect torrent—such an one as no river but the Allegheny knows how to run. The "Allegheny Belle" is commanded by Captain Wm. Hanna, a kind and obliging officer, and indeed her whole crew seemed to understand their business, to know their places and do all in their power to make the passengers comfortable.
