LIPPENCOTT & PARR,
(Late J. S. Stricklet & Co.,)
Manufacturers of Phœnix Fire Proof Safes,
Second street, between Market and Wood, Pittsburgh.
ON Tuesday afternoon, July 25, 1848, the undersigned were called upon by Messrs. Lippencott & Barr, to witness an hot fire and test of their Fire Proof Iron Safes. The furnace being prepared, the Safe was placed inside thereof, with books, papers and some money; when the door of the Safe was closed and luted in the usual way, a quarter past 2 o'clock, and in a short time the Safe was red hot, and continued in that state for 1 hour, being about four and a half hours, when the committee reported their satisfaction that the time occupied with such heat was sufficient. The furnace was then pulled down, Safe cooled, and door opened—the books, papers and money were found in as good condition as before the commencement. We therefore take pleasure in recommending these Safes to the public, as being, in our judgment, entirely fire proof.

Pittsburgh, Dec. 1, 1848.
I am engaged in the foundry business, and know something about furnaces and heat. I witnessed the burning of the above Safe, and have no hesitation in pronouncing it fire proof. They run light, clean, fast and well—will last a life time, and are worthy the public as being, in my judgment, entirely fire proof.
In calling upon the above gentlemen for their signatures, they expressed a desire that I should add the fairness of the test, and their full confidence of the Safe being entirely fire-proof. We have constantly on hand and for sale a full assortment of the above Safes. [mar29y
