

LONDON, October 12.

By advices from Cologne, dated the 6th inst. it appears to be the intention of the French General Custine, to push on to Mayence, Darmstadt, and Frankfort, even to penetrate into the Hessian territory.

Letters from Manheim positively state that an army of from 25 to 30,000 Russians will be before Landau, by the commencement of the ensuing month, and that the first column, consisting of 6000 men, has already reached Bohemia.

By the above advices it appears that the Princes of the Empire are to furnish double contingencies, and that the King of Prussia has ordered the levy of fresh troops. In this case General Dumourier has formed a very false opinion of the sentiments of this monarch, whom, with the whole of his army, he has sent back to Prussia.

The disorder in the queen's feet is not occasioned solely by corns, but by a fettered humour, which affects the soles of both, and renders them so painful, and afterwards tender as to prevent her majesty standing for any length of time without extreme pain.

The governors of the bank of England have agreed, that in future, all bank notes shall have a line engraved across them to show where they are to be cut, when sent by post; and directions will be given to their clerks to write the number on each half, and also the date of month and year on the left hand side of the note, as recommended by the post-office.

Prince Potocki has given an entertainment at Warsaw, in which the health of Catherine of Russia was drank, under a discharge of 300 guns. The accompaniment would have been more suitable to the toast, if every gun killed an hundred thousand persons.

At a meeting, called by the Lord Mayor of Dublin, at the Exchange there, on the 10th inst. a proposal was made by his lordship, that some public means should be used to obtain subscriptions for the relief of the French emigrants in Ireland. The motion was negatived almost unanimously, for though the company were willing to promote private subscriptions for the same purpose, they would not, by any public measure, seem to express a censure of the French Revolution.

THE PRUSSIAN RETREAT.

Before the disastrous entry of the allied armies into Champagne, the French were taught to dread the immense and believed invincible Cavalry of Prussia.—What is now become of it? The horse is the tenderest of all animals, and the inclemency of a marshy soil and incessant rains, have killed them by hundreds. Custine has burnt the forage necessary for their support, and the French Hussars bring numbers of them in daily.—Vitry is the market for their sale; and there the peasants come to buy—and bespeak the preference of such as the Light Troops may acquire in their excursions.

Thus, what with the neglect of succors, imprudence in their feeding, the determined enterprize of the enemy, and, yet more than all these, the inclemency of the season; this perhaps unequalled assemblage of the finest troops in Europe is forced into the disgrace of retreat, before armies they have too lightly derided, and leaders they seem injudiciously to have despised.

DUBLIN, September 22.

Patriotic Divorces.—The French ladies appear at the bar of the Assembly, offer their husbands to serve on the Frontiers, saying, at the same time, they are of no use at home.

When several patriotic French husbands offered to send their wives to the Frontiers the Assembly have always passed to the Order of the day.

THE SYSTEM OF

Short-Hand,

Used by Mr. LLOYD, in taking down the Debates of Congress. A system so easy, that any man, of ordinary capacity, may clearly comprehend it in half an hour, and soon practise it, in its fullest extent, without any further instruction, than what will be conveyed in a few pages,—the whole ART being comprised in eighteen simple characters, without any of those perplexing, arbitrary marks, with which the learners of other systems are obliged to burden their memory, and embarrass their practice.

Price, to Subscribers, One Dollar—to Non-Subscribers, a Dollar and half.

Subscriptions received by Messrs. Rice, Book-sellers, Market-street, and by JOHN CAREY, No. 26, Pear-Street.

A GREAT BARGAIN.

FOR SALE, a beautiful situation on the Potowmack, adjoining the town of Alexandria and in a line of direction towards the Federal City and George Town, in full view of each place, commanding a prospect of the river and adjacent country of Maryland and Virginia, for many miles; about 45 or 50 acres of Land, lying directly on the river, will be sold, with the improvements, which are, a two-story framed dwelling-house, neatly finished, a kitchen, office, brick smoke-house and dairy, two-story framed barn, a well of excellent water, and an ice-house, a yard and garden, neatly railed and highly improved, with a number of other necessary improvements; the whole of the land enclosed with posts and rails, ten or fifteen acres laid down, with different kinds of grass. Its contiguity to those three towns must render it an object worthy the attention of any person who wishes to invest money in a property that must enhance in value, in proportion to the rapid increase of the Federal City, Alexandria and George-Town. This property lies nearly in a central situation to each place. The Potowmack at this spot has a fine deep shore and harbour, capable of receiving vessels of any burden. It may not be improper to observe, that men of judgment think a profitable and convenient Ferry might be erected here to the City of Washington and the Maryland shores leading to Baltimore and Philadelphia.—Also to sell, 215 acres of Wood-Land, about three miles distant, which will suit well to supply the above in wood and timber. The title may be seen to the above property, which is indisputable, and terms known by application to the subscriber, living on the premises.
