Record Municipal Financing

Financing permanent improvements in American states, counties and smaller municipalities in 1919 consumed almost $750,000,000 of the funds of American investors, according to the Bond Buyer. Statistics prepared by the Bond Buyer covering the flotation of securities in this class in the last five years follow:

1919	$748,205,783
1918	262,818,841
1917	444,932,818
1916	457,492,731
1915	492,599,441

An outstanding feature of present-day municipal finance, according to the Bond Buyer review, is the good roads movement.
