Merchants' Portable Boat Line.

1852. 1852.

For the Transportation of Merchandise and Produce,
(VIA THE PENNSYLVANIA CANALS AND RAIL ROADS), BETWEEN PITTSBURGH AND PHILADELPHIA,
Direct, without Transhipping.

☞ TIME, TEN DAYS.

PATTON & REYNOLDS,
Depot, 251 Market st., (near Sixth,) Philadelphia.
C. A. M'NAULTY & CO.,
Canal Basin, 403 and 410 Penn st., Pittsburgh.

HAVING increased our facilities and otherwise improved our arrangements for Transportation, we are now prepared to receive a large amount of Produce and Merchandise, to ship (on the opening of the Canals,) with promptness and dispatch.

The Section Boat system of transportation over our State improvements has been in use about ten years, and the great success and favor it has met with, is a sufficient guarantee that it is no longer considered a doubtful or uncertain experiment; but is acknowledged by all as vastly superior to any mode of transportation used on the canals, (when interfered by Railroads.)

Goods loaded into our Boats at Pittsburgh, remain undisturbed until arrival at our warehouse in Market street, Philadelphia, thereby entirely avoiding the delay consequent on three different transhipments, and securing the delivery of Goods in entire lots, the packages clean, and in as good order as when shipped.

Produce, &c., consigned to our House at Pittsburgh, will be received and forwarded always at the lowest current canal rates, strictly according to instructions, without any extra charge for commission, storage, or advancing charges.

One-half of this amount expires within a year.

The Directors, in presenting the Second Annual Report, take leave to congratulate the members upon the marked success of the Mutual Fire Insurance Company. In operation only two years, it has taken a position beside the old institutions of the country, and has met with very great success that the mutual system, as adopted by them, is beyond a question the best and only safe mode of insurance.

The success of the past year, which have annihilated many stock companies, leave the State Mutual with a cash surplus of upwards of thirty-one thousand dollars, which is constantly increasing.

The Directors submit that the State Mutual Fire Insurance Company offers, to owners of safe property, inducements seldom equalled, and never exceeded.

Directors—John P. Rutherford, P. C. Sedgwick, Samuel Jones, Philadelphia; John R. Packer, A. A. Carrier, Pittsburgh; J. B. Rutherford, A. J. Gillet, S. T. Jones, Robert Klotz.
