SEVENTEEN GAMES FOR MIDDIE NINE

Naval Academy Baseball Team Opens Season Against Princeton on April 3

PLAY WEST POINT MAY 29

Billy Lush, who handles baseball as well as basketball at the academy, has turned to his spring work and has available most of the members of the nine of last year which trimmed West Point. He has a string of nearly thirty pitching candidates, which he will begin to weed out at once. L. N. Baker, the left-hander who pitched most of the Army games last year, and Games, also of last season's staff, are again available.

The Naval Academy will include a "Harvard Week" and a "Syracuse Day" in its schedule of sports this spring. Harvard week will begin on April 19 with the arrival of the full rowing squad of that university, which will use the academy facilities during the week. On April 24, it will enter its varsity, second and freshmen crews against corresponding crews of midshipmen.

On April 21, Wednesday, the baseball, lacrosse and tennis teams of Harvard and the Academy will meet. The period will be prolonged into the next week, as the Union Boat Club, of Boston, composed almost entirely of Harvard alumni, will row here on May 1. It will be a great day for Harvard, as the members of the Associated Harvard Clubs, about 1500 strong, which will be meeting in Washington, will visit the Naval Academy under the guidance of Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt.

Three sports, boxing, wrestling and lacrosse, are considered at the Naval Academy particularly good developers of pep and fighting spirit for football men. Willkie, the big heavyweight wrestler, is almost sure to make one of the line positions next year. He weighs 215 pounds, and made good in a number of football games last season. He has won everyone of his wrestling bouts this season and last year. Misson, who was substitute at right guard last season, is the heavyweight boxer, and is gaining greatly by his experience in the ring. He has an excellent chance of playing regularly on the team next fall. A number of the football men will take up lacrosse as soon as the season opens.

DARTMOUTH MEETS PENN

Green Team Will Meet Princeton on Following Evening

Dartmouth, fast becoming famous as the home of all winter sports, including ski-jing, snowshoeing, skating and hockey, comes to Philadelphia today to play hockey against Pennsylvania tonight and Princeton tomorrow night, at the Philadelphia Ice Palace, Forty-fifth and Market streets.

Dartmouth is the only big eastern college far enough north to really develop winter sports. Because of their daily practice they are always in wonderful condition.

Tonight's game with Pennsylvania should be fast and exciting, as the Quakers expect to put on the the best team they have shown to date. The midyear graduation of Barkalow means that a new point will be seen tonight in the presence of Miner. Jeffries' injury in the last game with perhaps keep him out of the line-up, and that means Hilliard, a new man, will be at goal.

The other members of the team will be the same as in the last game, namely, Cope at cover point, Captain Farah rover, Kearns center, Brett left wing and Pringle right wing.

Tomorrow night Princeton will meet Dartmouth and another very fine game will no doubt result.

Endicott Champion

In the final match of the squash racquet tournament of Class B, played at the Racquet Club yesterday, H. B. Endicott defeated H. R. Nilson after four hard-played sets.

It was a up-and-down match, in which the rallies and volleys were fast and frequent. The final scores were 15-12, 8-15, 18-17 and 15-12.
