Auction Notice.

THE subscriber has paid into the Treasury of the Commonwealth, the amount of license required by law. He has given the regularly approved security, and taken out a commission of the first class, as an Auctioneer of the city of Pittsburgh, and rented that spacious warehouse, three doors from Fifth, where he is prepared to attend to the sale of every kind of Merchandise, Furniture, Real Estate, Stocks, Shipping, &c., either at the Auction Rooms or on the premises, and will in all cases exert himself to the utmost for the benefit of his employers, on the most reasonable terms; he will sell exclusively and only on commission; neither purchasing nor having any interest whatever on goods in the store, but merely the commission for selling, thereby giving all owners a fair chance without partiality of having therein property disposed of to the best advantage.

Sales will be promptly settled when made. Advances will be given at any time, on the most accommodating terms. Merchandise will not be charged for advances.

Regular sale days: Mondays and Thursdays, of Dry Goods, Groceries, Furniture, &c.; and every evening, Hardware, Cutlery, Watches, Guns, Pistols, and Fancy Articles. Books on Saturday evenings.

Removal.

H. & E. TODD would respectfully inform the merchants of this city and our customers generally, that we have removed our stock of Shirts and Gents Furnishing Goods, to the corner of Fifth and Market streets, 2d story over W. & P. Hugus, entrance on Fifth street, where we intend to keep on hand a large stock of Shirts, of our own manufacture, with an assortment of Gentlemens' Furnishing Goods, usually kept by Eastern Wholesale Furnishing Stores.

Being very thankful for the kind patronage bestowed on us for the past year, we would be happy to receive calls from our old customers and merchants generally, and would inform them that we intend nothing on our part shall induce them to look further, as we expect to add largely to our stock, and diminish our prices.

Merchants and dealers are solicited to examine our stock of Goods. ap10-tf

STEEL AND FILE MANUFACTORY.—The subscribers, having enlarged their establishment for the manufacture of STEEL and FILES—on the corner of Ohio and Liberty streets, Pittsburgh—are prepared to furnish Files of every description, of the best quality; and being determined to make it the interest of consumers to purchase Files from them, respectfully invite the patronage of all who use the article.

mar16-y J. ANKRIM & CO.

REMOVAL.—On account of our past up market, and a demand for vegetable stands, I have been compelled to remove my Bread Stand to the opposite side of Market street, in front of Alexander & Day's Dry Goods Store, where I shall be glad to see my former customers. jy12 JOHN SHEPHARD.

FOR SALE, Four Lots—Bounded by Penn, Liberty and Hay sts., each lot having 24 feet front, and extending back 110 feet. Two of them are corner lots, and the position of the whole property is one of the most advantageous in the city. For further information apply to M. Tin Roofing.

THE subscribers most respectfully announce to their fellow-citizens that they have perfected their arrangement to carry on the business of Tin Roofing on an extensive scale.

It is now close on four years since we first introduced tin roofing in this city. During that time we have covered over fifty thousand square feet of roofs, with tin plate, and in all cases we believe we have given the most entire satisfaction. This kind of roof has been applied to the very best buildings in this city, including, among a large number of others, the two superb buildings on Penn street, owned by John L. Shoenberger and John Bissel, Esqrs. That tin roofing (when skilfully laid on) is both permanent and durable, there can be no doubt; in proof of this, we can refer to the almost universal application of this kind of roofing in the large cities on the sea-board during the last twenty years; and from enquiring on the subject, we have yet to learn of any one of those roofs having been worn out. The roofs covered with tin in our own city are open to the examination of all who take an interest in the matter. We have also prepared a miniature plan of roofs, which may be seen at our establishment, where any other information will be given with pleasure. JOHN DUNLAP & CO.

The Areometer.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC is respectfully called to the following certificates:—

MR. S. EARING—Having tested a quantity of Gold weighed by your Areometer, I find the results proves your instrument correct; and recommend the use of it to those going to California, as the best method for obtaining the real value of Gold. Resp. Yours,

J. R. DUNLEVY, Gold Beater.

Pittsburgh, March 9, '49.

PITTSBURGH, March 7, 1849.

MR. EARING—Dear Sir: Having examined the "Areometer," manufactured at your rooms, I do not hesitate to commend it to the use of those gentlemen who are about removing to California, in search of Gold.

It gives a close approximation to the specific gravity of metals, and will certainly enable the adventurer to ascertain when his placer is yielding Gold.

Yours, resp'y, R. R. MCLINTOCK.

Head Quarters for Boots and Shoes,

CORNER FOURTH AND SMITHFIELD STREETS, PITTSBURGH, PA.

THOTH & SCOTT having commenced the general BOOT and SHOE business, at wholesale and retail, would respectfully invite the attention of their friends and the public generally, to their splendid new stock, consisting of Men's, Women's, Boys', Misses' and Children's wear, of every variety, suitable for the season, and at prices to suit the former to be held in common by the party who did not desire citizenship, and the latter to be divided and allotted among such as were citizens and desired to remain so:

And whereas it has been found impracticable to carry into full effect the provisions of the act of August 5th, 1846, by dividing the said township of land in the manner specified in said act, without infringing upon private rights acquired, in good faith, under the act of 1843 hereinbefore referred to, with a view of relieving both the Indians and citizens, and of doing unto the said Stockbridge tribe of Indians, from their present embarrassments, and to secure to each their just rights, articles of agreement and compromise have been entered into, as follows:

Articles of agreement and treaty made and concluded at Stockbridge, in the state of Wisconsin, on the 24th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, between the undersigned, acting commissioners on the part of the United States of America, and the Stockbridge tribe of Indians:

ARTICLE 1. The said Stockbridge tribe of Indians renounce all participation in any of the benefits or privilege granted or conferred by the act of Congress entitled "An act for the relief of the Stockbridge tribe of Indians, in the Territory of Wisconsin," approved March 3, 1843, and relinquish all rights secured by said act, and they do hereby acknowledge and declare themselves to be under the protection and guardianship of the United States, as other Indian tribes.

ARTICLE II. That no misunderstanding may exist, now or hereafter, in determining who compose said tribe and are parties hereto, it is agreed that a roll or census shall be taken and appended to this agreement, and in like manner taken annually hereafter, and returned to the Secretary of the War Department, of the United States, containing the names of all such as are parties hereto, to be known and recognized as the Stockbridge tribe of Indians, who shall each be entitled to their due proportion of the benefits to be derived from the provisions made for their relief by this and former agreements; and whenever any of them shall separate themselves from said tribe, or abandon the country which may be selected for their future home, the share or portion of such shall cease, and they shall forfeit all claims to be recognized as members of said tribe.

ARTICLE III. The said Stockbridge tribe of Indians hereby sell and relinquish to the United States township of land on the east side of lake Winnebago, granted and secured to said tribe by the treaty with the Menomonee tribe of Indians of February 8, 1831, as amended by the Senate of the United States, and not heretofore ceded by said tribe to the United States, should be divided and allotted among the individual members of said tribe, by commissioners to be elected for the purpose, who were to make a part of such division and allotment, and thereupon the persons composing said tribe were to become citizens of the United States:

And whereas a portion of said tribe refused to recognise the validity of said act of Congress, or the proceedings which were had under it, or to be governed by its provisions, and upon their petition a subsequent act was passed by the Congress of the United States on the 5th day of August, 1846, repealing the said act of March 3d, 1843, and providing, among other things, that such of said tribe as should enrol themselves with the sub-agent of Indian affairs at Green Bay, should be and remain citizens of the United States, and the residue of said tribe were restored to their ancient form of government as an Indian tribe. It was also provided that the said township of land should be divided into two districts, one of which was to be known as the "Indian district," the other as the "citizen district;" the former to be held in common by the party who did not desire citizenship, and the latter to be divided and allotted among such as were citizens and desired to remain so:

And whereas it has been found impracticable to carry into full effect the provisions of the act of August 5th, 1846, by dividing the said township of land in the manner specified in said act, without infringing upon private rights acquired, in good faith, under the act of 1843 hereinbefore referred to, with a view of relieving both the Indians and citizens, and of doing unto the said Stockbridge tribe of Indians, from their present embarrassments, and to secure to each their just rights, articles of agreement and compromise have been entered into, as follows:

Articles of agreement and treaty made and concluded at Stockbridge, in the state of Wisconsin, on the 24th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, by and between the undersigned, acting commissioners on the part of the United States of America, and the Stockbridge tribe of Indians:

ARTICLE 1. The said Stockbridge tribe of Indians renounce all participation in any of the benefits or privilege granted or conferred by the act of Congress entitled "An act for the relief of the Stockbridge tribe of Indians, in the Territory of Wisconsin," approved March 3, 1843, and relinquish all rights secured by said act, and they do hereby acknowledge and declare themselves to be under the protection and guardianship of the United States, as other Indian tribes.

ARTICLE II. That no misunderstanding may exist, now or hereafter, in determining who compose said tribe and are parties hereto, it is agreed that a roll or census shall be taken and appended to this agreement, and in like manner taken annually hereafter, and returned to the Secretary of the War Department, of the United States, containing the names of all such as are parties hereto, to be known and recognized as the Stockbridge tribe of Indians, who shall each be entitled to their due proportion of the benefits to be derived from the provisions made for their relief by this and former agreements; and whenever any of them shall separate themselves from said tribe, or abandon the country which may be selected for their future home, the share or portion of such shall cease, and they shall forfeit all claims to be recognized as members of said tribe.

ARTICLE III. The said Stockbridge tribe of Indians hereby sell and relinquish to the United States township of land on the east side of lake Winnebago, granted and secured to said tribe by the treaty with the Menomonee tribe of Indians of February 8, 1831, as amended by the resolution of the Senate of the United States,) and situated in the State of Wisconsin.

ARTICLE IV. That said township of land shall be surveyed into lots, in conformity with the plan adopted by the commissioners elected under the act of March 3, 1843, and such of said lands as were allotted by said commissioners to members of said tribe who have become citizens of the United States, (a schedule of which is hereunto annexed,) are hereby confirmed to such individuals respectively, and patents therefor shall be issued by the United States. The residue of said lands belonging to the United States shall be brought into market, but shall not be sold at less than the appraised value, unless the Senate of the United States shall otherwise determine.

ARTICLE V. In consideration of the session and relinquishment hereinbefore made by the said Stockbridge tribe of Indians, it is agreed that the United States shall pay to said tribe within six months after the ratification of this agreement the sum of sixteen thousand five hundred dollars, to enable them to settle their affairs, obtain necessaries, and make provision for maintaining themselves in a new home.

ARTICLE VI. The United States shall also pay to the said tribe within six months after the ratification of this agreement the sum of fourteen thousand five hundred and four dollars and eighty-five cents, being the appraised value of the improvements upon the lands herein ceded and relinquished to the United States, and to be paid to the individuals claiming said improvements according to the schedule and assessment now in the hands of the commissioners.

ARTICLE VII. It is further stipulated and agreed that the said Stockbridge tribe may remain upon the lands they now occupy for one year after the ratification of this agreement, and that they will remove to the country set apart for them, or such other west of the Mississippi river as they may be able to secure, where all their treaty stipulations with the government shall be carried into effect.

ARTICLE VIII. Whenever the said Stockbridge tribe shall signify their wish to emigrate, the United States will defray the expenses of their removal west of the Mississippi, and furnish them with subsistence for one year after their arrival at their new home.

ARTICLE IX. It is further stipulated and agreed, that, for the purpose of making provision for the rising generation of said tribe, the sum of sixteen thousand five hundred dollars shall be invested by the United States in stocks, bearing an interest of not less than five per cent. per annum, the interest of which shall be paid annually to said tribe, as other annuities are paid by the United States.

ARTICLE X. It is agreed that nothing herein shall prevent a survey of said lands, at any time after the ratification of this agreement, and that said tribe shall commit no waste or do unnecessary damage upon the premises occupied by them.

ARTICLE XI. The United States will pay the expenses incurred by the sachem and headmen, amounting to three thousand dollars, in attending to the business of said tribe since the year 1843.

ARTICLE XII. This agreement to be binding and obligatory upon the contracting parties from and after its ratification by the government of the United States.

In witness whereof, the said commissioners, and the sachem, councillors, and the headmen of said tribe, have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year before written.
