Deaths of a Day

GENERAL MOTT HOOTON

Retired Veteran of Two Wars Dies at Maine Home

Brigadier General Mott Hooton, U. S. A. (retired), died, after a short illness, at his late residence, Gardiner, Me., Sunday morning.

General Hooton was born in Philadelphia eighty-two years ago. His military career began at the outbreak of the Civil War when, in 1861, he entered the volunteer service as first sergeant of Company A, First Pennsylvania Infantry. He was a participant at Gettysburg and in many other engagements.

In 1877 he served at Chicago and at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., during the great riots of that year. At the time of the declaration of war against Spain, General Hooton was in command at Fort Harrison, Mont., and commanded a battalion of the Twenty-fifth Infantry. It was the first body of regular troops to get under way for the front. He served nine months in Cuba and the Philippines, organized the Twenty-eighth Infantry at Vancouver barracks with which regiment he served until his retirement, April 16, 1902. Besides his sister, Miss Rhoads, of Gardiner, he is survived by a niece and nephew, Annie E. Chase and Hazen Chase, also of Gardiner, and a niece, Mrs. Thomas Gilford, of New York city.

Charles Young

Charles Young, seventy-one years old, of 5244 Pulaski avenue, Germantown, caretaker of Waterview Park, Germantown, died last night in his home. He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Margaret R. Shronk; two sons, a daughter and two grandchildren.

Dr. John Moffet

Dr. John Moffet, of 1614 North Third street, a widely known physician, who had practiced his profession in the northeastern part of the city for more than a quarter of a century, died suddenly Sunday night. He is survived by a brother, Dr. William Moffet, who was a select councilman from the Seventeenth ward, and a sister, Mrs. Sarah Beatty.

Dr. John Moffet, who was about fifty years old, was a graduate of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and later of the Jefferson Medical College. His father, the late John Moffet, a druggist, was Democratic leader of the Seventeenth ward and one of its most progressive citizens. The John Moffet School, Second and Oxford streets, was named in his honor.

Doctor Moffet was a member of Progress Lodge of Masons and an officer of the Sherman Building and Loan Association.

John S. Newman

John S. Newman, a retired manufacturing jeweler, died yesterday in his apartment at the Majestic Hotel. He had been ill since Friday with pneumonia. His funeral will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m., at the home of his nephew, A. Newman McCall, 1727 Mt. Vernon street.

Mr. Newman, who was a bachelor, was born in this city seventy-seven years ago. He is survived by several nephews and nieces. For many years he was engaged in the manufacture of jewelry at 625 Arch street, retiring about twenty years ago. He was a member of the Manufacturers' Club, the Masonic fraternity and the Odd Fellows.

WILLS ARE PROBATED

Among the wills probated today were those of Peter S. Allick, 4119 Baring street, $3500; Mary E. Blakely, 17 West Upsal street, Germantown, $31,000; Frank Christ, address not given, died at St. Luke's Hospital, $930; Ellen Meadow, 3006 West Lehigh avenue, $4675; Frank Niethamer, 2122 East Arizona street, $4212; Susan A. Wister, 5337 Greene street, $30,000. Inventories of the following estates were filed: Amelia B. Fowler, $98,523.88; Bertha V. Marrick, $12,475.82.

Pitched Ball Breaks Ankle

John Gallagher, twenty-one, of 2223 East Cambria street, sustained a broken ankle yesterday, when struck by a pitched baseball during a Memorial Day game in Frankford. Frank McFadden, twenty-four years old, of 1864 Glenwood avenue, broke several ligaments in his ankle when he fell while playing ball. Both were taken to the Frankford Hospital.
