DEFICIENCY BILL HAS QUEER ITEMS

Measure Shot Back to Committee to Halt Attack and Possible Scandal

SUSPECT SNYDER REQUESTS

Harrisburg, Jan. 26. [illegible] large sums for the employment of clerks, watchmen, messengers and inspectors by Auditor General Snyder, and for supplies for office departments in the $3,500,000 general deficiency bill have resulted in the bill being sent back to the appropriations committee for a good of an investigation, and some are termed a legislative scandal.

Influential legislators said today the bill was tendered with big items which could not legally be included in a deficiency appropriation bill. Some is to be spent in the future. And then, the demands for raises in salaries, in some instances, are [illegible] say, as to make it impossible for the bill to be considered in the [illegible]

Only the amount necessary to pay bill to the appropriations committee, Chairman McClain, of Allegheny, saved it from being savaged [illegible] the House yesterday afternoon on second reading. It was [illegible] was explained, for months [illegible] who know have no [illegible] that the bill is not [illegible] for of the committee [illegible] not have withstood [illegible] have been asked at it.

The bill is now [illegible] calendar and no action [illegible] ing it carried. [illegible] that encroach on [illegible] bill none which [illegible] as deficiency items.

Harmony Plan Halts Attack

Only the desire to [illegible] many as possible of [illegible] the session halted the attack. [illegible] decided to give the committee a chance to go [illegible] is freely stated that when the bill comes on the floor of the House [illegible] be considerably changed. [illegible] the attack will be launched against [illegible] leged extravagance and [illegible] wasteful in economy and efficiency. The bill for pulled off and [illegible] honey will be dissipated.

The first thing that met the inquiring members of the House [illegible] the item of $135,000 [illegible] the office of the auditor general. The legislators knew the Mr. Snyder had been liberally [illegible] but understand not understand why [illegible] asked, especially [illegible] such help is to be [illegible] legislature [illegible] should be authorized by act of Assembly [illegible] of employes, [illegible]

Following is [illegible] on a number of items of appropriation to be deficiency.

Auditor general's department.

For the [illegible] of [illegible] messengers and watchmen [illegible] department, $1,025,000 [illegible] of employes, [illegible] and [illegible] $1,025,000 for the school employes' retirement board. And no business on the deficiency bill. The items follow:

[illegible]

Pages and messengers, legislature, [illegible] $1,000 additional. There [illegible] $100 dollars for Department of Public Grounds and Buildings. The big sum wanted, [illegible] Department of Highways to be paid [illegible] Chairman McClain, of Allegheny, [illegible] saved it from being savaged [illegible] the House yesterday afternoon on second reading. It was [illegible] was explained, for months [illegible] who know have no [illegible] that the bill is not [illegible] for of the committee [illegible] not have withstood [illegible] have been asked at it.

TIPPING OF TYPISTS BANNED IN HOUSE

Speaker Serves Notice That Personal Contributions to Stenographers Must Cease

WOMEN LOBBYISTS WIN

Harrisburg, Jan. 26. The House of Representatives heard the anti-tipping [illegible] today.

Speaker Spangler served notice on the House adjourned by the week [illegible] that there is to be no more tipping of [illegible] and stenographers who have been [illegible] by the Assembly in the [illegible] private correspondence of members who are too busy to write letters themselves.

There are four grey stenographers employed by the House at the [illegible] salary which go on just the same when [illegible] are receiving.

Leader for Early Adjournment

[illegible] Speaker Spangler also spurred along the early adjournment proposition. The speaker urged the House very emphatically to get down to speedy action. He expressed disappointment that the House has not accomplished more in view of a month, and seemed to resent particularly the failure of the committees to get down to real work.

The speaker announced that he wants a big calendar next week and told the committees to get busy and supply the material for the calendar.

MARION OFFICIAL ROBBED

Bandits Enter Courthouse and Steal $14,750 From County Treasury

Marion, O., Jan. 26. (By A. P.)—Two bandits early this morning entered the office of the county treasurer in the courthouse here, knocked Treasurer Harry E. Forry unconscious with the butt end of a revolver, and escaped in an automobile with $14,750 in cash.

Treasurer Forry arrived at his office unusually early to arrange for the handling of last-minute taxpayers. He had opened the big office vault, obtained the amount named, for the purpose of making change, and had again closed and locked the vault when the bandits entered.

The two robbers crept up on him and knocked him over the head with the end of a revolver, and he fell unconscious to the floor. They hurriedly grabbed the $14,750 and left.

The vault contained between $50,000 and $75,000 in tax money, which the robbers did not get because of Treasurer Forry's foresight in locking the safe after taking out the money.

PROPOSED JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

The Board of School Directors of Reading, Pa., contemplate the erection of a new Junior High School Building, to be three stories and a basement. The school site now owned by the School District covers an entire block, measuring 100 feet by 190 feet, part of which is to be used for the erection of an elementary school building.

The building will comprise the following:

24 Classrooms.
4 Shops.
1 Room for Domestic Arts.
2 Laboratories.
1 Mechanical Drawing Room.
1 Art Room.
Auditorium to seat 1000.
Combination library, which can be used by the community without interfering with school work.
Gymnasium.
Showers and Lockers.
Public and private offices.
Necessary auxiliary rooms including medical room, supply room and teachers' accommodations.
A swimming pool or additional gymnasium for girls.

Preliminary sketches of the proposed building should be sent to Oscar B. Heim, Secretary of the School Board, Administration Building, Eighth and Washington Streets, Reading, Pa., and be in his hands not later than February 28, 1921. At a later date the Board will hold a special meeting for the purpose of hearing the individual architects, the notice of which will be sent to all architects concerned.

J. NEWTON RHOADS, President.
OSCAR B. HEIM, Secretary.
