Double Reed Melodeon.

THE subscriber has just opened a very fine Melodeon, 9 octave, with double set of reeds, made by the original inventors, Carhardt and Needham, New York. This Instrument is equal in point of power and volume to any small organ, and for perfection in it for sweetness of tone, capacity to stand in tune and facility for transporting. These instruments are made expressly for churches and schools, and owing to the lowness of price are fast superseding the organs. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine this fine Melodeon previous to its leaving the subscriber's warerooms, it having been purchased by a congregation in this city.

Ladies!! Read This!!!

IN THE PRESS, and will shortly be ready, "THE HANDBAID TO THE PIANO," comprising a full description of the mechanism of the instrument, the defects to which it is liable (about 200 in number), the method of remedying each defect, and instructions how to keep the instrument always in tune." By P. B. TEMPLETON.

Every person having a Piano should have a copy of this book. No work of the kind has ever been published. The information it imparts is worth ten times its price—one dollar; and, among other advantages, it will effectually guard you from having your Piano spoiled by unskillful tuners.

Ladies and gentlemen in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, can procure a copy of the work, as it will be furnished at their residences by leaving their addresses at the music stores of Messrs. John H. Mellor, Wood street, and Hamlin, Third street.

By sending one dollar to the editor, at the Gazette Office, Pittsburgh, a copy will be forwarded, free of postage, to any part of the United States. Six copies for five dollars: A liberal discount to Book sellers and Music dealers.

There is no more appropriate present that a gentleman can make to a lady, than a copy of this book.

THACKERAY'S NEW BOOK—SKETCHES IN IRELAND, by W. M. THACKERAY, Author of "Vanity Fair," "The History of Pendennis," "The Great Hoggarty Diamond," &c., &c., embellished with twenty-six beautiful illustrations, by the author, illustrating the best characters and scenes in the whole work from original designs, drawn by the author on the spot. This is the last work of the author of the first rank of works ever written in the English language. We annex a few notices of the Press:

"It will be the book to drive away melancholy." It is by that most laughter moving writer of the age, Thackeray, a man above and well it is that we have a man above melancholy. We recognize everywhere the pen of the author of "Vanity Fair," and "Pendennis," and are by no means displeased with the acquaintance."—Western Continent.

Pittsburgh Life Insurance Company.

THIS COMPANY was incorporated in February, 1851, with a perpetual Charter, and has commenced business on a Capital of $100,000.

The Company does business both on the Joint Stock and Mutual plan.

☞ On the Joint Stock plan the rates are one-third less than those charged by Mutual Companies, and Fifteen Per Cent. lower than the rates of most Stock Companies.

Mutual rates are the same as those adopted by other safely conducted Companies. Those insured on the mutual principle have the combined securities furnished by that system, and the Capital and Surplus Fund of the Joint Stock department.

The Charter permits the granting of insurance on life, in every form, including the right of wife, children, persons, relations, friends or creditors—to insure the life of another for their own exclusive benefit, payable after death, or upon the parties arriving at the age of 50, 55, 60 or 65, at the option of the insured
