Copartnership Notice.
I HAVE THIS DAY (April 1st) associated with me Messrs. F. STEEL, TURBITT and SAML. C. CLANDY, both of whom have been for many years in my establishment, and are already extensively and favorably known to my customers and the public generally as superior workmen, and of correct business habits. We hope by this union of experience and activity—especially in the mechanical department; by keeping a large and well selected stock of goods; by selling at moderate prices, and by close attention to business, to merit a liberal share of patronage. To my old friends and the public in general, who have for many years past so liberally patronized my business, I return my thanks, and solicit for the new firm a continuance of similar favors.

MISCELLANEOUS.

ARTHUR'S PATENT
Self-sealing Cans
For Preserving Fresh Fruits, Tomatoes, &c.,
BY HERMETICAL SEALING.

THESE CANS, which are sealed by the Housekeeper without the aid of a tinner, and opened easily without injury to the can, are rapidly coming into general use. Full directions for putting up fruit accompany the cans; and the work is so easily performed, that by their use every family may have fresh Fruit and Tomatoes on their table all winter, at summer prices.

PRICES—Pint Cans, $2; Quart, $2,50; Half Gallon, $3,50; Three Quarts, $4,25; Gallon, $5 per dozen. The different sizes nest, in order to secure economy in transportation.

ARTHUR'S CAN, which is closed with a lid covering the whole top, so that when open it may be cleansed like any other vessel, has been fully approved by the Farmers' Club of the American Institute, New York. It took a first-class diploma over all other competing cans at the State Fair in Cincinnati, and was awarded a medal at the Mechanics' Institute Fair in Buffalo, during the Smithsonian Institute, Washington City, D. C. It is claimed to be the best Can in the market.

All orders accompanied by the cash will be promptly forwarded.

Joseph White's Carriage Repository.
JOSEPH WHITE, now carrying on business in his spacious premises, (now occupied by him,) on the Greensburg turnpike, near the Two Mile Run, between Pittsburgh and Lawrenceville, respectfully invites the public to inspect his stock of CARRIAGES, BUGGIES, &c. And he particularly informs gentlemen purchasers, that one price only is made. Fourteen years' experience in the business, enables him to please the most capricious the same choice collection of Carriages which, so many years past it has been his particular department to select from the various and most talented Eastern manufacturers. The success of his new system is complete—the economy of his arrangements will still supply the best and most fashionable manufactures at moderate prices.

Unencumbered by those heavy expenses, which the events for decades have proved, have caused many to depart upon the price of goods, (owing to large rents,) JOS
