

THE BEAVER RADICAL.

SMITH CURTIS, Editor.

BEAVER, PA.

Friday Morning September 12th, 1873.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

STATE.

JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT. ISAAC G. GORDON, Jefferson County. STATE TREASURER. E. W. MACKAY, Allegheny County.

DISTRICT AND COUNTY.

Assembly. S. J. CROSS, Beaver county. JONATHAN ALLISON, Washington county. A. L. CAMPBELL, Butler county. DAVID MCKEE, Butler county. Frothnotary. O. A. SMALL, Bridgewater. Treasurer. JAMES H. MANN, New Brighton. Commissioner. G. W. SHROADES, Moon tp. Jury Commissioner. JOHN WILSON, Chippewa tp. Poor House Director. SAMUEL MCNAMANY, Economy tp. Auditor. J. F. CULBERTSON, South Beaver tp. Trustees of Academy. R. S. IMBRIE, Beaver. P. L. GRIM, New Galilee.

The BEAVER RADICAL and the ARGUS have been consolidated, and will hereafter be published by the Beaver Printing Company in THE RADICAL building. The new paper will be called The Beaver ARGUS and RADICAL, and will be furnished to the subscribers of each paper excepting that those who were taking both papers will hereafter receive but one copy. J. S. RUTAN will be political editor, and J. WEYAND business manager. The present editor of this paper will have charge of the books of the RADICAL and the settlements of advertising accounts. It is needless to add that under the new management the paper will be Republican, and contribute in every way to the success of the whole ticket, State, District and County.

An arrangement has been perfected, by persons competent to make it, to consolidate the ARGUS and the RADICAL. The Consolidated paper will be called "The Beaver ARGUS and RADICAL," and the business will be conducted in the name of the "Beaver Printing Company." The new paper will be published in Col. QUAY'S building, and for the time being, will take the form of the present RADICAL. If it is thought best when the advertisements now running in both papers are somewhat "weeded out," to change to the present ARGUS form, the change will be made. All contracts, whether for subscription or advertising, made previously by either the ARGUS or the RADICAL, will be filled by the Beaver Printing Company; and persons who have heretofore been taking both papers, will in the future, be furnished with but one copy, and credit given them on the new book equal to the amount paid by them in advance on both of the old papers. For the present the Hon. J. S. RUTAN will have charge of the political department of the new paper, and J. WEYAND will be its business manager.—ARGUS.

SUCH CONSISTENCY.

The editor of the Harrisburg Patriot is capable of performing extraordinary feats. He is a Democratic Salary Grabber of the most marked stripe, who was not content to advocate the measure for the sake of others, and forego the swag himself in order to show the sincerity and disinterestedness of his support, but his zeal in the cause was so great as to compel him to receive his back pay, that he might not only teach by precept but example. This political performer on the trapeze, with his pockets thus well lined, now performs daily at dizzy heights all manner of astonishing twists and turns upon the swag swing. This Salary Grabber says in one of his daring flights through the air, that "the Salary Grab resolution of the Democratic platform places the Democracy a length a head of the Republicans in denunciation of back pay, and will unquestionably have the effect of electing the Democratic ticket." But few Salary Grabbers have the courage and agility to equal the above feat. The resolution referred to, denounces the back pay and increase of salaries, and brands those who voted for the money and received it, as well as those who accepted the pay, but voted against the measure, as committing acts unjust and unjustifiable.

The editor of the Patriot with the swag in his pocket and the above brand of the Democratic Convention on his forehead, says that the salary back pay resolution will have the effect to elect the Democratic ticket. Will not the people see through such thin deceit. The Patriot is the bright luminary in the Democratic sky, and if its editor can talk both ways at different times and say and do one thing in private and quite another in public through his paper, what will the people think of such a procedure? What faith can honest voters have in the sincerity of the Democratic party in adopting and advocating the salary grab resolution, when the leaders of the party profess and practice contrary to its sentiments. We fail to see, however, how the Democrats are put a length ahead of the Republicans in denunciation of back pay and increase of salaries, and certainly they are far behind in ability to fulfill their promises. In the first place their own party is divided in this State on this question, and a very strong effort by the prominent leaders was made to prevent the Democratic Committee from committing itself in opposition to the measure. That opposition is not conquered, it was overborne, but still lives, and is powerful in the Democratic party. When the measure comes up again in Congress next Winter, will the Democratic Members vote the increase of salaries down to the old figures again? We shall see. Whoever votes the Democratic party up in order to vote down back pay and increase of salaries, will throw his vote away and regret it in the end.

ECONOMY OF EDUCATION.

From a recent investigation made in the office of the Commissioner of Education, at Washington, in regard to the relation of postal and revenue receipts, and the number of patents issued; to the illiteracy in different sections of the country, we gather the following interesting facts in favor of common schools and universal education.

The number of patents issued to the inhabitants of Arkansas was one to every 37,267 persons, while in Connecticut there was one patent issued to every 866 persons. In Arkansas there are sixteen adults unable to write to every one hundred inhabitants; in Connecticut there are four adults unable to write to every one hundred inhabitants. In Arkansas the receipts of internal revenue were twenty-six cents and nine mills per capita; in Connecticut the receipts were two dollars and fifty-four cents per capita. In Arkansas there resulted during the postal year of 1870-'71, to the Post Office Department a dead loss of over forty-nine cents for each inhabitant of the State, a loss in amount almost double the internal revenue receipts from the State. In Connecticut there accrued a net profit to the Post Office Department of twenty-six cents per capita. In Florida there are twenty-three adults unable to write to every one hundred inhabitants. In that State one patent was issued to every 31,291 inhabitants, or only six in the entire State. The internal revenue collected amounted to sixty-four cents per capita (of the entire population.) From that State the Post Office Department suffered a loss of ninety-two cents per capita. Contrast this with California, where the number of patents issued was one to every 2,422 inhabitants, and the amount of internal revenue collected was six dollars and forty-three cents per capita. There was a loss to the Post Office Department of one dollar and a half per capita, but this deficit is accounted for in part by the long lines of transportation, to the coast of which the thinly-settled intervening sections do not greatly contribute. But in California there are only four adults unable to write to every one hundred of the inhabitants.

In Tennessee twelve adults are unable to read and write to every one hundred of the inhabitants, and the State pays internal revenue at the rate of sixty-nine cents per capita, while Ohio, in which there are four illiterate adults to every one hundred inhabitants pays five dollars and sixty-eight cents internal revenue per capita.

In Massachusetts there are three adult illiterate persons out of every one hundred inhabitants, the excess of Post Office receipts above expenditures was over $375,000.

No Republican in the party in this county deserves more from the party than our candidate for County Commissioner, G. W. Shrades. For fifteen years he has been one of the most devoted, earnest, hard-working, members of his party, and for the first time is before the people as a candidate for office. The Republicans of the county owe him a debt of gratitude which can only be discharged by the earnest efforts of every true Republican to put him ahead of the ticket in every township. We hope our friends will not neglect this.

The Texans are bitter against railroad monopolies, and in this respect are said to excel the citizens of any of the other States. This feeling is remarkable, as Texas has comparatively few railroads and sparse population, the former causing the want of them to be felt, but the later making their construction almost impossible. The anti-railroad feeling must be deep-seated, when it exists under such adverse conditions.

The Berks and Schuylkill Journal of September 6th, says in regard to the Crawford County system: The Lancaster Republican County Convention which met in Lancaster on Monday, by a vote of 184 to 46 recommended the abolition of the Crawford county system, and appointed a committee to devise new rules, to be reported to an adjourned meeting, to be called by the President after the October election.

The State debt under State Treasurer Mackey's management has been reduced, during the last month, five hundred thousand dollars, which is one of the strongest arguments in favor of his election. A reduction of the State debt means less taxes, and whosoever can reduce steadily the debt is the right man, in the right place, and so the people will say next October.

The Constitutional Convention will reassemble in Philadelphia on Tuesday morning the 16th inst. The first business for the Convention to do will be the election of a presiding officer in place of Hon. Wm. M. Meredith, deceased. Also another delegate to succeed him as a member of the Convention, will have to be chosen by the Republicans.

POLITICAL NOTES.

JUDGE ACHESON was not present at Court last week, owing to his recent illness. The Associate Judges held the Court until Friday evening, and disposed of a large number of criminal cases. Beaver county is blessed with capable Associate Judges, as the people have reason to know and appreciate. If the new constitution is adopted, Beaver must be a separate district, because Washington will constitute one, Butler and Lawrence one, and Beaver, of necessity one. This is both right and necessary, in view of the feeble health of our President Judge. Beaver county is also growing rapidly and business multiplying still more rapidly, so as to require this change.

DANIEL ERMENTROUT, Esq., a lawyer of Reading, Berks county, will succeed Hon. J. Depny Davis in the State Senate. Davis withdrew from the canvass, owing to the unexpected interference of Hon. Heister Clymer, member of Congress from that district, and the feeling in favor of rotation in office, which prevails with the untirred in that Democratic stronghold. Senator Davis was three times elected to the Senate, and maintained throughout his entire term of service an unquestionable reputation for ability and integrity. Although a bitter Democrat and a bold spoken leader, Republican Senators admired him for his candor and integrity of purpose, and there is not one but will hear of his retirement with regret.

IRWIN, of Centre, has been nominated for Senate by the Republicans of the Huntingdon Senatorial district. If the Democrats nominate Petriken, as it is thought they will, Irwin will have a walk over.

AFTER nine years' service in the Senate, Hon. W. M. Randall, of Schuylkill county, has been retired by the Democrats. This is ungrateful in view of his services for the party, but gratitude is not one of the virtues of the Great Unwashed!

THE Pittsburgh Evening Telegraph is steadily gaining in popularity and influence. It is justly regarded as one of the best afternoon papers in the United States, and the Republicans of Western Pennsylvania should be proud of this fact, and sustain it as such an organ deserves to be sustained.

HON. DAVID A. NAGLE was honored by the Democrats of the Third District of Philadelphia by a unanimous re-nomination for a third term. He is a gentleman, and if the district is to be represented by a Democrat, then Nagle is just the man Republicans would be gratified to see elected.

THE Republicans of Bradford county honored themselves and the party throughout the State by unanimously re-nominating Hon. James H. Webb for Assembly. Mr. Webb served five years in the House, was Speaker for one term, and enjoyed a reputation for ability, firmness and strict integrity among men of all parties. It is not probable he will be a candidate for Speaker, especially if Mr. Myers is, but if he should be his experience and high character would make him formidable against any candidate that could be named.

HON. JOHN A. BINGHAM has reached the Pacific coast on his way to Japan, and it is to be hoped the malicious clamor of a certain portion of the press will follow him no further. He did wrong in voting for the salary grab, but it is one wrong act in sixteen years of distinguished public service, and for this reason should be both forgiven and forgotten. He is the ablest and most deserving Republican holding a foreign appointment, and having a record and a reputation that will reflect honor on his country for generations to come, he can well afford to disregard the clamor of the hour. Health and prosperity go with him!

POLITICAL.

The Republican Conference for the Huntingdon Senatorial district met at Tyrone on Thursday, and nominated John Irvin, Jr. of Bellefonte, for Senator.

The Republicans of Somerset county intend opening the fall campaign with a mass meeting, at the Court House, in Somerset, on Tuesday evening, September 2th.

The people of Connecticut will decide by ballot, on the first Monday in October, whether they will in the future be content to have Hartford their sole Capital or not.

The political outlook for Jefferson county was never better than now. The Republicans are fortunate in having a good, strong ticket, and with an active campaign a glorious victory will surely crown their efforts.

Dr. Andrew Nebinger, of Philadelphia, has been appointed Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee. The first meeting of the committee takes place Thursday afternoon, at the Logan House, Altoona.

The Reading Times says: All is not lovely and peaceful with the Democracy of Berks. Large numbers are dissatisfied with some of the nominations made on Monday, and many threaten to vote with the Republicans this Fall or not vote at all.

Gen. E. A. Wilson, the Republican nominee for Controller of the Treasury of Ohio, is a son-in-law of the late Hon. A. J. Cline, formerly of H. Hildayburg. General Wilson at one time published what was then the Blair County Whig, now the Radical.

The Republicans of Bedford county, Pa., opened the campaign with a rousing meeting in Bedford on the evening of the 26th. Hon. R. Stockett Mathews, of Baltimore, and Hon. T. B. Hazard, of Washington county, were the principal speakers.

The Republicans of Bradford county held their county convention on Tuesday last and nominated the following ticket: Assembly—E. R. Myer, James H. Webb; Associate Judge—J. W. Ingham; Treasurer—Matt Marshall; Commissioner—Abram Snell; Jury Commissioner—B. F. Knapp; Auditor—E. R. DeLong.

In the Democratic convention of Berks county on Monday, September 1st, Daniel Emertrout, Esq., was nominated for State Senator on the first ballot, receiving 125 out of 185 votes. The present incumbent J. DePuy Davis, Esq., withdrew from the contest on the same morning.

The Temperance ticket put in nomination by the zealous temperance men of Allegheny county was set up on the principle that office should seek men, and not men office; for the names of a number of men on the ticket were used without their knowledge and consent, and we expect to hear of one and another of them respectfully declining, until the number on the ticket has grown beautifully less, and names stand far apart.

The following are the Delaware county nominations: Senate—Thomas V. Cooper; Assembly—O. Flagg Bullard; Register and Recorder—J. C. Berstler; County Treasurer—Albin Baldwin; Commissioner—Ellis Baker; Jury Commissioner—George Yarnall; Director of the Poor—Jesse Hibberd; Auditor—Daniel James; County Surveyor—Joseph Taylor.

The following is the ticket nominated by the Republicans of Centre county: For Senate—John Irwin, Jr., subject to the decision of the district conferees; Assembly—Levi A. Miller; Treasurer—Col. George A. Bayard; Commissioner—Samuel Gramley; Jury Commissioner—Benjamin Liggett; Auditors—Dr. J. M. Blair, 2 years, Andrew Gregg, 3 years.

The Democratic State Convention of Texas, met at Austin, September 6th, and nominated the following ticket: For Governor—Richard Coke, of Waco; Lieutenant Governor—R. B. Hubbard; Comptroller—Stephen H. Carden, of Rockport; Treasurer—A. J. Dorn, of Benham; Commissioner of Land Office—J. J. Gross, of New Braunfels; Superintendent of Education—O. N. Hollingsworth, of Sequim.

The Republicans of Chester county have made the following nominations: Senate—Thomas V. Cooper; Assembly—E. W. Bailey and Peter G. Carey; County Treasurer—Jesse E. Phillips; County Commissioner—John Irej; Jury Commissioner—Washington Haggerty; Director of the Poor—William H. Dallett; Auditor—Isaac Spackman.

The Republican County Convention of Cuyahoga county met in Cleveland, September 6th, and nominated the following ticket: Senators—William Bingham and C. W. Curtis; Representatives—O. T. Hodge, T. F. Tarenbach, J. M. Cooles, H. M. Chapman and G. H. Babcock; Judge of Common Pleas—Darius Caldwell; Auditor—W. B. Jones; Treasurer—T. W. Dillon; Recorder—E. H. Bohm; Prosecuting Attorney—Wm. Robinson; Coroner—J. Clark Miller.

The Republicans of Bucks county last week nominated the following ticket: Senator—Samuel F. Long; Assembly—Dr. A. H. Clayton, Henry Kratz; Associate Judge—Isaac B. Twining; District Attorney—Alfred Packenthal; County Commissioner—Levi L. Jackoby; Jury Commissioner—Jacob Van Buskirk; Treasurer—Isaac H. Worstall; Auditor—A. K. Wambold; Director of the Poor—Charles Fellman.

Parson Brownlow has a programme for the canvass in Tennessee. In a letter to Ex-Senator H. S. Foote he says: "I understand that some of the Rip Van Winkle Democrats, who have not learned that slavery is abolished, and the Democratic party dead, desire to run Col. Jefferson Davis, of Memphis, for Governor of Tennessee. I hope they will do so, and I believe Davis wants to make the race. In that event, I hope to see you take the field as a candidate." Let the battle proceed.

The Hollidaysburg Register says: Never was there more unanimity in the ranks of our party, in this State and county, than at the present time. Mr. Mackey has been Treasurer for three years, and has managed our finances in an admirable manner; and Judge Gordon is one of the purest and ablest jurists in the State, and his nomination gives universal satisfaction. The election of our State ticket is secure by a majority of not less than thirty-five thousand. Judging by the feeling of satisfaction that we hear expressed from all parts of our county, in regard to each candidate—and by the way, we never had a better or more unexceptionable ticket—the worst man on it will not fall short of 750 majority at the polls. Republicans, burnish up your arms, and make ready for the glorious victory that awaits you on the second Tuesday of October.

The State Journal says: The Democracy of Berks county, at their late convention, passed the following resolution: Resolved, That the Democracy of Berks county, to see the farmers all over the country organizing, as a class, in opposition to the oppression of monopolies and the frauds of speculators; and that we hail this as a dawn of return to the sound and safe principles of free government announced by Thomas Jefferson in his first inaugural.

Frank M. Hutchinson and his father-in-law, George W. Cass, are the associates in interests of the men who control the railroad monopolies of the West, which have for years been plundering the farmers of that region, and against whom the granges are all organized. The Democracy who believes in the justice of the Berks county resolution quoted above, cannot vote for Mr. Hutchinson, and if the farmers of that county know the fact stated herein they would most assuredly repudiate Mr. Hutchinson as a candidate for State Treasurer.

Mrs. Mary Ann Calhoun has sold her house in Hopkinton for $1200 to Mr. Marshall Campbell, of Raccoon township. Mrs. Calhoun will move to Allegheny city.

Fancy Shoes of all kinds at Hertzog and Beams'.

A Twenty-five Barrel Oil Well has been obtained in Bradford township, McKean county, at the depth of 1,150 feet. This opens up more oil territory and the land contiguous to the well is being rapidly purchased by oil speculators.

Hertzog & Beams, manufacturers and dealers in Fancy Boots, Shoes and Gaiters. Agents for all parts of the county filled on short notice at reasonable prices.

Two entire new two Horse Wagons, for sale at Speyerer & Son's.

Willie Oyster, the crippled thief, whom without being constantly watched, iron doors, bars, and stone walls could not confine, but who was let out on $300 bail for his appearance at our September Court, was under arrest at Pittsburgh for theft at the time he should have appeared here and his case was continued over.

The cheapest clothing store in the county is R. Steinfeld's, New Brighton.

The Fall trade is about to begin and R. Steinfeld will have a splendid stock of clothes of all kinds and ready made clothing for boys and men all of which he proposes to sell low. Call and see him.

Wm. McDonald, Esq., the well known farmer and lumber dealer, who lives opposite Legionville Station, and who is an old and esteemed resident of this county, will on the 18th inst. dispose of a large number of horses, cows and farming utensils, preparatory to taking up his abode in the "smoky city."

J. Sneltenburg goes east today; will be gone two weeks, procuring the largest stock of clothing, &c., ever brought to Beaver county. Be on the look-out for the grand opening about the middle of September.

Boots and shoes for ladies, gentlemen and children, at Hertzog & Beams, New Brighton.

We learn that a gentleman, residing from the vicinity of New Brighton, while "making change" at the toll bridge in Bridgeport on last Friday night, suddenly became aware of the fact that his cash account had, in some unaccountable manner, been diminished to the tune of about fifty dollars, and that all his efforts to recover the same have thus far proved unavailing.—ARGUS.

Wanted.—John H. Ewing, of Shippingport, Pa., is now buying WOOL, paying the highest prices. He wants all he can get.

For a neat and substantial Boot, Shoe or Gaiter go to the cheap store of John Kennedy & Co., Beaver Falls. They have the largest, best and cheapest stock in Beaver county, and can suit you in any way.

Andy McDonald's saddlery and harness shop and ware room is worth visiting. His space is limited but it is well filled with everything in his line. He has just received a large stock of whips, and lashes of all kinds. His business is brisk and he is compelled to employ a number of workmen to fill his constantly increasing orders. Remember, A. McDonald makes better saddles, harness, bridles and other work in his line, than can be found elsewhere in the county.

Boots and Shoes at Hertzog & Beams' New Brighton. These gentlemen keep on hand a large assortment of goods in their trade, and sell them at the most reasonable rates. They take delight in showing their boots and shoes, and are not afraid of comparing them as to quality, style and price with those of any other store or manufacturer.

Beaver County's First Prisoner.—In a conversation a few days ago with a gentleman who lived in Beaver at the time the county was organized (in 1803) he informed us that although but a mere child he remembered distinctly the building of the first jail and the appearance of the first prisoner in the county. The jail was constructed of oak slabs, and from his account of it, such a genius as Willie Oyer would not have roosted in it twenty minutes. The name of the first prisoner was Thatcher, and he was incarcerated for debt. Mr. T. has descendants still living in the county, and as his imprisonment was the result of misfortune, and not crime, they need not blush at the recital of the above bit of local history.—ARGUS.

John Kennedy & Co., of Beaver Falls, are doing a large business in the boot and shoe trade. Their wholesale trade, already large, is certainly increasing, and their facilities for manufacturing boots and shoes are such that they defy competition. They keep constantly on hand a splendid stock of gentlemen and ladies wear of all styles, prices and sizes, also boys and girls boots and shoes. Boots and shoes made to order from the very best material, and warranted to give satisfaction. Call and examine their stock and leave your orders.

Magnan's Persian Ointment is undoubtedly the best known remedy for Cholera-morbida, Cramps, Diarrhea and Dysentery. For sale by Druggists, Dealers and Agents. Price 50 cents.
