THE LAW OF NEWSPAPERS.

If any subscriber orders the discontinuance of their newspaper, the publisher may continue to send them until arrearages are paid.

If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their newspapers from the offices to which they are directed they are held responsible until they have settled the bills and ordered them discontinued.

If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher and the newspapers are sent to the former direction they are held responsible.

The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers from the office, or removing and having them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
