THE COAL TRADE.

We have no new feauture to notice in the coal trade this week, except a small decrease in the quantity shipped. Below the trade remains without any change for the better. Quotations White Ash Lump by the cargo remain from $3,25 a $3,75, and Red Ash, from $3,75 a $4,25.

Very little, if any coal for shipping will be transported on the Rail Road, until the Bridge across the Schuylkill leading to the Richmond Depot is rebuilt.

The shipment of coal from the Lehigh amount to 140,235 up to the 19 inst.

We do not believe that the destruction of the Rail Road Bridge will advance the price of freight above 75 cents per ton on the canal. If it should advance beyond that point, the shipments of coal from this region will immediately decrease, and bring it down again.

The general election and election for inspectors and judges, to be opened between the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until 7 o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed.

In pursuance of an Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An Act relating to the election of this Commonwealth," passed the 2d day of July, A. D 1839, Notice is hereby given,

"That every person, excepting justices of the peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the government of the United States, or of this State, or any city or incorporated district, and also that every member of congress, and of the state legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, or commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising, at the same time, the office or appointment of judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this commonwealth, and that no inspector, judge, or other officer of election, shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for."

And the said Act of Assembly, entitled "An Act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth," passed July 2, 1839, further provides as follows, to wit:

"That the inspectors and judges, chosen as aforesaid, shall meet at the respective places appointed for holding the election in the districts to which they respectively belong, before nine o'clock in the morning of the second Tuesday October, in each and every year, and each of said inspectors shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of such district.

"In case the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for inspecter, shall not attend on the day of election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge at the next preceding election shall act as inspector in his place. And in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend, the person elected judge shall appoint an inspector in his place; and in case the person elected judge shall not attend, then the inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a judge in his place; and if any vacancy shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election, the qualified electors of the township, ward or district, for which such officer shall have been elected, present at the place of election, shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

"It shall be the duty of said inspectors respectively to attend at the place of holding every general special or township election during the whole time said election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the inspectors and judges when called on in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such election, or such other matters in relation to the assessments of voters as the said inspectors or judges, or either of them shall from time to time require.

"That no person shall be permitted to vote at any election, as aforesaid, other than a white freeman of the age of twenty-one years or more, who shall have resided within the state at least one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a state or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States, who had previously been a qualified voter of this state, and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district, and paid taxes as aforesaid shall be entitled to vote after residing in this state six months: Provided that the white freeman, citizen of the United States, who had previously been a qualified voter of this state, and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district, and paid taxes as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this state six months: Provided, that the white freemen citizens of the United States, between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years, and having resided in this state one year and in the election district ten days as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid taxes.

"No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants furnished by the commissioners as aforesaid unless, First: He produce a receipt for the payment within two years, of a state or county tax assessed agreeably to the constitution, and give satisfactory evidence either on his own oath or affirmation of another, that he has paid such a tax or on failure to produce a receipt, shall make oath to the payment thereof, or Second: If he claims a right to vote by being an elector between the ages of twenty-one and twenty two years, he shall depose on oath or affirmation, that he has resided in the state at least one year next before his application, and make such proof of residence in the district as it is required by this act, and that he does verily believe from the accounts given him that he is of the age aforesaid, and give such other evidence as is required by this act, whereupon the name of the person so admitted to vote shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the inspectors and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid a tax, or the word "age," if he shall be admitted to vote on account of his age, and in either case the reason of such vote shall be called out to the clerks, who shall mark it in the list of voters kept by them.

"In all cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is not found on the list furnished by the commissioners and assessor, or his right to vote whether found thereon or not is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of the inspectors to examine such person on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided within that state for one year or more, his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof, but he shall make proof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector, that he has been within the district for more than ten days next immediately preceding said election, and shall also himself swear that his bona fide residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling, is within the district, and that he did not remove in the said district for the purpose of voting therein.

"Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall make due proof, if required, of residence and payment of taxes, as aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward or district in which he shall reside.

If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officers of an election under this act from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, or shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, or shall block up or attempt to block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be holden, or shall riotously disturb the peace at such election, or shall use or practice any intimidation, threats, force, or violence, with design to influence unduly or overawe any elector, or to prevent him from voting, or to restrain the freedom of choice, such person on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars and be imprisoned for any time not less than one nor more than twelve months. And if it shall be shown to the court where the trial of such offence shall be had that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district, or township where the said offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, then, on conviction, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years.

If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of any election within this commonwealth, or shall offer to make any such bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereof, or by any written or printed advertisement, challenge or invite any person or persons to make such bet or wager, upon conviction thereof he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet, or offered to be bet.

The Judges are to make their returns for the county of Schuylkill, at the Court House in Orwigsburg, on Friday the 14th day of October, A. D. 1842.

Given under my hand and seal at the Sheriff's Office at Orwigsburg, and dated August 27th, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and sixty-sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America.

PROSPECTUS
LADY'S WREATH,
AND
YOUNG LADY'S MAGAZINE.

ON the first day of August, 1842, will be issued the first number of a new magazine with the above title.

Among the many periodicals now published, there are none which are devoted to light literature, and lay claim to literary excellence and taste in mechanical execution, which are not excluded from general circulation by the high price at which they are issued. To supply this want, which has long been felt by many, the subscribers have determined to establish a magazine that can be offered to the public at a price sufficiently low to bring it within the reach of all, and at the same time issue a work which will bear comparison with any now published, both in literary and mechanical execution. This work has not been undertaken lightly, but with a determination to make good whatever our prospectus may promise; and we mean that the remark of the celebrated modern writer,

"To lie like the prospectus of a new magazine," shall in no wise apply to us.

The contents will be entirely original, and from the pens of the most popular, talented, and pleasing writers of the day. A large list of paid contributors, have been secured, and among the number are many whose names stand high upon the brightest pages of American literature.

Each number will be embellished with a fine steel or mezzotinto engraving, from the first artists in the country; also a beautiful colored engraving of flowers, and one or more pages of popular music.

The work will be printed on new and beautiful type, cast expressly for the purpose, and on fine white paper. Each number will contain forty-eight octavo pages, with a clear, wide margin, and in a neat and appropriate cover.

A number will be issued on the first of August, October, December, February, April, and June.

To bring the work within the reach of all, it will be published at the low price of invariably in advance, or seven copies for five dollars.

All orders and communications (POST PAID) must be addressed to UNION ROOT BEER.

THE subscriber respectfully announces to the public, that he has established himself in the Borough of Pottsville, in the old Post Office Building, a few doors below the Pennsylvania Hall, where he will manufacture this delightful Beverage; and furnish it at Philadelphia wholesale and retail prices, to all those who think proper to apply for it.

It is needless to say any thing in favor of this beverage.—Its celebrity in all the principal cities, where millions of bottles are sold weekly, is sufficient to establish its character as one of the most innocent and delightful drinks of the day.
