JOSEPH LIPPENCOTT .... WM. C. BARR.
LIPPENCOTT & BARR,
(LATE J. S. STRICKLER & Co.)
Manufacturers of Phenix Fire Proof Safes,
Second street, between Wood and Smithfield.
ON Tuesday afternoon, July 23, 1850, the undersigned were called upon by Messrs. Lippencott & Barr, to witness an honest and fair test of one of their Phenix Safes. The furnace being prepared, the Safe was placed inside thereof, with books, papers and some money; when the door of the Safe was closed and the fire kindled at quarter past 2 o'clock, and in a short time the Safe was red hot, and continued till half past 6 o'clock, being about four and a half hours, when the committee expressed their satisfaction that the time occupied with such heat was sufficient. The furnace was then pulled down, Safe cooled, and door opened—the books, papers and money safe. The heat was so great as to melt off the brass mountings. We therefore take pleasure in recommending these Safes to the public, as being, in our judgment, entirely fire proof.

ISAAC CROMIE.

I am engaged in the foundry business, and know something about furnaces and heat. I witnessed the burning of the above Safe, and can freely say there was no humbug about it, and with pleasure recommend them to the public as being, in my judgment, entirely fire-proof. WM. KAYE.

In calling upon the above gentlemen for their signatures, they all spoke in the highest terms of the fairness of the test, and their full confidence of the Safe's being entirely fire-proof. We have constantly on hand and for sale a full assortment of the above Safes.

DR. JAYNE'S FAMILY MEDICINES.—Extract of a letter from the Rev. E. L. ABBOTT, a well-known and highly esteemed Missionary in the kingdom of Burmah, dated Sandoway, Arracan, February, 1840:

Dr. D. Jayne, Philadelphia: My Dear Sir—We are now in great want of your Medical Preparations. Your CARMINATIVE BALSAM is an invaluable Medicine in this country in Bowel Complaints, and has been used in all our Missions with the most gratifying success. Your SANATIVE PILLS are my Sheet Anchor. The best medicine for my Liver Complaint and pain in the side, that I have ever used. They are in great demand, and we are entirely out of them. We need five hundred boxes of them. Bro. Beecher says we could use a thousand boxes yearly among our people to great advantage. I have used your TONIC VERMIFUGE as a Tonic in INTERMITTENT FEVER, with the most complete success. I think it was once the means of saving my own son. During my travels among the churches the past season, I found a whole village suffering under a prevailing Influenza, attended with Coughs of a most violent character. I often regretted I had not had a dozen or two of YOUR EXPECTORANT to administer to them, for I believe from what I have seen of its effects, that it would have been just the thing for those poor people. I presume you have not hitherto had an idea to what an extent your medicines are used in all our Missions. Affectionately yours, E. L. ABBOTT

Pittsburgh Portable Boat Line.
1850.
FOR THE TRANSPORTATION OF FREIGHT TO AND FROM PITTSBURGH, PHILADELPHIA, BALTIMORE, NEW YORK, BOSTON, &c.
THOMAS BORBIDGE, Philadelphia. TAAFFE & O'CONNOR, Pittsburgh.
THE Canal being now open the proprietors of this long established Line are as usual at their old stands, receiving and forwarding Merchandize and Produce at low rates, and with the promptness, certainty and safety peculiar to their mode of Transportation, where intermediate transhipments to and from warehouses are avoided, and all interests of the shipper consequently guarded from delay and damages.

Merchandize and Produce shipped East or West, and Bills of Lading forwarded free of charge for commission, advancing or storage. Having no interest directly or indirectly in steamboats, that of the owners is solely consulted when shipping their goods.

All communications to the following Agents promptly attended to:

Citizens of Pittsburgh
HAVE you all heard how cheap C. A. BROWN is selling his stock of fine Gold JEWELRY? If you have not, then know that he is selling a very rich and fashionable assortment of Gold WATCHES and JEWELRY at such astonishing low prices that all who have called to see his assortment and prices, exclaim,—this, certainly, is something new for Pittsburgh. What! fine gold Jewelry selling at half the usual price! How can this be? Stop a moment, we will tell you the secret; we have made such arrangements with the manufacturers at the east, and also, with the Watch manufacturers of Europe, that we are getting all our goods at the lowest possible prices, and then, having low rents to pay, and other expenses, also, cheap, enables us to sell at a very small profit upon first cost, and therefore, a wholesale price will answer. Therefore, low prices and large sales will be our motto.

Please call at 111 Market street, second door from Liberty street. [dec19] C. A. BROWN.

Removal.
THE PEKIN TEA STORE has been removed from Fourth street to No 38 Fifth street, one door east of the Exchange Bank, where the subscriber is now receiving his full stock of GREEN AND BLACK TEAS, selected with great care, and purchased direct from the Importers in New York. The stock consists of all the different flavors and grades of Tea brought to the American market, and will be sold wholesale and retail, at prices lower than any other house in Pittsburgh.

Retail Grocers are invited to call and get samples, and learn our prices for Teas packed in ¼ and ½ lb packages, or by the half chest.

Coffee—Mocha, Java and Rio Coffee.
Chocolate—Baker's Broma, Cocoa, Chocolate and Cocoa Shells.

HINTON & CO.'S GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING STORE,
AND ODD-FELLOWS' DEPOT,
NO. 80,
APOLLO BUILDINGS, FOURTH STREET,
Sign of the Bee-Hive.
THE SUBSCRIBERS have opened a Gentlemen's Furnishing Store, in which are to be found a variety of Fancy Goods and Odd Fellows' Regalia, never before presented to a Pittsburgh public, by a single establishment.

From Philadelphia, they are in regular receipt of Odd Fellows' Regalia, Lodge Blank Books, Gavels, and other Lodge articles. The Regalia exhibited at their counter is most gorgeous and admirably assorted; nothing of the sort, so entirely exquisite, has ever been seen in this market in such profusion.

The Gentlemen's Furnishing Department is plentifully supplied with a variety of superb and delicately wrought articles of dress. The variety is entirely too great to enumerate in a moderate space; we must, therefore, direct the public to an investigation of the Stock itself. All that we can say in this connection is; that at our Establishment the gentlemen of taste can be supplied with any article in our line, manufactured out of the best materials and by the most experienced hands. We solicit an examination of our stock; it comprises a variety which challenges comparison.

A large lot of Fine Silk and Linen Shirts; Fancy Stocks and self adjusting Cravats; Gloves and Hosiery of various kinds, and in fact every article of comfort or luxury which a gentleman of good taste would fancy.

We solicit a share of public patronage.

The Human Body must Perspire,
(SO SAYS NATURE,)
TO HAVE A HEALTHY APPEARANCE,
And persons who do not perspire are liable to the most DISGUSTING SKIN DISEASES.

NOW, JONES' Italian Chemical Soap causes a free perspiration, and at the same time mollifies, softens the skin, giving it the texture and beauty of an infant's. SCURVY, SALT RHEUM, AND SORES, are soon not only healed, but cured by its use, as at least seven physicians in New York know, who use it in such cases, and find it unfailing—as also, in PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, FRECKLES, or any other skin disease. The reader is assured that this is no useless puffed nostrum, as one trial will prove. It could enumerate at least 20 persons cured of SORE HEAD, SORE LEGS AND SORE BEARD.

But, if, and the reader is again assured, I would not cruelly sell it for the above, unless I knew it to be all I state. Those who are liable to CHAFED, CRACKED, OR CHAPPED FLESH, will find this not only a cure, but a preventive; and I can now only add, that any one afflicted with any of the above, or similar diseases, will find this all and even more (admirable in its properties) than I state.

But, reader, the stores are flooded with imitations, and be sure you ask for JONES' Italian Chemical Soap, and buy it only of WM. JACKSON, only Agent in Pittsburgh, 240 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, head of Wood.

Jones' Lily White.
LADIES are cautioned against using common prepared Chalk.

They are not aware how frightfully injurious it is to the skin! how coarse, how rough, how sallow, yellow and unhealthy the skin appears after using prepared Chalk! Besides, it is injurious, containing a large quantity of Lead!

We have prepared a beautiful vegetable article, which we call JONES' SPANISH LILY WHITE!

It is perfectly innocent, being purified of all deleterious qualities; and it imparts to the skin a natural, healthy, alabaster, clear, living white; at the same time acting as cosmetic on the skin, making it soft and smooth. Sold by the Agent, WM. JACKSON, 89 Liberty street, head of Wood, Pittsburgh. Price 25 cents.

Mr. Barney Maguire's History of the Coronation.

AIR—"The Groves of Blarney."

Och! the Coronation! what celebration
For emulation can with it compare?
When to Westminster the Royal Spinster,
And the Duke of Leinster, all in order did repair!
'Twas there you'd see the New Polishemen
Making a skrimmage at half after four,
And the Lords and Ladies, and the Miss O'Gradys,
All standing round, before the Abbey door.

Their pillows scorning, that self-same morning
Themselves adorning, all by the candle light,
With roses and lilies, and daffy-down-dillies,
And gould, and jewels, in rich di'monds bright.
And then approaches five hundred coaches,
With Giniral Dullbeak.—Och! 'twas mighty fine
To see how asy bould Corporal Casey,
With his sword drawn, prancing, made them kape the line.

Then the Guns alarums, and the King of Arrums,
All in his Garters and his Clarence shoes,
Opening the massy doors to the bould Ambassydors,
The Prince of Potboys and great Haythen Jews;
'Twould have made you crazy to see Esterhazy
All jew'ls from jasey to his di'mond boots,
With Alderman Harmer, and that swate charmer,
The famale heiress, Miss Anjaly Coutts.

And Wellington walking with his sword drawn, talking
To Hill and Hardinge, heroes of great fame;
And Sir De Lacey, and the Duke Dalmasey,
(They called him Soult afore he changed his name,)
Themselves presading Lord Melbourne lading
The Queen, the darling to her Royal chair;
And that fine ould fellow, the Duke of Pell-Mello,
The Queen of Portingal's Chargy-de-fair.

Then the noble Prussians, likewise the Russians,
In fine laced jackets with their golden cuffs,
And the Bavarians, and the proud Hungarians,
And Everythingarians, all in furs and muffs.
Then Misther Spaker, with Misther Pays the Quaker
All in the Gallery you might persave;
But Lord Brougham was missing, and gone a fishing,
Ounly crass Lord Essex would not give him lave.

There was Baron Alton himself exalting
And Prince Von Swartzenburg, and many more,
Och! I'd be bother'd and entirely smother'd
To tell the half of 'em was to the fore;
With the swate Peeresses, in their crowns and dresses,
And Aldermanesses, and the Board of Works,
But Mehemet Ali said quite gentaly,
"I'd be proud to see the likes among the Turks!"

Then the Queen, Heaven blesshet! och! they did dress her
In her purple garments, and her goulden Crown;
Like Venus or Hebe, or the Queen of Sheby,
With six young ladies houlding up her gown;
Sure 'twas grand to see her, also for to hear
The big drums bating, and the trumpets blow,
And Sir George Smart! Oh! he played a Consarto,
With his four-and-twenty fiddlers all on a row!

Then the Lord Archbishop held a goulden dish up,
For to resave her bounty and great wealth,
Saying "Plase your Glory Queen Victory!
Ye'll give the Clargy lave to drink your health!"
Then his Riverance, retrating, discoursed the mating,
"Boys! here's your Queen! deny it if you can!
And if any bould traitour or infarior craythur
Sneezes at that, I'd like to see the man!"

Then the Nobles kneeling to the Pow'rs appealing,
"Heaven send your Majesty a glorious reign!"
And Sir Claudius Hunter he did confront her,
All in his scarlet gown and goulden chain.
The great Lord May'r, too, sat in his chair too,
But mighty sarious, looking fit to cry,
For the Earl of Surry, all in his hurry,
Throwing the thirteens, hit him in his eye.

Then there was preaching, and good store of speeching,
With Dukes and Marquises on bended knee;
And they did splash her with the real Macasshur,
And the Queen said, "Ah! then, thank ye all for me!"
Then the trumpets braying, and the organ playing,
And sweet trombones with their silver tones,
But Lord Rolle was rolling, 'twas mighty consoling,
To think his Lordship did not break his bones.

Then the crames and the custards, and the beef and mustard,
All on the tombstones like a poulterer's shop;
With lobsters and white-bait, and other swate-meats,
And wine, and nagus, and Imparial Pop!
There was cakes and apples in all the chapels,
With fine polonies and rich mellow pears,
Och! the Count Von Strogonoff, sure he got prog enough,
The sly ould divil, underneath the stairs.

Then the cannons thunder'd, and the people wonder'd,
Crying, "God save Victoria, our Royal Queen!"
Och! if myself should live to be a hundred,
Sure, it's the proudest day that I'll have seen!
And now I've ended, what I pretended,
This narration splendid in swate poe-thry,
So, ye dear bewitcher, just hand the pitcher,
Faith, it's myself that's getting mighty dhry!

Salt for Cattle and Sheep.

During one of the winters of my residence upon the Western Prairies, salt became very scarce and difficult to obtain, even at $10 or $12 a bbl., the price it was universally held at; and many persons who had always considered it as an article of positive necessity for cattle and sheep, were obliged to dispose with the use of it, for several months. One acquaintance of mine, who is a very observing man, found his cattle required much less water than in any previous winter, and actually kept in better condition with the same food, than during the seasons they had all the salt they desired. He came to the conclusion that cattle, when fed with an abundant supply of salt, in winter, are inclined to drink more cold water than is beneficial to their health. His cattle never wintered better than they did that year, nor were more free from disease.

During several summers I have fed cattle running upon the prairie, that never tasted salt from the time they left winter quarters in the spring, until brought up again in the fall; and I never have been able to see the least difference between such and those that had all they desired every day through the season. Certainly, better beef never was eaten than I have butchered, entirely grass fed, without salt.

I have always been very careful to salt my sheep just as much as they could eat, and considered it quite necessary to their health, until it so happened, one summer, that the biggest part of the common flock came to be owned by my neighbors, who thought as my sheep always got plenty of salt, it would be no more than neighborly to let theirs eat with them. But I thought proper to let the whole lot try the experiment of a long feed upon fresh grass, and I certainly never had a more healthy lot than I did that year. There are several other observations I made, which have inclined me to the opinion that cattle and sheep can do without salt just as well as wild deer, goats, and buffaloes; that the taste for salt which all animals manifest, is like some of the apparent natural tastes of members of the human family—more artificial than natural—more acquired than necessary.

It is a fact worthy of notice that the Rocky Mountain hunters who had been used to the stimulant of salt all their previous lives, and looked upon it as an actual necessary instead of a luxury, have not only learned to do without it, but actually grow fat and enjoy better health than they did in civilized life. It is, therefore, a mooted question whether salt is at all necessary for man or beast.—Am. Ag., January.
