DAILY MORNING POST.

FRIDAY MORNING:.....AUGUST 25.

A SMART BOY.—To the Kolokerbooker belongs the credit of the following:—"One pleasant day last summer, I took my seat in the stage coach bound from Fall river to C——. Among the passengers was a little gentleman who had possibly seen five summers. The coach being quite full, he sat in the lap of another passenger. While on the way, something was said about pickpockets, and soon the conversation became general on that interesting subject. The gentleman who was holding our young friend remarked:

"'My fine fellow, how easy I could pick your pocket!'

"'No, you couldn't' replied he, 'I've been looking out for you all the time!'"

FURNITURE.

JAMES W. WOODWELL,

CABINET FURNITURE MANUFACTURER.

Ware-rooms 97 and 99 Wood St.

WM. A. WOODWELL, Jr., respectfully informs his friends and customers that he has on hand the largest and best well selected assortment of Furniture, which is decidedly the largest and best ever offered for sale in this city, which he will sell at prices as low as any Cabinet Ware-room in the United States, East or West.

As he is determined to uphold the quality with well established reputation, he will continue to employ the best workmen, and from the extent of his orders and facility in manufacturing, he is enabled to produce warranted furniture, at prices that will defy competition.

He has adopted the principle of identifying his interest with those who patronize him, in quality and price, and keeps always on hand the greatest variety of every description of furniture, from the cheapest and plainest, to the most elegant and costly, which he offers at a small advance on the cost he furnished from his stock, or manufactured expressly to order. The following articles, among many others, he feels assured, for cheapness of style and finish, cannot be surpassed by any of the Eastern cities:
