HELP WANTED—MALE

ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVE — We want a representative who can appreciate the big things in advertising; we want a salesman of advertising experience who knows ordinary agency service and who can appreciate the "plus-service" we give our clients; we want a man who could talk to a J. Ogden Armour if necessary, and we could do things for Armour & Co.) or to a Julius Fleischman (we handle the Fleischman yeast account) and not get stage fright or mental paralysis; we want a man who appreciates the "Big Idea," who knows that space creates "bridge time" and assures results; we want a big man in other words, yet not too big to flex his mind with our idea of advertising and merchandising and sell our idea; we realize that a big man will cost big money, and a big salary to the right man will neither stupefy nor cast us into the depths of despair. Is there such a man? Are you the man? If you think you are, drop us a line, in confidence, at your earliest opportunity. B 7, Ledger Office.

MULTIPLY YOUR INCOME

Freight agents — Claim clerks
Shipping clerks — Billing clerks
Railway office employes

50 per cent of the traffic managers earning from $5000 to $100,000 per week today are former railroad men. There are thousands of millions of dollars for their employers. They are rewarded with high positions and large salary.

FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC TRAFFIC MANAGEMENT

Philadelphia as a port is just coming into prominence. In 5 years time 10 traffic experts will be needed in place of 1 now. Traffic authorities in Philadelphia say there are 5000 firms in urgent need of shipping experts.

INTENSIVE, PRACTICAL TRAINING

Under direct supervision of our staff of railway and industrial traffic experts during your spare hours will prepare you for big opportunities opening up every day. Read our booklet, "How Traffic Men Make Money."

STOP LOOK LISTEN

Have just completed another operation of stores adjoining the No. 2 Emergency Fleet Housing Operation at 70th and Elmwood ave., which contains a block of stores and a moving picture theatre and forms a neighborhood containing a population of between 8000 to 10,000 people to draw from, and who are now buying practically all their needs in this vicinity. Here are all lines of business, such as grocery, bakery, dressed dry goods, shoes, barber, clear and pool room, laundry, drug, candy, ice cream, etc., and any one of these lines would be a profitable business, and would pay handsome profits to the neighborhood stores, as the business done due to the group of stores, I have just completed at the above No. 1 Emergency Fleet Housing Operation at 67th and Elmwood ave., this operation is completely sold out and we are all purchasers have already sold at no enormous profit within 6 months of their original venture; these stores are for sale only, an offer the best opportunity of the year.
