NEW CONSTITUTION

GOVERNMENT OF POLAND, &c. &c. (CONCLUDED.)

ARTICLE VII.

The King, or Executive Power.

THE King's Council of Inspection is to confilt, 1st, Of the Primate, as the head of the Clergy, and the Prefident of the Commission of Education, or the first Bishop in Ordine.

2d, Of five Ministers, viz. the Minister of Police, Minister of Justice, Minister of War, Minister of Finances, and Minister for the Foreign

3d, Of two Secretaries to keep the Protocols, one for the Council, another for the Foreign Department; both, however without decisive vote. The hereditary Prince coming of age, and having taken the oath to preferve the Conflictution, may affift at all fessions of the Council, but shall have no vote therein.

The Marshal of the Diet being chosen for two years, has also a right to sit in this Council, without taking any share in its resolves; for the end only to call together the Diet, always existing in the following cafe; Should he deem, from the emergencies hereunder specified, the convocation of the Diet absolutely necessary, and the King refusing to do it, the Marshal is bound to issue his circular letters to all Nuncios and Senators, adducing real motives for such meeting.

The cases demanding such convocation of the Diet are the following.

1st. In a pressing necessity concerning the law of the nation, and particularly in case of a neighbouring war.

2d. In case of an internal commotion, menaciug the revolution of the country, or of a collusion between magistratures.

3d. In an evident danger of general famine. 4th. In the orphan flate of the country, by demife of the King, or in case of the King's dangerous illness.

All the resolutions of the Council of Inspection, are to be examined by the rules above mentioned. The King's opinion, after that of every Member in the Council has been heard, shall decisively prevail.

Every resolution of this Council shall be issued under the King's fignature, counterfigned by one of the Ministers fitting therein; and thus figned, shall be obeyed by all executive departments, except in cases expressly exempted by the present Constitution.

Should all the members refuse their counterfign to any resolution, the King is obliged to forego his opinion; but if he should persist in it, the Marshal of the Diet may demand the convocation of the Diet; and if the King will not, the Marshal himself shall send his circular letters as above.

Ministers composing this Council cannot be employed at the fame time in any other commiffion or department.

If it should happen that two thirds of secret votes in both Houses, demand the changing of any person, either in Council. or any Executive department, the King is bound to nominate ano-

Willing that the Council of Inspection should be responsible to the nation for their actions, we decree that, when these Ministers are denounced and accused before the Diet (by the special Committee appointed for examining their proceedings) of any transgression of positive law, they are answerable with their persons and fortunes.

Such impeachments being determined by a fimple majority of votes, collected jointly from both Houses, shall be tried immediately by the commital tribunal, where the accused are to receive their final judgment and punishment, if found guilty; or to be honorably acquitted, on fufficicient proof of innocence.

In order to form a necessary organization of the Executive power, we establish hereby separate commissions, connected with the above Council, and subjected to obey its ordinations.

These commissions are, 1st, of Education; 2d, of Police; 3d, of War; 4th, of Treasnry.

It is through the medium of these four departments that all the particular orderly commissions, as established by the present Diet, in every palatinate and district, shall depend on, and receive all orders from the Council of Inspection, in their respective duties and occurrences.

GEORGETOWN, September 9, 1791.

THE Sales of the Lots in the Federal City will commence on Monday the 17th day of October next. Monday the 17th day of October next. The Commillioners finding they may engage materials and workmen for the public buildings to any dehrable extent; with a view to draw the fund into action, so as to sacilitate the work, instead of a deposit of 8 per cent, will require 1-4th part of the purchase money to be paid down, the residue to be on bonds with security, payable with interest in three equal payments. The manner of improvement will be published at the fale.
